Tailoring Business.

THE subscriber has removed his shop from Salisbury, and permanently located himself in Cabarrus county, six miles south-west of Concord, and one half mile south-east of Poplar tent, where he is prepared to do all kinds of work in the newest and most fashionable style.
He has made an engagement with the most celebrated Tailors in Philadelphia, for receiving the fashions regularly from that emporium of taste and fashion; and he will at all times have it in his power to comply with any orders that may be sent him, at short notice. He will also regularly receive the latest fashions of Ladies' dresses and habits, and will be enabled at any time to cut, and if required, to make them, in a style equal to any in this part of the country.
THOMAS V. CANON.

Notice.

THE "Southern Preacher" has been ready for delivery to the subscribers for some time past—the subscribers are requested to come forward, by the County Court, and receive their books. The Editor is in debt for the printing and paper, and wishes to settle his accounts, as soon as possible. The books are at Mr. Smith's store. Those books which are not taken away by the above time, will be sold at public Auction to the highest bidder, and subscribers will be held responsible for the balance on all sales under the subscription price.

PROPOSALS,

FOR PUBLISHING, WEEKLY, IN THE TOWN OF FAY-ETTEVILLE,
A RELIGIOUS PAPER,
TO BE CALLED THE

North-Carolina Telegraph,

CONDUCTED BY
REV. ROBERT H. MORRISON, A. M.

THE importance of periodical publications has long been felt and acknowledged. By them intelligence is diffused, error corrected, prejudice removed, vice restrained, and virtue cherished, to an extent worthy of regard. As men feel a deep interest in whatever relates to their political rights and temporal prosperity, vehicles of worldly news have, in all civilized countries, been sought with eagerness and supported with liberality.

But as the claims of Jehovah, the interests of the Soul, and the solemnities of Eternity, far surpass in magnitude all other things, it is reasonable to expect that religious publications would rise up, gaining patronage among men and exerting a beneficial influence in forming their characters. Happily, the present age is beginning to answer this expectation by a growing anxiety for religious knowledge, and a lovely display of benevolent enterprise. We live at a time when plans for public good are boldly conceived and fearlessly executed. To bless others is becoming the ambition of the highest and the recompense of the lowest. To stop the growth of human misery by opposing the march of human corruption, is now attempted in almost every land. To carry, "far as the curse is found," the tidings of peace and the means of purity, unites the strength of a thousand hands, and engages the prayers of ten thousand hearts.

These efforts are not without success. The cause of truth prospers. The kingdom of righteousness advances. The works of darkness give way, and unnumbered triumphs of the gospel promise the approach of better times.
But the work is only begun. Millions of the human family are yet covered with darkness, guilt, and pollution. Thousands in our own country know nothing of the way of life.

To Christians the cry for help must be raised. They are the honored instruments by which Christ will set up his kingdom in the world. His standard they are privileged and required to follow, and to do so without dismay, and fight under it without defeat, they must act in concert. To secure this they must know their relative strength and movements.
In a well-organized army there are watchmen to look out for danger, and messengers to report the acts of each division, and the success of every attempt; so, in the host of the Lord there must be heralds to bear tidings of what is doing, and sentinels to guard against hostile invasions. The army of Christ is not drawn up in one field of battle. It is scattered over the whole earth. Hence the necessity and usefulness of religious papers, by which Christians in every country may know what is effected, what remains to be done, and how to co-operate with each other in doing it. There is no other way in which to make known the wants of every section of the Church, and to insure concentrated and vigorous exertions among the friends of Zion. Accordingly, in all parts of the Church, and among all denominations of Christians, such publications are rapidly multiplying and cheerfully supported.

North-Carolina, containing a population of more than six hundred thousand, and many flourishing Churches, has not one such paper.
Why this lamentable deficiency? No state in the union, of equal importance and respectability, but supports one or more.

The experiment is now to be made, whether the people of our state are willing to patronize such a publication. That they are richly able none will pretend to deny.

The editor of the TELEGRAPH will use every exertion to make it a faithful journal of religious intelligence, and an impartial advocate of christian doctrine and vital piety. He will have before him a choice selection of the best papers and magazines in this country, and some of the ablest foreign journals, from which he hopes at all times to be able to present an interesting abstract of useful information. He will also be aided by original communications by some of the most distinguished gentlemen in this state.

As learning and religion adorn and promote each other, and cannot be separated without mutating both, the columns of the Telegraph will be filled in part with select literary pieces, designed to increase the knowledge and gratify the taste of all its readers. And as Christians owe many of their dearest privileges to the admirable constitution of our wise and happy government, and are deeply interested in its prosperity, a faithful detail of political events, domestic and foreign, will at all times be given.

Appropriate remarks on Agricultural Improvements and Domestic Economy will occasionally be inserted.

And "last, but not least," the improvement, dignity and usefulness of the Female Sex will find a willing and sincere advocate.

The paper will be large, neatly printed, and with the best type. No advertisements will be admitted.

The first number will be issued as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers is obtained.

Price, three dollars a year, or two dollars and fifty cents, if paid in advance.

DOCUMENTS.

Reply of Gov. Troup to the Letter of General Gaines, published in the Journal of the 2d instant.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Milledgeville, July 17, 1825.

SIR: I have only a moment left to say one word in answer to that part of your letter I had the honor to receive yesterday, which relates to the assent given by McIntosh to the survey of the country. The certificate of Marshall, no matter how procured, is one of the most daring efforts that ever was attempted by malignant villany, to palm a falsehood upon credulity. Now, sir, that you may be at once undeceived with regard to the trick which has been plaid off by somebody, I have to assure you, that independently of the assent given three times by McIntosh under his own hand, which I have in my possession—this same man Marshall, has repeatedly declared to me that there was not a dissentient voice from the survey among the friendly Chiefs; all the Chiefs I have seen have uniformly declared the same, and so they have declared to others, both in and out of Council, and for this you have my word of honor, and may have my oath. I very well know that from the late events which have transpired under the eyes of the Commissioners of Georgia, that the oath even of a Governor of Georgia, may be permitted to pass for nothing, and that any vagabond of the Indian country, may be put in requisition to discredit him. But I assure you, sir, if that oath should not weigh one feather with our government, it will weigh with the people of this state, who so far as I have knowledge of their history, have never yet refused credence to the word of their chief magistrate, and I believe will not to the present one, unworthy as he may be.

Permit me to say in frankness, that I do not like the complexion of things at all, as disclosed by the Commissioners on the part of the state, and sincerely hope, that you may never have cause to regret the part you have taken in them; every prepossession here was in your favor, and it would have given me great pleasure to cherish it in behalf of an officer who had rendered signal service to his country, through many a perilous and trying scene.

Very respectfully, your obt. servt.

G. M. TROUP.

Maj. Gen. E. P. GAINES.

HEAD QUARTERS,

EASTERN DEPARTMENT,
Indian Springs, May 28, 1825.

SIR: I have to acknowledge the honor of your Excellency's Letter of the 17th of this month—by which, it appears that you had "only a moment to say one word" in answer to mine of the 10th.

Your one word, comprehending, however, two pretty closely written pages, coming as it does, from the Chief Magistrate of an enlightened and patriotic member of the United States, demands my attention. Not being disposed, however, to follow your exaple as to time, I have permitted your letter to lie on my table for a week past, in the expectation that a little reflection would suggest to you the propriety of correcting some expressions apparently hasty, and calculated to call forth an answer partaking of the climate and heated atmosphere in which I find myself—against which, it has been my constant purpose carefully to guard. But your letter having made its appearance in a newspaper just now handed to me by a friend, I can no longer see the propriety of withholding a reply.

You say "the certificate of Marshall, no matter how procured, is one of the
tempted by malignant villany, to palm a falsehood on ignorant credulity."

"No matter how procured."—I will first state to you the manner in which that frightful certificate was "procured," and then proceed to show that its "daring" character consists only in its truth, and its direct tendency to expose in part, the "malignant villany" which has been extensively practiced on the credulity of many of the good citizens of Georgia and other states, in reference to the Indians and the treaty. The facts contained in the certificate in question, were voluntarily, and to me, unexpectedly communicated, by Mr. William Edwards and Joseph Marshall, whose signatures it bears. Of the char-
