paid.

is-ck,

ser-

Au-

n, in sucd

that

Mr.

king

louse

every

round

chair,

Eng-

ledge

tuess.

BY LEMUEL BINGHAM,

AT THREE BOLLARS A TEAR, PAID IN ADVANCE.

No paper will be discontinued, unless at the discretion of the editor, until all arrearages are ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the usua rates. Persons sending in advertisements, are sequested to note on the margin the number of insertions, or they will be continued until forbid and charged accordingly.

Public Entertainment.

Thible Emerganianem.

The subscriber informs his friends and the public, that he has purchased that well known establishment, lately owned and occupied by Dr. Henderson, and is now prepared to enterain travellers and others, who may please to call on him; and no exertions will be spared to reader them confortable, and their stay agreeable. His table will be furnished with every variety which the country allords; his bar with the best of liquors; and his stables with plenty of provender, and careful servants will be in constant attendance. be in constant attendance.

ROBERT I. DINKINS. Charlotte, April 20, 1826.

The Camden Journal will insert the above hree weeks, and forward his account for pay Entertainment.

THE subscriber having purchased that valuable stand known as the house formerly ocsupied by Edward M. Bronson, is preparing to open it as a house of Public Entertainment, on the first day of May next, in a style of conven-jen c and comfort which shall be satisfactory to these who favor him with their custom. The house has recently undergone a thorough re-pair, the beds, on the 1st of Man, will be all new; the bed-rooms in neat order, and every new; the bed-rooms in neat order, and every convenence will be provided either for transient customers or constant boarders. It is intended that the house, from its ample accommodations and the attention of its proprietor, shall ment, as it is hoped it may receive, a due share of public patronage. The bar will be well supplied with the best of liquors, the stables be well furnished with provender, and attended by careful hostlers; and charges will be so regulated, that those who call at the establishment will be induced, from a regard to economy and confort, or repeat their visits; while constant boarders to repeat their visits; while constant boarders will be kept in such good humor as will, it is hoped, induce that punctuality which will afford the subscriber the encouragement and suppor he will endeavor to deserv

ROBERT SLOAN. Charlotte, N. C. April 14, 1826. 79tf

TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE.

WILL SELL, on accommodating terms, and my Houses and Lots in the town of Charlotte. North Care line, twenty-two in number, four of them comfortably improved, together with my two story dwelling-house and ranyard, all in two story dwelling-house and garact, an good repair. Also, a good small farm, convenient to town. Persons who are desirous of purchasing, would do well to call and get good bargains, as I wish to remove to the West in the fall.

WILLIAM RUDISILL.

Charlotte, N. C. March 24, 1826.
Jmt89

Patent Corn-Sheller, A NEW INVENTION.

WE hereby give notice to the citizens of Mecklenburg county, that we have purchased the right for manufacturing a Machine, called the PATENT CORN SHELLER, and will soon have them on hand for sale. For the simplicity of its construction and its utility to corn planters it is manufalled by any other incompanients. simplicity of its construction and its utility to corn planters, it is unequalled by any other invention. Perhaps we may be thought to exaggerate, when we say it will shell a bushel of corn in three minutes, and by a little exertion in two minutes. But we invite all to come and examine it, witness its operation, and satisfy themselves as to its great utility. It can be seen at the subscribers' shop, opposite the jail.

THEO. MERRILLS,

WM. CORNWELL

N. B. The price of the Patent Corn Sheller ill be $11 delivered at the shop, or $12 delivered at the house of the purchaser.

All persons are cautioned against making, using or vending the above machine in the county, under penalty of the law in that case nade and provided. Charlotte, Jan. 20, 1836.

State of North-Carolina,

Iredell County. urt of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, February Term, 1826.

Jehn Stewart Scare Facing to show two.

Jehn Stewart Cause why the real estate the heirs at law of yof the decreased should not William Stewart, he sold to satisfy the plaintereased.

T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, but James Stewart. Thomas Leach and his

T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, but James Stewart, Thomas Levels and his life, and Jisses Stewart, theirs, defendants in its suit, are not innubitants of this State: It is veriore ordered, that publication be made for ree months in the Catawba Journal, that the oresaid defendants appear at the next court be held for the county of fredell, at the more than the court of the county of the dellar and may next, by some attorney of said court, or person, and file their answer, otherwise the land of the heart of the county of least of the county of least of the county of least of the land of the heart of the land have judgment, as to them, pro confesso.

Teste.

R. SIMONTON, Clk.

m91-price adv. $4.

Sermon on the Atomement.

UST published, and for cate at this office, price 12) cents, "A Sermon on the Atone-

The late venerable Charles Thomson, the long surviving Secretary of the Congress of the Revolution, spent his last years in a rural retirement, a few miles from Philadelphia; from whence he came to town, occasionally, in an old fashioned square built chariot, with his gardener mounted on the box, driving at a snail's pace, a pair of old farm horses. The boys were naturally attracted by the singularity of the sight, and would often call to one another, "There goes Noah's Ark!"—"Yes," said the old man, meek-

An experiment has been tried upon a toad by immersing it in a small flower pot sunk deep into the earth, to ascertain the fact of the animal's living without food. When the light was let into his cell after 3 years confinement, it hopped out upon the earth quite chipper. • The prisoner was recommitted for further trial.

y, on one of these occasions-" And Nouh

Land for Sale.

for saic a valuable for saic fo head waters of Rocky River, adjoining the taileds of G. S. Houston, Benjamin Brevard and others, and containing 572 acres. The said land is of good quality and well watered, both as to springs and branches. Of the land now in crop, amounting to 42 or 50 acres, the most of it is well manured and will produce corn, cotton or wheat, in sufficient quantity to abundantly compensate the businessian and the light subject. Experiment has the husbandman for his labor. Experiment has proven that it is peculiarly adapted to receive great and permanent benefit from manure,—there is on it a large portion of low grounds, incre is on it a large portion of low gr unds, of excellent quality, either for meadow or pasture, 10 or 12 acres of which are in good order and have been mowed for a number of years. The principal dwelling-house is large and commodious, which, with a little additional expense, might be made contortable and convenient even for a large family. The situation on which it stands is probably equal to any in this or the adjacent counties. There is a well of good water convenient to the house, and a large, fertile garden. There are two improvements on this tract, which will be sold together or separately, to suit purchasers. It would be a desirable place of residence for a member of the profession of Law or a Physician, being ma respectable and populous neighborhood, and at nearly sion of Law or a Physician, being in a respectable and populous neighborhood, and at nearly an equal distance from five surrounding villages. It is unnecessary to give a further description of this land, as those, no doubt, wishing to purchase, will view the premises. For terms, apply to the subscriber, living 5 miles north of Concord, Cabarrus county.

A. C. M'REE.

N. B. Approved cash notes, negroes, or notes negotiable and payable at the Charlotte Bank, will be received in payment.

A. C. M.

Notice.

ON Tuesday, the 30th day of this instant, will be sold at Public Vendue, at the late residence of Robert Simonton, Eag. in the town of States tile, all the perishable part of the estate of said Simonton, consisting of a great variety of articles, among which are horses, gattle, hogs, household and kitchen farmture, corn, bacon, a still, several wagons, farming utensits of every description, and about torty likely negroes, of almost every size and description.

Several valuable plantations in the neighborhood of Statesville, on some of which are wheat, oats and corn now planted, and several lots in the town of Statesville, will be rented at the same time. The sale sill continue from day to day, till the whole is disposed of. A reasonable credit will be given for all except a part of the negroes. Terms will be more particularly made known on the day of sale.

GEORGE L. DAVIDSON,
THEOPHILUS FALLS,
JAMES CAMPBELL,
May 2, 18-5.

All persons indebted to the estate of Robert An persons indented to the constant of the Simonton, Esq. are requested to make immediate payment; and all those having claims against the deceased, are notified to present them, properly authenticated, within the time limited by law, otherwise this notice will be pleaded against their admittance.

GEO. L. DAVIDSON,
THEOPHILUS FALLS,
JAMES CAMPBELL, May 2, 1826.

Notice.

DANAWAY from the subscriber, on the 24th of April, a negro man named W11.1., about 30 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a slender form, and when spoken to has a downcast look. Said negro was purchased by me from Mr. James M'Cufloch, of Mecklenburg, N. C. in December, 1820. Whoever will apprehend said negro and lodge him in any jail, and give me information so that a can get him again, shall be suitably rewarded. Information relative to him directed to Candea, S. C. will be received. S. C. will be received. JAMES KENDRICK.

May 2, 1826.

Ruffner's Strictures.

TIST PUBLISHED, and for sale at this of-fice, "Strictures on a book, criticle, "An pology for the Book of Psaline, by Gilbert MeM. of To which are added, Remarks on a book, Iby Alexander Cordon) entitled "Lin-design and use of the Book of Psaline," By HENRY BUFFYER, A. M. With air Appendix by John M. Wilson, paster of flocky River and Philadelphia.

Delivery Bonds,

For sale, at the Office of the Journal.

DESULTORY.

Catawba Aournal.

A writer in the Providence, R. I. Journal, claims the invention of rail-roads, as belonging to his native state, and makes out his claim in the following way:

"I allude to the road from Smithfield South Parish, to Thompson and Killingly. Connecticut: which is still to be seen. with the improvements that are annually made, especially at this season of the And I positively assert, that ours is the best because it is the cheapest. Only one English Engine alone cost 2000 dollars, which sum the whole of our apparatus does not much exceed as figures will prove; for 700 good chesnut rails at $3 amounts to only $21, and it ought to be remembered that this is all the ex-pense we are at, and the inference is conclusive in our favor. We place our rails fifty to the mile by the side of the road, to my out the wheels when they get stuck. and boots behind when wanted. It is true, more rails are used than we furnish, and people complain of the destruction of their fences; but as we have had no bills of cost to pay on that score as yet, we cannot fairly bring any thing

In the British House of Commons, on the 16th March, Mr. M. Fitzgerald, an Irish member, mentioned, in debate, that there was an instance of a bank established in Ireland by an apothecary and a captain of dragoons, who, when they stop-ped payment, at the end of two years, had contrived to issue notes to the amount of 490,000 pounds sterling, though in com-mencing business, their joint capital con-was br sisted only of the proceeds derived from the sale of the apothecary's stock, and the

It was mentioned by the Scottish members in the same debate, that the system of banking in Scotland had been in oper ation upwards of one hundred years, and had given universal satisfaction. Gold.

North American Review .- The Boston Review has been received from Buenos Ayres, at the head of which is the distinguished patriot and statesman, Don Bernardin Rivadavia, well known to the world as the restorer of good order and government in his native country, and as her distinguished Ambassador to the Court of Great Britain. Having lately returned from his embassy to the circle Constituent Congress, sitting in Bucnos Ayres, President of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata. The well-deserved and winely-spreading fame of the North American Review, does honor to our Republic.

Baltimore Patriot. Republic.

English Eliquette. - I ne following joke is in circulation, as an original of one of the Secretary's official despatches:

a party at her house, on the

And the following is the answer sent thereto:

" Lord Sefton's compliments to Mrs. Coutts's Lord in Waiting, and regrets that a previous engagement will prevent his attending Mrs. Courts on the-

[Some of our readers, perhaps, may not know, that Mrs. Courts was formerly not know, that Mrs. Coatts was formerly a fourth-rate actress, who after being for many years the chere and of Coutts, the "He pronounced Mr. Webster a vile ground." many years the chire unit of Coutts, the opulent banker, became nis wife, and in a few weeks thereafter his widow. She is contemptible and degraded of beings, (m dit) the Duke of St. Albans, a young nobleman of 29. Mrs. C. is about 50, very fat and very frank in her manners.—Her income is estimated at 20,000 / (a-bout 400,000 dollars) per annum: She bout 400,000 dollars) per annum: She said, Giles was the procurer—Jefferson the mother-in-law of the ladies of Sir Francis Burdett and the Earl of Guilford.)

The account was substantially this.— N. F. Advocate.

A Bazzling Argament .- "You teach," said the Emperor Trajante Rabbi Joshua, • that your God is every where, and boast that he resides amongst your na-tion. I should like to see him." • God's presence is indeed every where," replied Joshua, "but he cannot be seen; no mor-Herren Takes.

To the Editor of the Democratic Press.

PRINCETON, (N. J.) APRIL 20.

Mr. Editor,—As the Washington Press ap Mr. Edutor,—As the Washington Press as pears to be gagged with a squamishness, as sudden as it is extraordinary. I have, after deliberation, determined to communicate to you for publication, the following extract from a letter of a Washington Correspondent. If the Senate of the United States can stomach such the public will neither be injured nor infected by it. These things ought to be known, that if they deserve odium or reproach they may fall on the proper objects. The letter is from an the proper objects. intelligent gentleman of this state, now at the time of the Senate was engrossed by availed himself of the opportunity to the Senate room-directed the door keeppour out a continued uninterrupted stream of the most vulgar ribaldry and slanderous invective that was ever heard, mixed up with a great deal of elequence, faucy, taste and information. He called Mr. Adams, a Traitor. Mr. Southard had kept a little school, and disgraced the navy by bringing into service that recreant caitiff-the slayer of Decatur. He branded Mr. Holmes of case of Mr. Jefferson, as which the May-Maine, as a Liar-pronounced him a or of the City presided, and the Collector 'dangerous fool,' -said he was a would- of the Port acted as Secretary. At this be appointed collector of Eastport, and insinuated that the appointment would be to the infinite advancement of smug-Talked of his late duel-how it was brought about—of the 'fag end of European Diplomacy' coming among us to poison our morals with their principles, and our hodies with their French cookery, eaten by candle-light-of boarding schools for young ladies, and a thousand et cetera-equally revelant to the subject under discussion. He said the Administration had beaten Shakspeare all hollow. He had conceived the character of Mr. Justice Shallow-and it was supposed that hu-Payriot announces from good authority, man genius could searcely pourtray that by the brig Balan, a respectable list such another insignificant character, but of new subscribers to the North American he had attempted again and with equal success, had given us Master Slender. This administration had gone further, it had surpassed Shakspeare. It had cant than Master Slender-a mere negaasked, "where he was? who had seen of his affectionate friends and grateful him? I have not seen him during the fellow-citizens, he has been elected by the entire session, and so help me God, I entire session, and so help me God, I since his report was sent to the house. and that is all that can be said of him. The Duke of St. Albans is requested by Mrs. Courts to invite Lord Sefton to hands of the Potter—and yet, Mr. Preschost resembling Ambergris. This ident, he is not Clay. France, he believed, had never had but time. one. We have had two already. I trust in God, Mr. President, we shall never have another Joux elected while bly informed that to graft the apple tree Gites, who was placed on some committee with Adams, found him rather cool and reserved, he endeavoured to carriage frequently, when the weather was bad, and carried him to the house. In a short time the reserve wore off. On one occasion, observing Mr. Adams much depressed, he enquired the reason. taleye can behold his glory." The emperor insisted. "Well," said Joshua, had uniformly and cordially acted with "suppose we try to look first at one of his ambassadors?" The Emperor contact that the leading men of that party were Adams told him, he was distressed-hel that the leading men of that party were congened. The Rabbi took him in the open air at noon-day, and bid him took at the san in its meridian splendour. "I carray," said Tragen, "the figut dazzles men's thought anable," and Joshua, "I had been invited to join the Canadas, and place themselves and require the figure dazzles in this project. That his feelings revolved and the religious of the Creator? Would not exchange the religious revolutions and the wished to leave them, and acquaint the President with what was going forward, but he did not know how his communication would be received. and he wished to leave them, and acquaint the President with what was going forward, but he did not know how total of three handred and if y millions of frage. his communication would be received, a year.

Giles undertook for him, the interview took place with Jefferson, and Adams, abandoned his old friends. The first fruits of the bargain, was in reference the habeas corpus act, in which the fedcralists, not suspecting the treachery, and having great confidence in Mr. Adamis, united. Mr. Randolph and, that Mr. Bayard had frequently spoken of this act of treachery, and complained of having been completely guiled.

"He went on in this kind of strain without interruption till after seven o'seat of government.

Washington, April 22.—"On Tuesday and Wednesday, nearly the whole day and Wednesday, nearly the whole tumbler after tumbler When the house Randolph, who spoke on the first day about four hours, and on the last about six or six and a half. According to cussix or six and a half. According to custhe sink of corruption, declared he would tom there was little in reference to be a second Cockburn-set fire to a ounthe subject under discussion; but he dle of papers, which he scattered about

> A large and highly respectable Public Meeting has been held in the city of New-York, to take into consideration the meeting, resolutions were unautmously adopted, expressive of high respect for his virtues, and sympathy for his misfortunes; and a committee, of twenty-four of the first citizens of the place, were appointed to receive contributions from the inhabitants, towards the purpose of reheving him from the pecuniary claims upon him.

Ambergris .- The origin of this substance is involved in complete obsenrity. All that we know of it is, that it is most commonly found in lumps floating on the ocean, sometimes adhering to rocks, sometimes in the stomachs of fish—but whence does it come? by what process is it formed? Every body knows the history of that greasy substance called Adipocire-the on digging up the bodies in the commercy of St. Innocent's at Paris, many of them were found in part converte infound a character still more insignifi- to a substance resembling sperim aceti; and that it has since been ascertained, tive, and it had made of such an animal that if the flesh of animals, instead of -a Secretary of the Treasury. He undergoing putrefaction in air, undergoes the slower changes which take place under water, in a running stream, it is gradually converted into this subhave not heard his name mentioned stance. It is not an improbable conjecture, that Ambergris is the flesh of He will die, and when he dies, he will dead fish which has undergone this add an item to the bill of mortality, change—that it is marine Adipocire. And this conjecture is corroborated by The President, he said, has sold him- a fact which was lately stated in one of self, the nation and congress, and had the American newspapers. A marine failed to obtain the price stipulated, animal of gigantic size has lately neen power: he had no power-he was in discovered and dug up, in the groove of One John was animal, which is supposed to be extinct, as much as England could endure. - had been buried for an incalculable

Apple Trees .- We have been credi-I live!!! [It is presumed John C. Cal- on Sycamore, will be the means of prehoun, the President of the Senate, will venting the fruit from being destroyed by frosts, even in the lowest and coldest ground. The apple keeps pace with

Cheap Paint .- Take a pound of potatoes, skined and well baked, bruise in three or four times that weight of boiling water and pass them through a hair seive. Add two pounds of fine chalk in coot and reserved, he endeavoured to powder, mixed with double its weight of overcome it—he called on him in his water, and stir the whole well together. The mixture will form a glue, to which any coloring matter may be added, even charcoal, brick or soot, which will make a cheap and durable paint, for barns and > Hops .- A farmer in Middlesex county, Mass, cultivated five acres with hops the last year, and sold the crop for $2,200, or $440 per acre. He plants 800 falls to the acre. The editor of the Concord Gazette believes that hops can be raised for 7 cents per pound as easily as corn for one dollar per bushel.