FROM ROANOKE ISLAND.

COLUMBIA, S. C. Feb. 10. Editor Bulletin

A private Dispatch just received here from the highest authority states that Roanoke Island has been taken by the enemy. Our loss in killed, wounded and prisoners captured amounts to 3000.

O. JENNINGS WISE, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer is mortally wounded. The enemy lauded fifteen thousand strong and we were lorced to surrender after our ammunition gave out.

It is supposed that the enemy's loss will reach 1000.

Occupation of the Island.

RICHMOND, Feb. 10 .- A steamer arrived to-night with the intelligence that the Federals took Roanoke Island vesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Federal force 15,000, landed, against less than 3,000 Contederates.

All our troops were taken prisoners except 25. Many officers were wounded : among them O. Jennings Wise, who, it is thought is mortally. Capt. Coles of Charlotteville is reported killed. Particulars meagree, but it is certain that Gen. Wise en .- Leavenworth Conservative, Jan. 7. was not captured.

From Roanoke Island. Received at Telegraph Office Feb. 10, )

at Bulletin Office, 4:20 p. m. RICHMOND, Feb. 10.-An officer from the Confederate steamer Curlew, just from Roanoke Island, reports that the Curlew was sunk by the enemy. The other Con-Tederate Boats then withdrew to Elizabeth City, for want of ammunition.

A large body of Federals, supposed to be 5,000, landed yesterday at Roanoke Island. Their landing was intentionally permitted, so as to meet them on shore. It is reported our troops engaged the enemy vigorously. The Battle raged terrifically all day. Our Batteries were unininged. no casualtis reported.

A flag of truce went to-day to Fortress Monroe and will return this evening. The battle reported at Roanoke Island on Saturday commenced at 9, a. m. All batteries continued operations for half an hour, under this fire.

The enemy landed 500 at the South end of the Island, being a marshy locality .-The Contederates charged them cheering, when the enemy retreated in disorder and attempted to reach the Gun Boats. Confederate reinforcements reached the Island on Friday night. Ammunition was abundant and we were well provisioned on the Island.

Daring the attack, four Federal yessels wereannk. The Curlew was only beached. A large ball struck her deck and passed through her bottom, All aboard and her ammunition were saved.

The Commander of the Confederate steamer Forrest made a gallant fight although somewhat wounded. One midshipman lost an arm.

Fifty Federal vessels were off the Island but only 20 Gun boats were engaged . It is understood that the Confederate fleet retired to Elizabeth City to obtain supplies which they found and promptly

returned reinvigorated. News from the North.

Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 10, 1862 at Bulletin office, 8,85 p. m. By a flag of truce, the New York Heruld of the 8th has been received. In its report of the taking of, Fort Henry it says:

The fight lasted 20 minutes; Federals fired 240 rounds into the fort." 33 Federals killed. Gen. Tilghman and staff, one Colonel, 2 Captains and 30 privates were made prisoners.

Hallick's dispatch to McClellan, dated St. Louis 7th, says-"Fort Henry is ours; the Flag of the Union is re-established upon the soil of Tennessee, never to be removed.

Congress is greatly elated at the victory. A letter from Thurlow Weed, at Paris, dated Jan. 21, says,-"Napoleon would announce to the Corps Legislative his intentions to interfere in American affairs.

CONGRESSIONAL - The Senate has passed a Bill appropriating $10,000,000 for the construction of 20 iron-clad Gun Boats .-A bill authorizing the issue of an additional $10,000,000 demand notes has also passed the Senate. LOUISVILLE Feb. 7 .- Fort Donelson will be attacked to morrow. The Confederates from Fort Henry retreated to Paris, leaving PITTSBURG, Feb. 7 .- Confederates evacuated Romney last night.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 .- The War Department has received a dispatch which says Gen. Lander occupies Romney. The Confederates have withdrawn.

An editor residing in Porkopolis itself, ts fly the following hoggish missile at the nnessee rebels : the State of Tennessee alone has raised pork nough during the past year to last the Confederate army till next winter.-

The Indian Fights,

From Dr. G. A. Cutler, Indian Agent at Leroy, Coffee county, we learn full particulars in regard to the recent defeats of the Union Indians.

The Rebel Indians were commanded by Albert Pike and McIntosh. The last fight was on the border of Cherokee county; our men were badly whipped, and a number of women and children were killed. The enemy had artillery, we had none, and our defeat was chiefly attributable to

There are now about four hundred Union Indians at Fall River, and in a deplorable condition. Hundreds more are daily expected there. Taylor is the Chief at Fall River. They have no provisions, and are poorly clothed. The guns used by them are of the poorest kind, and they have very little ammunition.

Opothleyoholo believed that John Ross betrayed him. The Union Indians were twice attacked when on the camping ground selected by Ross. The third time it was determined not to take his advice, and they were not attacked. The rebels burned all the wagons and grain of our men, and shot the cattle before their eyes. Seminoles, Cherokees, Creeks and Chickasaws were engaged in the fight on the Union side. The settlers are now giving the refugees food to keep them alive. They were fourteen days coming up from the Nation. Dr. Cutler says there will be much suffering, unless immediate assistance is giv-

The Capture of Lieutenant Selden. In reference to the gallant exploit of the capture of Lieutenant Selden, U. S. N., and to his shame, a Virginian, a correspondent writes:

At the time of the capture, Selden was taking the three schooners from Mobile Bay to Key West, as prizes, with the original crews, who were Southern men, and were to be confined in Fort Taylor, Key West. When off Cedar Keys, Sunday, July 21st, being a dead calm, a young man by the name of Tully, formerly of the navy espied them outside with the stars and stripes flying at the top. Very luckily, the Governor the day before had sent one 6pounder, &c, Tully jumped aboard an old steamboat, got his gun ready while the few countrymen with him fired up, with "old Jimmey" as the pilot, and ran out. The first salute was blank; the next a round shot which cut away the main topmast. Down came the U.S. flag. Selden came on board to the great joy of the recaptured Southerners. No time was to be lost, so they steamed after the next and served them the same way. It was beginning to get dard and the wind to freshen up; they soon took the other, when they took all three in tow. Had they been out another hour all on board of the steamer would have been lost, as they were some ten miles outside the light. I have never seen a more daring exploit since the war. It was morning before the party came in, and as the old tug steamed up with her prizes the ladies and gentlemen gave cheer after cheer, while Tully held aloft the Confederate flag, much (too doubt) to the annovance of Lieut. Selden

The ladies had a fine dinner for the little band who risked their lives for the glorious Confederacy. The writer of this was on a visit to the Keys when it took place. The person who had the luck to capture the Yankees, is now at Fort Sumter, (Co. F.) Since the affair at the Keys, he was out as chief gunner on the privateer Sally, Captain Lebby.

The special boast of the rebels during the war, has been their ability to destroy their enemies in a hand to-hand combat They have constantly flattered themselves that the superiority of their troops in fighting with the bayonet and bowie knife, was an indisputable fact. The Mississippians have prided themselves on the tremendous slaughter they would be able to inflict upon the Yankees with the bowie knife. It must be especially disheartening to them to learn at the battle of Webb cross roads, these terrible Mississippians. with bowie knives two feet long, ran panic-stricken before the levelled bayonets of the 2d Minnesota and 9th Ohio regiments. -Cincinnati Commercial.

The Commercial's statement in regard to the Mississippians is a first-class Yankee lie. This war has yet to show the first instance of a Mississippians running. The world never witnessed better and braver men than that gallant State has furnished to fight the battles of Southern independence. - Louisville Courier.

An exchange has the following, as an excellent system of gardening for ladies Make up your beds early in the morning; sow buttons on your husband's shirts; do a part of their guns. Federal Cavalry are not rake up any grievances; protect the young and tender branches of your family; plant a smile of good temper in your face; and carefully root out all angry feelings, and expect a good crop of happiness.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have per, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertain ment and improvement of the farmers and citi-zens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this par ticular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contine to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn

our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words— "Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our

News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.
