Gallant Feat of Florida Cavalry

FORTY-TWO YANKEES KILLED.

BALDWIN, March 28 .- On the 22d inst. a detachment of Capt. Owens' Florida Cavalry, consisting of thirty men, killed forty-two Yankees, who had landed from a gunboat at New Smyrna, and mortally wounded two and took one prisoner out of fifty two that landed. They also hung a negro boy who had pilotted the Yankees into Smyrna. The Yankees afterwards sept a flag of truce ashore, asking permission to bury their dead, which request Captain Owens informed them he would comply with, if they would send back seven negroes which they had stolen. They readily acceded to the terms proposed. The negroes were sent ashore and the dead Yankees duly buried. Nobody hurt on our side. The arms, &c., at that point are all safe. The Yankees wiil not get them.

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY HE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times.) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.— Attention is paid to all matters of general concern especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall from the family circle. The political creed of the MERCURY consists in appear in its columns which should be excluded the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States Free Trade, and an economical Administration o the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

PROSPECTUS. STATE JOURNAL.

AVING become the proprietor of the Demooratic Press. I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper. The terms of the State Journal will be as folemi-Weekly, per annum..... Weekly.

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in These terms will be insisted upon the list advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon ther footing can any newspaper hope to succeiver footing can any newspaper hope to sucno other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.
