74141 A CONDEMNED CITY.

Since the terrible outrages and atrocities committed by the Know Nothings of Louisville last August, and the endorsement of their perpetration by the "American" municipal authorities, that city has been on a downward course. Not only has she received no accessions from abroad to her population, but thousands of her "bone and sinew" have deserted her blood-stained precincts. As a consequence, her trade and commerce have decreased, her tenements remain empty, and depression and decay are universally prevalent within her borders. taocratic press. SEVERE PUNISHMENT.

The trial of a negro man, the property of Mr. Griffin, of Macon, Georgia, came off at Cassyille, last week. The "Standard" states that the Jury found him guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and His Honor, Judge Trippe, sentenced him to take one hundred lashes, well laid on with a cowhide and to be branded on the right cheek with the letter M., which was executed by the sheriffs, in this place, between the hours of 10 and 12, Monday morning last, agreeably -----

In the Criminal Court of Wilmington, Del., last week, a negro, named James H. Morris, who was convicted of an assault and battery, with intent to commit a rape, was sentenced "to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, to stand in the pillory one hour, to be whipped with thirty lashes, to be imprisoned one menth, and to be sold to highest bidder for 14 years."
