I dreampt that, I was married-Oh what a happy dream! My bride was fair and lovely As sunlight's brightest beam; Her lips were red as cherries; Her bosom white as snow; And as she spoke her rapture Her voice was soft and low.

I dreampt I was a father-Oh! what a funny dream! My children round me gather, Their eyes with pleasure gleam ; Their merry gleesome prattle Falls sweetly on my ear: I love to watch their gambols,

'Tis past-my vision's ended-'Twas nothing but a dream; These slumbering midnight fancies, How life-like do they scem ! The morning sun arising, They vanish one by one, And I awake disheartened To find myself alone.

For they are very dear.

By J. R. NICHOLSON.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that his house, known as the "Railroad Hotel," opposite the thester Depot, is still open for the reception of regular and transient boarders and the travelling public; and that he is making every exertion to deserve and secure a continuance of the kind and liberal patronage which has hitherto been extended to him. He flatters himself that every needed arrangement has been made to promote the comfort of all who stop with him :- his rooms are airy and well-furnished, his servants are attentive and obedient, and his table constantly supplied with the best of the season, so that his 'riends will not want any attention necessary to make their sojourn pleasant and agreeable. His stables are furnished with good host lers and an abundance of provender, and he is prepared at a moment's notice to supply his customers with private conveyances of every sort, to any part of the surounding country.

He desires to return his acknowledgements to the public for past fayors, and solicits for the future an equally liberal share of patronage.

TO THE PATRONS OF PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER

Owing to the large "mount of counterfeit Pain Killer put up and sold as genuine by unprincipled men, we have been obliged to resort to very expensive measures to protect ourselves pecuniarily, and the public from great injury, by buying and using their worthless courterfeits. The comparative plain and simple style in which our Pain Killer has been put up, has made it very easy for those disposed, to imitate it very succesfully, as far as its external appearance, in style of boltle, lable, and color of the article; but we need pot say that the c mpound is a miserable, filthy production, and calculated to do great injury to those who might use if with the confidence that they have been accustomed to use the genuine Pain Killer. Parties whose business it is to counterfeit valuable preparations, do it in such a secret manner, that it is almost useless to at: tempt to punish them by legal measures, as it is diffecult, and we might say impossible to bring the proof been to a very great expense in getting up a finely executed STEEL ENGRAVED LABEL, for our bottles. We also attach to our bottles a Steel Engraved Note of Hand, which we issue as our obligation, and to counterfeit which is held to be forgery by the laws of the United States, and which parties will not dare attempt to do. The great expense attending Tin, Japan & Brithe getting up and printing of these labels will prevent the attempt to counterfeit, thus securing to the public that the article they purchase is the genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer, manufactured by Perry Davis Son, Sole Proprietors. The Pain Killer will be put up in a new style of pane Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, blown in the Glass. We have discontinued the use o

the 374 cent bottles and now put up only four sizes, wiz: 124 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle. We have also a very fine Engraving on Stone for the Box labels, specifying the contents of the box, where and by whom manufactured, &c. We have also adued to our Pamphlet of directions and certificates a cover beautifully hnished, presenting on the first page a very excellent likeness of Perry Davis, the original inventor of the Pain Killer. The bottle labels, and one label on each box, has also a correct likeness of Perry Davis which t will be impossible to counterfeit successfully We have been to this expense, that the public might have perfect confidence that th y were getting the get uine article when they buy a bottle as above described. To those who have so long used and proved the merits of our article, we would say that we shall con-tinue to prepare our Pain Killer of the best and purest materials, an that it shall be every way worthy of their approbation as a family medicine. PERRY DAVIS & SON, Manufacturers and Proprietors. Providence, R. I., July 27th 1855.

The Pain Killer is sold by PRITCHIED & CALDWELL, Charlotte, N. C; also by Sill & Sill, Salisbury ; Boatright & Barkuloo, Columbia; and by Druggists, Grocers and Medicine Dealers July 27th 1855.
