The Indiana Democratic Convention-Significant Speeches.

The Indiana Democratic Convention assembled at Indianapolis on the 30th ult .-After the organization of the Convention, the Hon. Charles A. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, made a speech, of which the following are the salient points;

We have two things to do: First to put money." down the rebellion, and next to punish the leaders. You must throw the abolitionists wover if you want to save the Union. Your Lovejoys, Phillips. and Greelys, say. they can't fight this war any longer unless you will arm the niggers: Will you ever, ever consent to this? (Cries of "No

If we are not able to maintain the authority of the Government we are anworthy of being called citizens of the United States. If we could get abolitionism out of the Congress and out of the army. in less than six months the Union could be restored and peace preserved. That is what you have got to do, and it must be done through the ballot box. I will lay Jown my life and give all my niggers to see the Union restored, but I will not under the high obligation of my nature ever consent to violate the Constitution. What right has the general Government to intertere with slavery in Kentucky or Virginia? I will not read what our Presi-Jent said about that in his inaugural, for is familiar to you alles -.

Are you for a war that is going to take the property in slaves and confiscate it ?-Are you willing that four million slaves shall be set free ! Are you, I ask, tor such a war ! Do you want these negros to come and compete with your white labor ? No, no! I am for a white man's war against the Abolitionist. What is to become of those negroes when they are set tree ! How many do you suppose are now fed and supported by the army ! Not less than 30,000. Psaw, the day I left Washington, two hundred and fifty negro women and Babies, captured by General McDowell, brought into the city. This was the result of six weeks' operation of McDowell's army of 60,000 men, only thirty-five miles from Richmond. The policy of the Government and of our Generals has thrown us back one year in putting down this rebellion. It has comout 300,000 more men. He got them una der his former calls for upholding the Constitution. I hope he will get them now. In conclusion, let me say one word. Lay aside in this struggle that party strife heretofore demanded, and unite upon this ground, that this Union and this Constitution must be preserved and mainsend any more Abolition members to Con-

SPEECH OF HON. MR. CARLILE. Hon. J. S. Carlile then addressed the Convention. We give the following ex-

The subjugation or extermination of the South was impossible. A year ago a large Phion element was there; now there was a solid sentiment of permanent dissolution; and why? Because Congress by its legislation diverts war into an unboly and gigantic crusade against the institution of the South. He declared the man who said slavery and the government were incompatible virtually pronounced the gevernment a failure, libelled the wisdom of ils lonnders, and was a traitor to it. The Republican party, now in power, and, now waging the war, had so proounced through its hostile legislation to the Constitution. If slavery and the rights of States must go down; it at the dictation of these men you surrender a constiintional right, and deny or take from a State the right to hold slaves, "how soon may you be called upon to surrender others ?" They make negros competent witnesses new in the District. How soon will they demand that it be done in Indiand ? If you again give these men your confidence, and return them to Congress, you will all be made the slaves of a centralized government, and no one will pity or sympathize with you. Carlile said the interests of the Western States were with the South. Their was their grain market -"you have a Northern market, the same as ever; but your corn is rotting in your granaries and you walk on the ruins of your prosperity. The wicked men of the North and the South have deprived you of your market, and these Northern men FINE WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVE want to wage a war that will forever deprive you of it," Freeing negroes won't make one. Free the negroes, exterminate the whites and give the land to the Yankee Norway rats, and you'll never have a market there. Indiana was more interested Commission Merchant than slave owners themselves in perpetuaaing slavery in the South. To free four millions blacks will be to beep up taxation, mercase debt, ruin property, degrade our children, and make this Suntry a second

FARCH OF HON. WALL A. RICHARDSON Hon. Wm A Richardson, representative moie, followidem the same atrain, are in the Republicans as being thorary abolitionized, and tabeir congresen Mespeble of administering the affairs of the Goveenment, and utterly withour statesmanship. There were no conservatives among them; all were for diverting the war into abolition, for arming slaves, and not only traitore to the Constitution, but cowards, and never intending to go into the army. If the Republican party is retained in power the Government is gone lorever. Only in conservative men is here any safety. He denounced the President Gemancipation scheme as calculated to enclave the white while freeing the black, and insisting that New Enghand was making all the money, holding all the contracts, and escaped with fewer soldiers in the field, and lighter burdens of taxation, than the West. "We are made their hewers and drawers of water, while they run the nigger exclusively for RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED. A long list of resolutions were adopted he most stirking of which are subjoin.

That we protest in the name of ourselves and of our children, and in the name of all that we hold dear in the future of our beloved country, against the mischievous measure of negro emancipation in the District of Columbia, and the payment for such negroes out of the national treasury; and that we further protest against the resolution of Congress pledging the nation to pay for all negroes mhich may be emancipated by the authority of any 3,000 slaves, chiefly those who worked on of the Southern States; that we regard such measures, involving as they do an expenditure of two thousand five hundred millions of dollars, as measures of trancendent enormity, and fruitful only of national beggary to the land we love; that we are unalterably and unconditionally opposed to all schemes having for their object, immediate or remote, the taxation of the white man for the purchase of negroes anywhere; and that we deny the constitutional right of the President or Congress to adopt a policy which taxes white labor to pad for negroes, or which would make the government or people slave dealers-a policy which if not arrested by the votes of the people, will entail upon unborn generations of our kindred a debt more overwhelming and appaling than ever cursed any nation of ancient or

That in opposition to measures of this kind we desire to interpose the peaceful and powerful agent the ballot of a free people, and say in the language of another, 'We will neither surrender our rights nor

That the people of Indiana having inhabited, by the State constitution and laws, the carrance of free negroes and mulattos into this State, and as the present bring an influx of that population from ed-that they intend to bag the whole Con neighboring States, we respectfully ask the public authorities of Indiana to see that the constitution and laws are properly enforced on that subject.' When the people of Indiana adopted the negro exclusion clause by a majority of ninety-four thousand votes they meant that the honest tained, and let the negro take care of him. laboring white man should have no comsell; and, if you want that done, don't pointer in the black race-that the soil of Indiana should belong to the white man, and that he alone was suited to her free

> That the people justly view with alarm he reckless extravagence which pervades every department of the Federal Governent; that a return to rigid economy and countability is indispensible to arrest the systematic plunder of the public treasury by favored partisans, while the recent. startling developments of trands and corruptions at the Federal metropholis, show that an entire change of Admistration is imperatively demanded.

CAIRO. Friday Aug. 7, 1862. The ram Mingo, from Helena, reports that on Saturday a scouting party of 75 Unionists were surprised by 500 of Hindman's Rebels, and badly cut up, only 20 having saved themselves and escaping. Forty of Jeff Thompson's men were captured while attempting to cross the river near the town of Austin. The recent publication of Gen. Pillow's letter to his brother, in regard to the slave of the former, renders interesting the fact that General Gurtis has freed all the negroes in question, 25 in number. Pillow has three plantations rear Helena on which all his moveable property was confiscated. Gen. Curtis has freed at Helena about MOBILE. Aug. 12. A special Dispatch to the Advertiser de Register, dated Jackson, 10th inst., says the New Orleans Delta of the 7th inst has been received.

Butler levies a Tax on the Corporation and individuals amounting to $312,716.25 cents, to be applied to the support of the poor of New Orleans. Also, a tax of $29,200 on cotton Brokers, for the same object. The distinguished attention paid this class of the business community is caused from their having aided the Confederate

Government and sdvised planters to ship no Cotton to New Orleans. A large amount of property is advertised to be sold for Taxes. The Delta claims a splendid victory at Baton Rouge. It says the Contaderates were in force of from five to fifteen thousand strong-that Gen. Lovell has been killed and that Gen. Breckinridge had an arm shot off-that three cannon were captured and boasts of bayonet charges.
