THE HERO PRICE.

A BRILLIANT VICTORY.

Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 21, 1862, at Bulletin office, 8:40 p. m. Richmond, Feb. 21.—Official intelligence here states that Gen. Price recently fought a battle near the Arkansas line, when he killed 700 of the enemy and lost only 100 Confederates. It is reported as a brilliant victory.

From Fort Donalson.

[Intelligence through a private source.] Received at Telegraph Office, Feb. 21, 1862, at Bulletin office, 8:40 p. m.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 21.—Lieut. Dequerois, of the 14th Mississippi, who was in the battle at Fort Donalson, arrived here last night and gives the following account: The enemy opened the fight on the Fort. Our forces were from 15,000 to 16,000, embracing one or two Regiments of Cavalry and four field batteries. On Wednesday morning the sharp shooting of the enemy opened fire in connection with their Artillery, on our left, and continued through the day. Thursday and Friday they continued, but it was little more than an Artillery drill, with fight between skirmishers—little loss on our side.

On Friday the Gun Boats opened a tremendous fire and the Fort which continued without intermission through the day. On Saturday morning the Confederate Army was ordered out at 3 o'clock and formed in line of battle. The fight raged from the center to the left and soon became general. A great battle ensued, and we took seven or eight cannon and two or three hundred prisoners. The latter were not recaptured. Our success continued through the day, uninterrupted.

One of the enemy taken prisoner reported that the Federals were 50,000 strong and that they had been reinforced 30,000. On the strength of which report Buckner raised a white flag and proposed to capitulate, but as the fighting was resumed it was supposed our terms were not accepted. Our loss in killed is estimated at from 3 to 500; wounded, 12 to 15,000, which were removed to Dover.

The Confederates were commanded by Pillow, Floyd, Buckner and Bushrod Johnson, all of whom exhibited the greatest gallantry. The reported capture of 15,000 prisoners is supposed is greatly exaggerated, as stragglers in squads, companies and battalions escaped during Saturday night under the cover of darkness. In this way nearly a third of Floyd's Brigade escaped. Buckner is reported to have escaped also.

The enemy fought very desperately. Snow, to the depth of 3 inches, and sleet, was falling during the battle. Our informant was wounded on Saturday afternoon during the engagement.

SECOND EDITION.

By Telegraph.

Nashville is Doubtful.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 20.—A private dispatch received here tonight from Chattanooga, says that Nashville is now in the possession of the Federals.

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, Feb. 20.—The latest Northern account of the battle of Fort Donalson, admit that the Federal army was terribly cut to pieces, and the dead lay in heaps. The count of the battle beggars description, and the Federals have a deadly bought Confederate Congress.

RICHMOND, February 20.—House: Foote, of Tennessee, introduced a resolution, resolving that whatever propriety there may be in the original adoption of what is known as the defensive policy in connection with the prosecution of the pending war for Southern independence. Recent events clearly demonstrate the expediency of abandoning that policy henceforth and forever, and that it be the duty of the Government to impart all possible activity to our military forces to assail the forces of the enemy, wherever they may be found, either on the land or on water, with the view of obtaining the most ample indemnity for the past, and most complete security for the future.

A Proclamation.

RICHMOND, Feb. 20. A Proclamation by the President to the people of the Confederate States of America: The termination of the Provisional Government offers a fitting occasion again to present ourselves in humiliation, prayer and thanksgiving before that God who has safely conducted us through the first year of our National existence. We have been enabled to lay a new foundation of free Government, and to repel the efforts of our enemies to destroy us. His law has every where reigned supreme, and throughout our wide spread limits.

PROSPECTUS OF THE HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER.

DEVOTED TO POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS, PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEART.

WITH PRESENT VOLUME THE RECORDER COMMENCED THE FORTIETH YEAR OF ITS EXISTENCE.

THE first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1821. With a view to the criticism and improvement of the paper, and to the benefit of the circle in which it is distributed, the Editor has resolved to select the most valuable and interesting articles to be published in the RECORDER, and to give preference to the farmer and cultivator; and in particular to the agriculturist as any periodical of this nature, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be careful to receive well-written articles to our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to locally-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—'written expressly for the RECORDER.' In our present issue we shall take special pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and those enjoyed by any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.
