AVING purchased of Maj. Geo. Seaborn this popular journal, I have removed its place of publication to Columbia, and will hereafter issue it rom this city at regular stated periods.

Feeling confident that such a journal is greatly needed in this State, and believing that it will be sustained, if located at the Capitol of the State and conducted with spirit and ability, I have determined on making the venture, and call upon every Farmer and Planter in South Carolina to encourage the enterprise by their patronage.

It will be printed in the finest style of Typogra-

From Arkansas,

MEMPHIS, March 12. A dispatch from Fort Smith says Capt. Rodgers arrived in charge of the ammuni tion train, and the official account of the battle at Elkhorn. The fighting was terrible. The Confederates were mostly armed with rifles and shot-guns. They charged the enemy again and again, clubbing their guns and driving them back from their first position.

The enemy had taken a second and stronger position.

When it became known to his troops that Gen. McCulloch had fallen, they were frantic with rage-fighting like demonscharging and putting to flight five times their number.

Fearful that McCulloch's troops would be disorganized, Van Dorn deemed it advisable to withdraw. He renewed the attack next day, and retired in splendid order, under cover of his artillery.

The attack was considered a brilliant

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RFCORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertain ment and improvement of the farmers and citisens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources giving preference to such as will be of practics use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this par ticular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contine to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words-"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and o enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication. PROSPECTUS

OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Demo-cratic Press. I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly. The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their acvorequire. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests. cates as they are presented, and as occasion may

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as fol emi-Weekly, per annum.
