The News from Roanoke Island. Correspondence of the Petersburg Express.

PORTSMOUTH, VA., Feb. 9.

Dear Express: The news of our disaster at Roanoke Island has already reached your office. A sad commentary it is on the inefficiency of somebody, and culpable neglect somewhere. I am satisfied the gallant men who so heroically defended it against overwhelming numbers, are not only free from all blame, but deserve undying honor.

You can testify that I have not become a prophet under the influence of defeat, but that the very day on which the fight commenced—last Saturday—I said, in a private note to you, that if the Federals attacked Roanoke Island, they would take it.

Bad as the news is, it affords no good ground for discouragement. We are properly prepared to carry on the war, if we do not calculate on being sometimes defeated; and defeat under circumstances like the present, almost to a victory.

Many a Southern home will be made desolate by this catastrophe, as all our force, excepting about fifty, who escaped, have been killed or taken prisoners. The Richmond Blues, who were a terror to the Yankees in Western Virginia, are among the number.

In this, as in all other instances where the enemy has effected a landing on our coast, he cannot be reached by our forces. Being on an island, and surrounded by their gun boats, they are comparatively safe. Having control of Pamlico and Albemarle Sounds, we may expect to hear daily of their vandal depredations on the good people of North Carolina. Gov. Marble Nash Taylor's dominions having been enlarged, and may now bear of the inauguration of a New State in Eastern Carolina, with the capital at Elizabeth city or at Newbern.

The enemy having obtained a footing in our rear, will doubtless make a desperate attempt to get possession of Norfolk and Portsmouth. Burnside and Wool will now act in concert, and simultaneously. Wool will perhaps attack some point on James River aiming for Suffolk, while Burnside will endeavor to make his way from Elizabeth city up the Black Water, and the two form a junction in the rear of these two cities and thus cut of the communication with the South.

I am fully persuaded that this is the programme, and equally well satisfied that they will signally fail to carry it out, unless there is some most magnificent bungling "at West Point." They have the advantage of us on water, it is true, but then they must leave their boats and big guns, before they can endanger Norfolk.

Mr. Editor, the Yankees are fighting for booty, and they will make a desperate effort to get possession of Norfolk. They must be driven back. Every inch of ground must be disputed.

Whisky in the Army. The Richmond correspondent of the Memphis Appeal says:

There is a distillery in this city, the proprietors of which are making a clear profit variously estimated at from two to four thousand dollars a day! There's a per diem for you! They manufacture whisky! Would you know what this whisky is? It is a chain-lightning blue-rin, liquid fire, death in the cup, says telegraph, a more vulgar but not less certain poison, than the wine of the Borgias. It has been so well known in Virginia for years that practicing physicians, in the country, when called to attend sick negroes on the plantation, inquire first of all whether they have been in the habit of using it in harvest; if they have, the ordinary medicines will be wholly inefficacious.

How we Fight at Roanoke. The Norfolk Day Book gives the following concerning the desperate courage exhibited by our troops at Roanoke:

It is said that the enemy came up in their boats on the South side of the Island, and by means of their boat howitzers, effected a landing in the rear of our batteries, and that after landing about fifteen thousand on all parts of the Island, they marched up and flanked the batteries. It is also reported that, notwithstanding our small force of twenty-one hundred men against about fifteen thousand, on some parts of the Island, the resistance was of the most desperate nature, and a hand-to-hand contest lasted for a considerable time, showing the most desperate courage. This is said to have been the case particularly with the Richmond Blues, under command of Capt. O. Jennings Wise. Capt. Wise, we learn, fell bravely, urging his men on.

North Carolina Railroad. We learn (says the Raleigh Standard,) that Thomas Webb, Esq., of Hillsboro', has been selected President of this Road, vice Mr. Cameron, resigned.

Mr. Webb is a man of great energy and fine business talents, and will no doubt exert himself to keep the Road in the best possible working condition. We wish him entire success in his new but highly important position.

It is understood that the installation of the Permanent Government, besides producing a reorganization of the Cabinet, will be followed by a re-adjustment of the employees in the departments. Because a man "fit the Indiana in Texas" it does not follow that he is qualified for high administrative duties; nor because a patriot "left all and followed" the banner of secession, it does not follow that he should be thrust "down to foot" in the departments far below stalwart young men, whose physical development better fits them for shouldering a musket than handling a pen.—Richmond Examiner.

The Treasury of the town of Charlotte takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of additional contribution collected by J. A. Fox Esq., from the citizens of Charlotte amounting to thirty five dollars, to be used in the relief of the injured soldiers in the recent railroad collision.

The total amount thus far paid to Treasury to be used for this purpose amounts to one hundred and twenty dollars. T. W. DEWEY. Charlotte Feb. 13 1862. Town Treas.

Whiskey vs Bread. Editor of the Standard. I address a few lines to ask the Convention, for the sake of our common country—which is now struggling for existence—to legislate in some manner, so as to prevent the corn and other grain from being distilled into whiskey. Shall we have famine, as well as drunkenness, added to the desolation of war? And shall the South fail in achieving her independence, that distillers and liquor dealers may grow rich? You have no idea of the large increase in the number of distilleries in this portion of the State; and yet they will continue to increase, if some measure be not adopted to prevent it. The future of this is absolutely frightful to proper thinking minds. When or how this war is to end, no man can tell. All the corn and other grain will be wanting for the support of our soldiers and the people, even if the war might end in a month.

A heavy tax (say $1,000) upon each distillery, would, I think, abate the evil, perhaps cure it—be paid before another gallon is distilled. And a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment for violation. Yes, tax each, one thousand dollars, and see.

Miscellaneous. More than twenty British staff and field officers were in Boston last week en route for Canada. They were a fine looking set of men. The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says that there is no doubt of the departure of Secretary Welles from the Cabinet, and the appointment of Judge Holt, of Kentucky, in his place. The Canadian papers complain that the want of arms retards the drill of the numerous volunteer companies that have been formed in the province in the expectation of a Yankee invasion.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Northern Congress have finished the bill making appropriations for the army, and authorized the chairman to report it. The amount asked for in that bill is $457,000,000. This is merely for the army proper, and does not include the amount needed for fortifications. The city of Columbus, Ga., with a population of about 8,000 souls, has sent to the field sixteen infantry companies, and two full artillery companies. It has supplied to the service five colonels, one Lieutenant-colonel, four majors, four adjutants, four assistant commissaries, nineteen captains and sixty-two Lieutenants.

SON FLOWER IN BLOOM.—A friend sent to our house, last night, a beautiful Sun Flower in full bloom, a specimen of the Heliotrope, which Moore has thus embalmed in song:

"No the heart that has truly loved never forgets, But as truly loves on to the death. As the Sun-Flower turns on her God when she sets, The same look, which she turned when he rose." The mildness of the present winter has been extraordinary; not only is the Sun-Flower in bloom, but Flora has put on her coronal and coronation robes, vegetables are in rich abundance, and even Indian corn is growing in our garden. We very much fear a nipping frost, in March or April, severe enough to blast the fruit crop, and again to prevent our owning the soft impeachment.—Charleston Courier.

ATTAINS AT FORT LAURETTE.—Special Deputy Defoe proceeded to Fort Lauretette on Saturday to release G. F. Newman and W. F. Castro, but upon offering Castro the opportunity to take the oath of allegiance he refused, declaring that "he would request the same favor of the Deputy March one of these days, when New York was in possession of President Jefferson Davis." Of course he was not released. This is the second time that he has had the opportunity to get out, and has refused. He is a Baltimorean, about 40 years of age, and was taken on a parole when he represented himself as a passenger. The other prisoner Newman was arrested for attempting to prevent enlistments in the army. He expresses himself perfectly satisfied with his treatment in the fort, and says he has gained sixteen pounds in flesh since his arrest.—New York Express.

"TROPHIES."—We invite attention to the advertisement signed by Captain E. P. Alexander, in relation to arms captured from the United States in battle, which, in a large number of instances, are retained by private citizens as trophies. All such arms are the property of the Confederate States, and we need hardly say that the country needs them for her soldiers in the field. We hope the press throughout the South will allude to this matter, and that every man having such a trophy will give it up without hesitation. [Richmond Dispatch.

The Yankees wish to get possession of the railroad leading through East Tennessee, so as to cut off communication between Richmond and Memphis. We have no idea they will ever succeed, but even if they should not, it is in the part of wisdom to provide for such an emergency. That may be done by building about forty miles of railroad, an unfinished link, between Danville and Greensboro, North Carolina as recommended by President Davis in his message, thus making a middle road between the Atlanta road, which is supposed to be threatened by the Burnside expedition, and the East Tennessee road, for which torries are secretly and industriously plotting.—Memphis Avalanche.

NEW ELECTIONS OF MILITARY OFFICERS.—The law on this subject has thus been construed by the Secretary of War. Where the members of any company re-enlist to the number of sixty-four, or more they have the right to elect such officers as they please and to make a new company organization. It had been popularly supposed that, if the old officers were not re-elected, they lost their commissions in the Confederate service; but, under a recent ruling of the Secretary of War, it is decided that they will not lose their commissions or rank, but may be detailed to other service by the President.

It is reported that our Yankee invaders at Port Royal are going rapidly forward with the establishment of their colony, which they call New South. We see it stated that they already have a steam saw-mill at work. We shall not be surprised to hear that they have a clock factory in operation in the course of a few weeks, and that they have set the contrabands to raising "garden sass" for the supply of the New York and Boston markets. [Savannah News.

WHAT DOES NOT PAY IN IOWA.—Mr. Duene Wilson, Secretary of the Iowa Agricultural Society, estimates the yield of wheat in this State the past year at twelve bushels per acre. The price obtained is forty cents per bushel, or $4.80 per acre. He thinks this involves a loss of $2 per acre, or about three millions of dollars to the whole State. He thinks the farmers of the Northwestern States cannot afford to raise wheat, except for home consumption.

The deepest and darkest gloom of the Revolution is the campaign immediately preceding the dawn of victory and success. The most glorious exhibition of the spirit, powers and resources of South Carolina, was given when her capital was occupied and her sea coast ravaged by the foe, her Governor a fugitive and her sons pensioners on the products of the swamps and woods.—Charleston Courier.

EUROPE.—All the Yankee correspondents in Europe represent the existence of a most threatening state of feeling towards the United States. The blockade of stone and the great want of cotton in all the manufacturing towns of England and France will soon raise a storm that will most effectually blow old Abe's ships from our coast. The working people everywhere call loudly for intervention.

GEN. JEFF. THOMPSON.—This distinguished "Rebel" has not been captured, as reported by the Federals. He passed through Knoxville, Tenn., on Tuesday last, on his way to Richmond.

The Knoxville Register says that he was called upon by a number of citizens of that place, all of whom he captivated by his wit, perhaps, and soldierly bearing.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS! Mr. Editor.—In the face of the troubles that environ our beloved State—now that the enemy has invaded our borders, I wish to raise a company of gentlemen of grit for the War. Who among the many that are fattening off the misfortunes that surround us, will come forward to join? Skulks and land pirates I do not expect to volunteer—they will be settled with hereafter, but the true patriot, whether he is high or low, rich or poor, will cheerfully respond, now that a necessity appeals, I have no doubt.

I don't want to be Captain, or hold any office in said Company, but I want you fellow citizens, to come forward and wipe out the taint that, North Carolina is a "strip of land between two States." I am ready, and can be found at the store of Mr. Moody opposite the Court House from day to day until the Company is raised. H. M. FRITCHARD.
