The printer very seldom has any time to spare, and ordinarily he is obliged to stick closer to his business than any other tradesman; but whenever called out to attend militia drills it generally causes him to perform night work in order to publish his paper at the regular time. We will thank, if nobody else does, the legislature who succeeds in benefiting the craft to the extent indicated .- N. Carolinian.

LIVER COMPLAINT .- This dangerous and often fatal disease had long baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians, when the discovery of Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills solved the difficulty, and presented to the world THE GREAT SHECIFIC for that complicated malady, distribution. which has attained such widely spead celebrity for its certainty of cure. This successful remedy was the result of many years' study, in which the symptoms were narrowly observed, and are thus described by the Doctor himself :---

"SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER .-- Pain in the right aide, and sometimes in the left, under the edge of the rubs-the patient being rarely able to lie on the left ; pain sometimes under the shoulder-blade, frequently extending to the top of the shoulder-often mistakes for theunatism in the arm; sickness of stomach, and loss of appetite; bowels mostly costive, but someimes alternate with lax; dull, heavy sensation in the back part of the head; loss of memory, with uneasiuess of having neglected something; sometimes dry rough; weariness and debility; nervous irritability. test cold or burning, and prickly sensation of skin; low spirits, lassitude, with disinclination to exercise. although satisfied it would be beneficial. In fact, patient distrusts every remedy.

Have you any, or all of these symptoms ? If so, you will find a certain remedy in Dr. M'Lane's Pills.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'LANG's CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now betore the public. Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermituge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastity written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily Journal. and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these Periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upor, the consideration of the reading public.
