HE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Mar-ket and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading sea-ports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive,especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of
