PROSPECTUS THE CHARLESTON MERCURY A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY

NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY. HE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston. and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current s made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Cor-respondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the ighest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive .-Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its cotumns which should be excluded rom the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799-the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States: Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights. Terms-Payable in Advance, DAILY, per annum......$40.00 Clubs will be Furnished as follows: Five Cornes of the DAILY for $40.00

We offer to advertisers the inducement of sending their favors to be read by a numerous and induential class of readers, both in town and country. The Southern Guardian presents great advantages as an advertising medium; its circulation is large, and is dally and rapidly extending,- particularly in the middle and upper stricts of the State. The Job Office is thoroughly appointed in all respects, and fitted for every description of Job Work. In connection with it is a Bindery. The Southern Guardian is devoted to the mainenance of the rights, honor and interests of the South under the Constitution. While it is willing to sustain the Democratic party whenever its course shall command approval by its justice, it yet more confidently and distinctly relies upon the people of the South; and as the best preparation for the contest which is even now upon us, it will zealously labor to effect union and co-operation amongst In the management of this journal, the arly production of every class of news from all parts of the world, the lessons of virtue and morality, the terests of education, agriculture, commerce, and and no effort will be spared to make it, in all respects, an acceptable fire-side visitor.

The Express is a steady, straight-forward Journal, wholly and thoroughly National in heart and sentiment-uniting a healthy and national love of progress with that sound conservative spirit that tempers all progress with reason and moderation. Its Editors are most ardently devoted to a Union of these States, and they deem the preservation of the Union, in the spirit of the Constitution, and of the compromise in which it was formed, of the highest importance not only to the existence of Constitutional Government, and of Liberty itself, but to the salvation of the people from civil and intestine wars. We shall, therefore, do nothing to make the North hate the South, or the South the North, but on the contrary, everything we can do, to draw closer the bonds of the Union, and to make one section respect and love the other .-Our aim will be to make the Express a true Constitutional and Ameican Journal, worthy the support of all those who truly love their country, and feel devoted to its future honor and prosperi-

The Editors of the Express spare no pains nor money, to collect, by correspondence, or through the telegraph, the very latest intelligence from all parts of the United States, and from other countries; and they allow no Journal to surpass theirs, in the publication of the very latest News, Political, Commercial, or Miscellaneous. Their Weekly sheet is a Family Journal, which for the decency, decorum, and sound principles, moral and social, that pervade its columns, they can cheerfully commend to the introduction of any article. Their Semi-Weekly and Daily sheets, in the variety, extent and accuracy of their intelligence, as to Trade Navigation or Currency, are seldom equaled, and never excelled. No Merchant, Trader, Farmer or Planter can afford to do without such a Newspapaper, for in the useful, money making information it brings home to him, he will be repaid every year, in his own pocket, twenty times over. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The January number is a fine specimen of what this valuable publication will be for the future .-The course Putnam is pursuing will stamp it with permanency, and the reason for this permanency will be the substantial literature which its pages offer to the public. Putnam is the pioneer, in our opinion, of a new era in literature, and which must, at some future day, take posssssion of the people. The present is the age of romance, and light literature has its millions of votaries, but the coming age will be the age of substantialities, and then Putnam will lead the van and establish a fame which other cotemporary Magazines can never pretend to aspire to.—Brooklyn, L. I.,

Morning Journal. . It is the best for those who wish to read and preserve the best purely literary serial in the country, to begin to take this magazine—which we do safely and hearthy .- N. Y. Courie and En-

We would remark of Putnam's Monthly that it has been thus far, the American magazine of the day. Its articles have been, generally speaking, of a high order, and they will favorably compare with the contents of any periodical in existence.-Under its present editor it stands as well and as Putnam, of January, is the best number of any magazine ever published in this country. No one can keep up with the progress of American nam's.—Lawrence Sentinel. It furnishes a great variety of popular literary entertainment; is bold, spirited and judicious, and furnishes better reading for the public than any magazine in the country.—Ogdensburg (N. Y.)

Other magazines have their appropriate place, and are worthy of commendation, but Phtnam, inasmuch as it is a repository of the best current American Literature, must be placed at the head. It affords a variety of reading matter of a high order, and has an elevating tendency upon the tastes of its readers. Besides, it stimulates and encourages meritorious authors. There has been no falling off in its character since it passed into the hands of Messrs. Dix & Edwards, and during the three years of its publication, it has verified the language of the publishers concerning it. - Bangor (Me.) Daily Journal. Occupying a position between the stately Quarterlies and the lighter Monthlies, it is a Magazine which is well calculated to elevate the public taste, and deserve from its intrinsic excellence a large circulation .- Boston (Mass.) Journal. We feel ourselves called upon, however, just now to repeat, that from intimate and continued examination of all the publications of this class, we are convinced not only of its unrivalled superiority as a household and literary periodical, but as dentified with the best interests of the cause of letters in this country; we would testify to its great utility and value. Subscribers to Periodical literature for the ensuing year should consider the fact in connection with this periodical, that they will equally benefit the cause of American literature and their own welfare, by a support of Putnam.—N. Y. Morning Empress.

It is not only a sound and able advocate of the principles of freedom, but it is exclusively and emphatically an American Journal.—Detroit (Mich.) Evening News.

TO THE PUBLIC.

PPOSPECTUS OF 'THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS." SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY. RALEIGH, N. C.

R. H. WHITAKER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. ITH a hope of increasing our usefulness to the Democratic Party, as well as to the eading public, generally, we desire to enlist the aid and good will of the young men, and old men, of the States in behalf of our enterprise-and we care to do it in no other way than by publishing a SOUND DEMOCRATIC PAPER, and a good and reliable Family Journal.

Our opinions are too well known to the public to require an announcement of our sentiments upon he various political topics which now agitate the public mind, and it need only be said, that, as eretofore, we shall be guided by the examples of such true lights of Democrocy as the venerable sage and just patriot, James Buchanas, Mr. Bragg, Mr. Reid, Mr. Branch, Mr. Edwards, and others, whose political histories are untarnished, and whose records, as Democrats, are fair. The approaching year will bring with it duties of sufficient importance to engage the time, the talents and the zeal of even more Democratic Papers than now exist in North Carolina, and it is important, in order that their labors may be beneficial to the party, that they be extensively patronized; that they circulate in every neighborhood, and visit every voter. The Opposition are organizing for the Campaign of 1860, with the view, first to defeat their election of our present able Chief Magistrate, Gov. Ellis; socondly, to carry the Legislature; and thirdly, to secure the vote of the State to an Oppositio lidate for President. The accomplishment of either one of those objects would be mortifying to the Democracy, though its effect might only be temporary, and it therefore behooves every man to do what he can to prevent the loss of an inch of ground. For ourself, we are determined "to be instant in season and out of season," and spare neither time nor labor in defending the principles of Democracy, and laboring to maintain for ft that proud position which it now holds before the country. We shall therefore at a very early date com-mence the publication of a SEMI-WEEKLY as

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS

DAILY GLOSS, and THE CONGRESSION GLOSS AND ARTHMOSE, to remind susperible, and inform those who may desire to subscribe, that Congression on the first Monday of December, 1860 when I resumed publishing the above named papers. They have been published so long, that most public men know their character, and therefore, I deem thus desired a give a minute account of the kind of matters they will contain.

The Dathy Gloss will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters, equal, at least, to any come of short-hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will, each, to able to re-short-hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will, each, be able to report, serbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words speace by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred sords an hour. When the debates of a day more take more than forty-five columns, they will suppear in The haily Globe of the next more ling, which will contain, also, the news of the day together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix, will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United Street, he Messages of the President of the United Street, he Messages of the Laws the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quarto size, each number conaining sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is acknowledged to beithe cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint or printed from manuscript copy, taking for data the average number of words it contains. The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because the debates will, in a great measure, be upon the policy of the President elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates of Congress can be obtained. THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX DESS ree through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852 : oint Resolutions providing for the distribution of the Laws of Congress and the Debates thereon. WASHINGTON, December 18, 1860. THE PAPER FOR YOUR FAMILY! A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER! THE TIMES; lurge Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro" $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months, THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our mind and American scholarship without Putenergies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

AD VALOREM BANNER

A NEWSPAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. S soon as the necessary arrangements can be a made, and I hope to have them completed early in January, 1861, I will commence, in the City of Raleigh, N. C., the publication of a weekly Newspaper, to be called the "AD VALOREM BAN-NER." It will be published in quarto form, on good paper, and with new materials throughout. The limits of a Prospectus will not admit of my going fully into the policy and principles which will govern my course as an Editor, and I can now only give the outlines briefly. First .- The BANNER will be, in many respects, different from any other paper published in the State, or the South. About half of it will be devoted to Literature of a high order, such as Poetry, Tales, Essays, Biographies, &c., in which department I will be aided by some of the best writers of the age. The rest of the paper will be devoted to Politics, News, general Miscellany, &c., thus combining the advantages of a good Family paper, with the political principles of truth, justice and equality.

Second .- I am a Democrat-one of the Old Guard-and under present circumstances a Union man. I shall think for myself, and speak what I think, if I so choose, regardless of threats, cliques, combinations, magnates and potentates. I shall adhere to the great conservative principles of my party, and not be seduced by the "zeal without knowledge" of new converts. My advisers shall not be those with the scent of "Sam," after putrefaction took place, upon their garments; and most especially will I not be counselled by any one who was regarded as too unreliable to be admitted into Know-Nothing lodge! Third.—I helped to fight the battle on a great popular right, (Equal Suffrage,) which gave the Democratic party power in North Carolina; and now I shall strive to maintain that power by sustaining another great popular right—Equal Taxa-tion. We have equality at the ballot-box; let us have it at the Treasurer's Office also.

Fourth.—While I shall adhere to the old land marks of Democracy, I shall free myself from that worst of tyrannies—party tyranny; and shall ever oppose the action of caucuses and conventions when ruled by a minority, and by an irresponsible secret ballot, as is now generally the case.

Fifth.—The BANNER will speak for THE PEO: PLE, and against political speculators. It will counsel union and harmony, and advocate fair dearing and a fair expression of the public will. Sixth .- If Mr. Lincoln or any one cise violates the Constitution, I shall advocate his removal from power and the infliction of a punishment commen-surate with the crime; but I am not in favor of rashly overthrowing the fairest governmental fabric in the world, and of blotting out the last great hope of freedom, on account of the villainy f any man or set of men.

Seventh .- As occasion requires I shall use a set of editorial casters, well supplied with the vinegar of sarcasm, the mustard of irony, the pepper of ridicule, the horse-radish of invective, and other seasonings to suit times and circumstances.

TERMS OF THE BANNER : $2 a year, payable on receipt of the first num.

ber. Any person remitting $10, with the names of five subscribers, will be entitled to an extra copy for one year.

Please obtain what names you can, and send them to me by the 1st of January next. FRANK I. WILSON.

The New American Cyclopædia.

D. APPLETON & CO., 346, and 388 Broadway, New York, published by subscription only, the New American Cyclo-padia; a Popular Dictionary of General Knowledge, edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana, assisted by a numerous but select corpse of writers. THE object of the NEW AMERICAN CYCLO-PÆDIA is to exhibit in a new condensed form, the present state of human knowledge on every object of rational inquiry in SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, MANUFACTURES, LAW, MEDICINE, ART, MATHEMATICS, ASTRONOMY, PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION, POLITICS, HISTORY, BIOGRA-PHY, GEOGRAPHY, TRAVELS, CHEMISTRY, MECHANICS, TRADES. With this design, the numerous Encyclopædias,

Dictionaries of special branches of study, and popular Conversations, Lexicons, in the English, French and German languages, have, of course, been diligently consulted and compared. But the New American Cyclopædia is not founded on any European model; in its plan and elaboration it is strictly original. Many of the writers employed on this work have enriched it with their personal researches, observations and discoveries. As far as is consistent with the thoroughness of research and exactness of statement, the popular method has been pursued. By condensation and brevity, the editors have been enabled to introduce a much greater variety of subjects than is usually found in similar works, and thus to en-hance the value of the New American Cyclopædia as a manual of Universal Reterence. At the same time, an entertaining style has been aimed at wherever it would not interfere with more important considerations. Special care has been bestowed on the department of Living Biogra-

In the preparations of the present volume, nearly a hundred collaborators have assisted-including persons in almost every part of the United States, in Great Britain, and on the Continent of Europe, whose names have attained an honorable distinction, each in some special branch of learning. No restriction has been imposed on then, except that of abstinence from the expression of private dogmatic judgment and the introduction of sectarian comments, at war with the historical character of the work. In this fact, it is hoped, will be found a guaranty of the universality and impartiality of the New American Cyclopædia, which the publishers do not hesitate to say will be superior in extent, variety and exactness of information to any similar publication in English language. The work will be published exclusively by subscription, in fifteen large octavo volumes, each containing 750 two-column pages, and in external appearance will be at once elegant and substan-Subscriptions received, payable on delive-PRICE—In cloth, $8; Library style, leather, $3 56; half morocco, $4; half Russis, extra, The first volume will be sent by mails. free o postage, to any address; on remittance of
