$10 Reward.

ANAWAY from the subscriber on the 7th of April last, a Bright Mulatto Girl, named SARAH. The said girl is of medium size, trim, genteel figure, straight black hair, and has bad teeth-laughs and looks confused when spoken to. I purchased her in the fall of 1852 of Col. John M. Potts, of Steele Creek. in which neighborhood she is probably lurking, or she may be about Providence or Pineville as she is well acquanted there.

I will give the above reward if she is taken in this county, and $15 if in any other county, and delivered to me in Charlotte. R. P. WARING. June 2, 1854.
