

Economise.
Oh, yes, economise; put off the little bills; the mechanic can wait! Never mind the tailor, he belongs to the credit party, nobody pays the tailor. Stop the newspaper; you can get along without it. Put off the carrier, he has only come through storms, and cold and heat, every day regularly to serve you, and now, when he wants clothing to keep his little ones from freezing, stop the paper!
Never mind the school bill, the poor woman who has taught your children to read can wait. Take the children out of school, they can get along without schooling this winter, and you must economise. The school teacher must pay her rent, but then if she don't, if she fail, that's nothing; nobody in Wall street knows her!
Discharge your porter, you can get along without him this winter; perhaps he'll starve, but no matter you must economise!
Can't you do without that pair of chickens today? No sir; they must be roasted; they are so good cold at night, with a bottle of porter and bread and butter! Then you must have a Turkey for dinner; no genteel family can get along with getting along without roast turkey for dinner, and as you are at market, you had better have some oysters sent home; they are so good.
You must economise, but don't think of smoking one less cigar a day; a cigar costs only three cents, what's that? You are going to a party to-night; stop and tell the hair dresser to go and dress your wife's hair; nobody, now-a-days, thinks of doing it herself.
Eddy wants a new cap, buy that; it costs but three dollars. There are some beautiful wax dolls; Kitty must have one, buy it.
Then you must send up a few dozen more of porter, it is so good with cold chicken for supper, and whilst you are about it, you may as well send home a couple of baskets of champagne, to have in case a friend comes in.
Buy a ticket to the opera to-night, stop and order a carriage to the party to night, then go home and talk about hard times, and swear you must economise.—Day Book.

The Way to Wealth.
The public knows little of the extent to which a sort of stock-market gambling in the legislation of Congress, has been carried on of late years. Now and then a great case like that of Gardner, comes to light in all its proportions. But it is not generally suspected that this case was a characteristic one in many of its features; that in nearly all large claims urged upon Congress, the claimants are interested in the same way as the claimants. Here is an instance:
"Ex-Senator J. Clemens has fallen heir to a respectable sum of over thirty thousand dollars, in the recent passage of a land claim to certain Alabama by Congress, being the amount agreed upon for his services in the event of the measure succeeding."
This was not the only case in which ex-Senator Clemens has worked for a fortune during the late Congress. He was the agent to bore, and baffle, and cajole Congress into granting an extraordinary extension of Col's patent for his pistols. The pistols did not go off, and consequently Mr. Clemens bagged no game; but thirty thousand dollars is a tolerable winter crop.
Imagine what a harvest would have been gathered by these agents, if the French Spoolation bill had become a law, and how natural was their fierce shout of indignation when the veto came between the cup and the lip, and spilled the porridge. We can almost forgive them for turning "patriots" on such an occasion.—Clear Mercury.

M'Lane's Vermifuge.—No remedy ever invented has been so successful as the great worm medicine of Dr. M'Lane. All who have used it have been equally astonished and delighted at its wonderful energy and efficacy. To publish all the testimonials in its favor would fill volumes; we must therefore content ourselves with a brief abstract of a few of them.
Japhet C. Allen, of Amboy, gave a dose to a child 6 years old, and it brought away 83 worms. He soon after gave another dose to the same child, which brought away 51 more, making 134 worms in about 12 hours.
Andrew Douglass, of Cranbury township, Youngs county, gave his child one teaspoonful, and she passed 177 worms. Next morning, on repetition of the dose, she passed 113 more.
Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park county, Ia. writes that he is unable to supply the demand, as the people in his neighborhood say, after a trial of the others, that none is equal to Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge.
Messrs. D. & J. W. Colton, of Winchester, Ind. happened last spring to get one of this Vermifuge. After selling a few bottles, the demand became so great for it that their stock was soon exhausted. They state that it has produced the best effect wherever used, and is very popular among the people.
"Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, and take notice of the name. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all the respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada." 24-2w

$50 Reward.
RUNAWAY from the subscriber on the 3rd of February last, my negro man ISAAC. He is about 35 years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, is of a dark copper color, tolerably high forehead, black eyes, and having a small portion of white on each of his hind feet. Said boy weighs about 165 lbs., quick spoken, tolerably intelligent. When he left he wore common apparel, such as common laborers usually wear. I will give Twenty Dollars reward for Isaac, delivered to me or confined in any jail so I get him again, or I will give Fifty Dollars reward for him with sufficient proof to convict any white person of harboring him. I bought said boy of Julius Alexander about eight years since. Mr. Alexander lived in the town of Charlotte, and I think Isaac is straggling about through the country where I purchased him.

$100 Reward.
WAS stolen from the subscriber's stable in Charlotte, on Tuesday night, the 27th ult., a beautiful blood bay HORSE, of medium size, in good order, and about six years of age, light mane and tail, shod all round with iron shoes, and having a white on each of his hind feet. Suspicion rests upon a man who called himself here WILLIAM (CLAY alias WM. CLOYD (as he is called in South Carolina)) he having left this place under very suspicious circumstances. He is about 35 years of age, is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and limps a little in walking, has dark hair and wore a large set of whiskers, which I understand he has since had shaved off. When he left here he wore a gray overcoat. He says he is a Russian by birth, but he speaks good English. $50 will be given for the delivery of the horse to me in Charlotte, and $50 for the arrest of the thief with sufficient proof to convict him.
