GEN. MC'CULLOCH ON THE FIELD A CONFEDERATE VICTORY.

MANY CAPTURED.

RICHMOND, Aug 2. Reliable information received here via Nashville, (Tenn.) states that Gen. Mc Culloch with 12,000 Confederates attacked the Federalist at Springfield, Missouri, on Friday the 26th July, killing about 600 and taking about the same number prison-

The victory was complete and the loss on the Confederate side was very trifling.

FROM HARPER'S FERRY.

RICHMOND, Aug. 3. The Winchester Republican of this morning, says that Gen. Banks' army at Harper's Ferry is almost entirely disbanded, only a few Regiments remaining.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. Official Dispatches to Gen. Patterson will show that the entire blame of the Bull's Run disaster rests on his disobedience. Positive orders were given him to engage Johnston. That being impossible, to get between Johnston and Manas. sas. That impossible, to harrass his rear, and, failing in that, to repair to Washington and form a junction with McDowell, simultaneously with Johnston and Beaure-

The Demoorat says the report of killed on the rebel side is underrated. The people of the neighborhood affirm at least one thousand were killed and wounded. Several trophies of the battle have been brought in, including bars of iron fired from Jackson's cannon. They also fired 4 and 8 lbs. weights.

Mexico, Missouri, papers contain the programme to establish a camp of 30,000 at Springfield, to operate in Arkansas and Texas as soon as the weather will permit.

Gen. Pork will permit no free scouting considering it injurious to troops. He will hold people to strict responsibility for depredations committed by troops. He calls tor relief in sufficient numbers to posess vilages quartering soldiers in citizens honses drawing rations from citizens. This is believed the only means for keeping people quiet.

Despatches Direct for Europe.

We learn (says the Charleston Mercury,) that Senor Moncada, Spanish Consul for the States of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, have despatched special messengers to his Government in Madrid, as well as to the Governor-General of Cuba, giving the full accounts of the great rout of the 21st inst. He has also made arrangements to have the latest news of the war, from Southern sources, regularly telegraphed to Madrid immediately upon the arrival of the steamers at Liverpool .-This would imply that Her Catholic Majesty's Government is not far behind England and France in anxiety concerning the issue of the war.

Telcgraph from the Associated Press of New York. Washington, July 27 .- Our triumph at Manassas last Sunday would have been the most signal recorded in the pages of history had not an accident snatched the victory from our grasp. The Administration is busily at work, and will soon perfect a scheme which will, beyond doubt or cavil, overwhelm the rebels in defeat, consternation and dismay. I am not at liberty to disclose the whole programme. For the present, suffice it to say that all the available militia force of the faithful States -2,300,000 men-will, within one month, be fully equipped, armed and drilled.

Immense balloons, capable each of carrying 1,000 horses, 20,000 men, 50 pieces of artillery and 500 loaded wagons, will be ready to transport our brave troops to the rear of the enemy.
