The Shortest Way.

Some twelve years ago, Napoleon. (Indiana.) was celebrated for two things, one for the carousing propensities of its citizens, and the other for the great number of cross-roads in its vicinity. popears that an Eastern collector had stopped at Dayton to spend the night and gain some inforunation respecting his future course. During the evening he became acquainted with an old drover who appeared well posted as to the geography of the country, and the collector thought he might as well inquire in regard to the best route in different points to which he was destined. "I wish to go to Greenfield, ' said the collector;

"now which is the shortest way ?"

"Well, sir," said the drover, "you had better go to Napoleon, and take the road leading nearly north."

The traveller noted it down.

"Well, sir, if I wish to go to Edinburg ?" "Then go to Napoleon and take the road west." "Well, if I wish to go to Vernou?"

"Go to Napoleon and take the road southwest," "Or to Indianapolis ?" added the collector, eyeing the drover closely, and thinking he was imposed on.

"Go to Napoleon and take the road northwest." The collector looked at his note book ; every direction had Napoleon on it; he began to feel his mettle rise, and he turned once more to the drover with-

"Suppose, sir, I wanted to go to the devil?" The drover never smiled, but seratched his head, and after a moment's hesitation, said : "Well, my dear sir, I don't know of any shorter road you could take than to go to Napoleon."

> From the Chicago Tribune. A Michigan Legislator.

A friend told us vesterday that our anecdotes of the legislator that wanted the Constitution to run through his farm, and of his worthy brother who did not think his constituents had any sense, reminded him of the freaks of a distinguished Michigan State Senator, who in his day was the unfailing source of half the fun at the Capitol. -Upon one occasion, while some resolutions were under discussion which involved an endorsement of the action of the Michigan delegation in Congress upon the tariff question, this gentleman sprung to his feet exclaiming-MR. PRESIDENT !- I do not care a curse about this plaguy tariff; but I'm afraid that the Whigs | the best material, to which he asks the inspection of purwill get a branch of the d-d thing in this State! chasers. His establishments is on College and Depot The same gentleman was at another time made the victim of the sarcasm and irony of a political opponent, who, in a long and personal speech against him in the Senate Chamber, accused him, among other things, of having stolen the livery of heaven to serve the devil in. Our friend rose to reply, violently agitated and trembling with indignation. He said:

'MR. PRESIDENT !- This is the first time in all my life that I was accused of stealing! My opponent says I have stolen the Library of Heaven Mr. President, in the most solemn manner, allow me to assure you that I did not know that there was such a book in print.' He was originally from New Jersey, and was very lond of glorifying that State. Upon these occasions he always commenced as follows: 'Mr. President, the great State of New Jersey, which State I had the honor to leave,' &c.

These are pretty hard to beat, but we believe we can still cap the climax by a leaf from our indebted must take the consequences. Hoosier reminiscences. It is what we remember of a speech we once heard delivered by a candidate, for County Clerk. The orator was one of those lank, shambling men that are almost always found in fever and ague countries, and was dressed in a complete suit of linen which was at once too small for him. He began :

'FELLER CITIZENS; I was born in glorious old Knox, but was fotched up in Sullivan, and had it not been for the goodness of Providence and some other gentlemen I mout have been as big a derned $1, which will be sent to any part of the Union free of fool as any on you. But I have larned a fust rate edication, and will make as good a Clerk, if elected, as 'Squire Law would be. I hold in my hand an American half-eagle. Upon one side are inscribed the Goddess of Liberty, with 'er cap upon a bean pole; upon the other is an eagle. bearing in his mouth a motto - 'E Pluribus Unam' -signifying a plurality of unicorns, and if you will step over to Phil. Hayne's grocery we will spend it for liquor!"

He was not elected.

"What do you charge for board !" asked a tall Green Mountain boy, as he walked up to the bar of a second-rate hotel in New York :-"what do you ask a week for board and lodgings ?" " Five dollars." "Five dollars! that's too much; but I s'pose you'll allow for the time I am absent from dinner and supper?" "Certainly, thirty-seven and a half cents each." Here the conversation ended, and the Yankee took up to the fashion and in the latest style. his quarters for two weeks. During this time he lodged and breakfasted at the hotel, but did not take either dinner or supper, saying his business detained him in another portion of the town. At the expiration of two weeks, he again walked up to the bar, and said: 'Spose we settle that account-I'm going in a lew minutes. The land-lord handed him his bill: "Two weeks board at five dollars-ten dollars." "Here, stranger," said the Yankee, "that is wrong-you've made a mislake; you've not deducted the times I was absent from dinner and supper-14 days, two meals per day; 28 meals, at 371 cents each-10 dollars 50 cents. It you've not got the fifty cents that's due to me, I'll take a drink and the balance in cigars."

A YANKEE TAKEN IN .- An ingenious downcaster, who has invented a new kind of 'Love Letter Ink,' which he had been selling as a safe-guard against all actions for breach of promise of marriage, inasmuch as it entirely fades from the paper in two months after date, was recently 'donbrown,' by a brother downeaster, who purchased 100 boxes of the article, and gave him his note for ninety days. At the expiration of the time, the ink inventor called for payment, but, on unfolding the scrip, found nothing but a piece of blank paper. The note had been written with his own

Some wise man, years ago, said, 'If you want to learn human nature, get married to a spunky girl, more in the house with another family, and elep one of the young ones, and then you'll learn it.

FLORIDA LAND AGENCY.

THE undersigned has established an agency in the town of Alligator, Columbia County, Fla., for the purchase, sale or location of Land Warrants, the purchase and sale of lands generally, improved and unimproved. The fact now being established that a Rail Road is to be constructed immediately, connecting the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico, runing through the entire length of the county, East and West, and in view of the great fertility of our soil, the unusually fine growth of pine timber on the land, the healthfu ness of the climate, and the reasonable terms on which lands can now be obtained, there is perhaps no section of the Union which affords equal inducements to the emigrant from the older States. Having had some experience in farming on the different kinds of land, and acquired a general knowledge of them throughout the county, and having acquired unusual racilities for pointing out such as are for sale either of public or private lands, he feels very confident of making it the interest of all persons wishing information, or who may have determined to settle in Florida to call on him. TO THE PATRONS OF PERRY DAVIS VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

Owing to the large amount of tounterfeit Pain Killer put up and sold as genuine by unprincipled men, we have been obliged to resort to very expensive measures to protect ourselves pecuniarily, and the public from great injury, by buying and using their worthless counterfeits. The comparative plain and simple style in which our Pain Killer has been put up, has made it very easy for those disposed, to imitate it very succes fully, as far as its external appearance, in style of bottle, lable, and color of the article; but we need not say that the c mpound is a miserable, filthy production, and calculated to do great injury to those who might use it with the confidence that they have been accustomed to use the genuine Pain Killer. Parties whose business it is to counterfeit valuable preparations, do it in such a secret manner, that it is almost useless to attempt to punish them by legal measures, as it is difficult, and we might say impossible to bring the proof

Considering the great difficulty in protecting ourselves and the public by prosecuting parties, we have ocrat, a newspaper published in the town of Charlotte been to a very great expense in getting up a finely

STEEL ENGRAVED LABEL, for our bottles. We also attach to our bottles a Stee Engraved Note of Hand, which we issue as our obligation, and to counterfeit which is held to be forgery by the laws of the United States, and which parties will Witness, R. Harris Clerk for said County at office not dare attempt to do. The great expense attending the getting up and printing of these labels will prevent the attempt to counterfeit, thus securing to the public that the article they purchase is the genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer, manufactured by Perry Davis & Son, Sole Proprietors.

The Pain Killer will be put up in a new style of panel bottle, with the words, Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, biown in the Glass. We have discontinued the use of the 374 cent bottles and now put up only four sizes, wiz: 121 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle. We have also a very fine Engraving on Stone for the Box labels, specifying the contents of the box, where and by whom manufactured, &c. We have also added an immediate arrangement, as further indulgence canto our Pamphlet of directions and certificates a cover not and will not be granted. beautifully finished, presenting on the first page a very excellent likeness of Perry Davis, the original of the Pain Killer. The bottle labels, and one label on each box, has also a correct likeness of Perry Davis, which it will be impossible to counterfeit successfully We have been to this expense, that the public might this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court, that publication be made for six weeks in the Western Demnine article when they buy a bottle as above described. To those who have so long used and proved the merits of our article, we would say that we shall con-

> their approbation as a family medicine. PERRY DAVIS & SON. Manufacturers and Proprietors. Providence, R. I., July 27th 1855. The Pain Killer is sold by
