

THE STATES: "Distinct as the Billows, but one as the Sea."

Western Democrat

BY JOHN J. PALMER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CHARLOTTE, Tuesday Morning, June 17, 1856.

DEMOCRATIC Anti-KNOW-NOTHING TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES BUCHANAN, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, J. C. BRECKENRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY.

FOR GOVERNOR: THOMAS BRAGG.

FOR STATE SENATOR: WILLIAM R. MYERS.

FOR HOUSE OF COMMONS: WILLIAM F. DAVIDSON, WILLIAM M. MATHEWS.

ELECTORS FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT: Henry M. Shaw, of Currituck, Samuel P. Hill, of Caswell.

DISTRICTS: 1st Dist., Wm. F. Martin, of Pasquotank, 4th " Gaston H. Wilder, of Wake, 5th " S. E. Williams, of Alamance, 6th " John H. Clement, of Davie, 7th " R. P. Waring, of Mecklenburg, 8th " W. W. Avery, of Burke.

THE SHERIFFALTY. WE are authorized to announce E. C. GRIER, Esq., as a candidate for election for the office of Sheriff of Mecklenburg county, May 13, 1856.

THE NOMINEES. The Democratic press and the Democracy of the country, from Maine to Louisiana, hail with delight and enthusiasm the nomination of Buchanan and Breckenridge.

WE are authorized to announce JOSHUA SIKES, Esq., as a candidate for election to the office of Sheriff for the county of UNION, May 27, 1856.

THE PLATFORM.

We ask Whigs and Southern men of all parties except the oath-bound, to compare the Democratic National Platform with that miserable anti-twelfth section affair adopted at Philadelphia in February last, or compare it with any that has been or will be adopted by the several factions in opposition to the Democratic party, and then decide where every consideration of patriotism, duty to the South, honor and interest calls them to act in the present crisis.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

This genuine and spirited Democratic county, it will be seen by a notice in today's paper, will give a grand Ratification meeting, in behalf of Buchanan and Breckenridge, on the 12th of July. The Hon. JOHN KERR, and other distinguished speakers, will address the assemblage, which will no doubt be an immense gathering.

CABARRUS COUNTY.

A Democratic, Buchanan, Breckenridge, and Bragg Ratification rally will come off in Cabarrus, at Concord, on Saturday next, on which occasion, R. P. WARING, Esq., our District Elector, will make his opening speech for the campaign. "Sam" would do well to draw on his thickest coat, for he is destined to receive a most awful thrashing.

By the way, our Elector met with an accident, a few days ago, which severely burnt one of his arms. With a flask filled with powder, he was in the rear yard of his dwelling, teaching his interesting and sprightly little juveniles, or "ideas," "how to shoot," when fire accidentally communicated to the flask, while in his hand, producing an explosion which it is wonderful was not more serious in its effects.

MR. BRECKENRIDGE.

The opposition can find nothing in Mr. Breckenridge's character or political course to carp at. His nomination, is on all hands, attested to be a good and popular one. True, the Wilmington Herald finds a serious objection to Mr. B., but whether the American people will regard it of sufficient importance to reject him in November next, is questionable. Hear the Herald's complaint: "We pass on to Mr. J. C. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, the nominee for Vice-President. He is a young man, about forty years old, tall, said to be talented, known to be worthy, and has served two terms in Congress. While in Congress, he had a difficulty with Mr. Cutting, of New York, a member of the House, but the affair was settled amicably. President Pierce tendered him the Spanish mission, but he declined it. When you look at him sideways, his forehead, nose and chin are nearly in a straight line." We are told that there is a "poetic glimmer" about him. If so, it will be manifestly out of place in the chair of the Senate, should he be called to occupy it.

THE N. C. CENTRAL RAIL-ROAD.

At a recent meeting of the Directors of the Charlotte & South Carolina Rail-Road Company, we understand, the following resolution was unanimously passed: Resolved, That a connection with both trains, each day, should be made with the South-Carolina Rail-Road; and in order to do so, that two passenger trains run each day on the Charlotte & South Carolina Rail-Road, so soon as the North Carolina Rail-Road shall run two trains on said road. Resolved, That the President do inform the President of the North-Carolina Rail-Road of the above resolution, and earnestly request the President and Directors of said road to arrange as soon as possible to run on said road so as to make perfect connections with adjoining roads.

We are gratified, as we think all of our citizens will be, to see this proposition on two trains a day (a morning and evening one) on our rail-roads; and we hope it may be the pleasure, as we think it will be the interest, of the North-Carolina road, to accede to the request of the C. & S. C. road. It would afford our citizens, and the people along the entire line, additional travelling and mail facilities, while it would, if not at first, ultimately secure to our roads, on a superior and the most pleasant route, the entire travel nearly between the South and the North. Our great roads now form a connection with only one of the lines which pass twice a day north and South. Thus they lose half the loaf, while a full connection would secure a full loaf. If our roads ever prosper and pay, they must depend upon something more than the local travel and support. They must add the profits of through travel and foreign support, by connections which will let the blood flow into her veins from other corporate bodies. Of this fact the enterprising Directors of the C. & S. C. Road seem to be aware, and we trust the intelligent Directory of the N. C. Road will properly appreciate the advantages of a full connection at Goldsboro, and thus accommodate the friends of the road, promote their own interests, and allow her ally, feeder, and friend to participate in the advantages of such a connection. The first three or six months may not "pay," but we venture to predict that longer than that time will not be required to establish a most lucrative through travel. The Wilmington and Manchester Road is no favorite at present, and now is the time to enter for the prize.

FALSEHOODS.

The Philadelphia Pennsylvania, and other papers of that State, denounce as a falsehood the charge that Mr. Buchanan in 1843 or at any other time, maintained in a speech, or otherwise, that "ten cents a day was enough for a laboring man." The Pennsylvania declares that no respectable or responsible person can be found to father the falsehood, and challenges the enemies of Mr. B. to produce, if they can, any extract from his speeches or writings in support of the slander. Nor did Mr. Buchanan ever declare that if there was a drop of Democratic blood in his body, he would open a vein and let it out; and in this case also, no evidence can be produced that he ever made any such declaration. And equally untrue is it, that Mr. Buchanan, in 1819, or before or after, ever offered or supported any resolutions against slavery and the South. Nor did Mr. B. ever write any Erie letters, or vote in favor of Congress abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia—against the removal of slaves from State to State—that the negroes who murdered the crew of the ship Creole incurred no penalty thereby, &c., &c. But the proof is positive that Mr. Fillmore did these things.

THE CIVIL WAR IN KANSAS.

Civil war, with all its horrors, now rages in Kansas. On the night of the 3d the abolitionists burnt the town of Bernard, a pro-slavery settlement. Eight pro-slavery men have been murdered on Pottawatomie Creek, by a party of free-state men. The victims were horribly mutilated. Fifty abolitionists attacked a pro-slavery party near Lawrence, and in the conflict several men were wounded. In the neighborhood of Bull Creek, the abolitionists have been burning houses and driving away the families of the pro-slavery settlers. Capt. Patis's company went to a place called Hickory Point, to suppress disturbances there, and had two of his men killed. Another fight occurred between some parties near "Black Jack," nine of the abolitionists and thirteen of the pro-slavery men were killed, among whom were Captain Patis and James McGee. On the 20th ultimo, at Osawatomie, the pro-slavery men seized a free State man and hung him, when his wife fled and aroused the neighbors to the rescue. A fight ensued in which five pro-slavery men, and two free State men were killed. A party of some twenty free-soil men entered the house of a man named Wilkinson, in Franklin county, and in spite of the entreaties of his wife, dragged him out of his bed and brutally murdered him. They then proceeded to the house of an old man named Doyle, and murdered the old man and two sons. They then went to a Mr. Sherman's, where they murdered three more men. A man named Whitman was also killed. The only reason that could be assigned for this inhuman butchery was that the Abolitionists (the Court being in session) were afraid that these men would be called upon to give evidence against them, as many of them were charged with treason. An appeal is made to the South for men and money. Gov. Shannon has issued a proclamation, and is using every effort in his power to quell disturbances. It will be seen by our Congressional report, that a proposition has been made in the Senate to send Gen. Scott to Kansas, to put an end, if possible, to the civil war now raging there.

RETURN OF THE KANSAS COMMITTEE.

The Congressional Kansas Investigating Committee have returned to Washington, and allege that they have proof that out of 5,500 votes cast at the Legislative election of 1855, only 1100 were legal votes. They were sent by their abolition friends in Congress purposely to obtain such information, and they have complied with the wishes of those who sent them. Who will place any faith in the truth or honesty of their report? OFFER OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—Gerrit Smith, of New York, the well known abolitionist, has written a letter, in which he demands that the Republicans shall denounce slavery not only as unjust, but as against law, as a crime, and that they will be "put to death." He proposes to raise $100,000 and one thousand men—"not whiskey drinkers nor profane swearers,"—but men with the "purity and zeal of Cromwell's armies"—to drive slavery from Kansas. As he considers himself too old to fight, he offers to subscribe $10,000 of the one million, in aid of the "suffering brethren in Kansas." Gerrit's New York "brethren are not very likely to respond, to any extent, to his appeal. Gerrit, it will be remembered, was nominated by a woolly-head Convention, a few days ago, for the next President of the United States.

THE BIBLE AGAINST KNOW-NOTHINGISM.

Our friend, Mr. John Capps, a gentleman well versed in Biblical subjects, a poet of no ordinary fame, and a zealous opponent of Know-Nothingism, calls our attention to the following passages of scripture, showing that the Bible is directly against the principles of that sacrilegious party: The 23d, 33d, and 34th verses of Leviticus, 19th chapter, reads: "Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God; I am the Lord. And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him. But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God." "The stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you," &c. Remember this, pious Know-Nothing.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CELEBRATION.

The last Greensboro' Patriot contains the following strange announcement: "The committee of arrangements in relation to the celebration of the completion of the N. C. Rail Road, have had the same under their consideration, and for various reasons unnecessary to mention here, but well understood in this community, have agreed to dispense with the celebration entirely. The partyism introduced into the affairs of this road by the 'Greensboro' candidate for Governor, (Mr. Gilmer) has probably something to do with the determination not to celebrate.

MARRIED.

On Thursday morning, the 12th instant, by the Rev. John R. Picket, Mr. T. S. RINDLE, Printer, of Lancaster, S. C., to Miss SARAH L. MARKS, daughter of Mr. Henry Marks, of Steele Creek, Mecklenburg county.

MARRIED.

GOLD-MINE PROPERTY.

It will be seen by a notice in today's paper, that G. W. CALDWELL, Esq., of this place, has for sale some valuable gold and copper mine property, which, if not previously disposed of, will be sold at July Court.

SUPERIOR COURT.

A special term of Mecklenburg Superior Court (Judge CALDWELL) will be held next week, commencing on Monday. Some important cases, we learn, is set down for trial, amongst them an interesting case of slander, in which there is a large number of witnesses.

HARVEST.

Many of our farmers are now cutting their wheat. There are some good fields, but many show the blighting effect of the long drought in the spring. The crop will not be an average one, although the large quantity sown last fall will make up in bushels for the failure of the fields. The straw is unusually short, but heavily headed. In some localities the rust appears in the wheat.

CORRECTION.

In our last, we stated that Mr. Buchanan received all the votes of the Convention, except "3 scattering." Mr. B. received every vote of every State of the Union. The North Carolina delegation, when on the 14th ballot, they changed their votes from Mr. Pierce to Mr. Buchanan, reminded the Convention that he, "Old Buck," had been the first choice of the State four years ago; and that the delegates then yielded him, as they now yielded Mr. Pierce and Mr. Douglas.

MESSRS. BRAGG & GILMER.

The Wilmington Herald says Mr. Gilmer will address the people of that city sometime during the present month—and adds "we suppose, as a matter of course, that Governor Bragg will meet him at these points." Of course Gov. Bragg was consulted about the appointment for that place, or of course he ought to have been.

Know-Nothing Journals.

are attempting to show that Mr. Buchanan was a Federalist in his boyhood. They would be better employed in showing, what he can easily prove to be true, that Mr. Fillmore has been from his boyhood to old age, an Abolitionist "dyed in the wool." These papers attempt to prove that Mr. B. was a Federalist in 1823 by showing that he supported for Governor of Pennsylvania, a Mr. Gregg, a Republican, in opposition to Governor Shultze.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.

The Commencement at Davidson College takes place on Wednesday of next week (the 26th.) The closing exercises, on the 25th, as well as those on Commencement day, will be unusually interesting on the present occasion, and a large assemblage of the patrons and friends of the College, it is anticipated, will be in attendance both days. The orations will be numerous, and on very interesting subjects. The talented and eloquent Moses D. HOGE, D. D., will be there, to deliver an Address, and a charming Band of Music will accompany the exercises, processions, and proceedings during the entire performance of the long and well selected programme.

The Salisbury Herald.

says "Mr. Buchanan is a foe man worthy of the steel of such a statesman as Fillmore," and adds, "May our bleeding country never be Pierced again!"

On the 4th of November next.

"old Buck" will make your bleeding "Sam" exclaim, "May I never be Bucked up again!"

ENTHUSIASM.

A meeting to form a Fillmore and Donelson Club, in one of the wards of New-York, was announced a few days since. Two persons attended.

RECOVERING.

Mr. Buell, the Editor of the Democratic Review, of Washington city, who was stabbed in Cincinnati, is recovering. The wound penetrated the lungs, producing an aperture through which the breath escaped, in a volume strong enough to blow out a candle. The vile perpetrator, who took offence at some remarks in Mr. B.'s speech, has not been discovered.

POOR PROPHETS.

The Know-Nothing papers before the Convention met, were filled with predictions of "rare sport" at Cincinnati. There was to be a "regular mass"—"the grandest sort of a row." (We quote from an article in the Columbia Era.) But all their hopes have been blasted. All there, was "union, harmony—every thing for the cause, nothing for men."—and thus the sport turns out to Know-Nothingism like that to the frogs pelted with stones by the boys.

UNION.

The "Hards" and the "Softs" of New York, unite in the support of Buchanan and Breckenridge. There is now a perfect union on the national candidates, and that great State may be set down as certain for the Democrats in November. A fusion Hard and Soft Democratic Convention has been called, to meet at Syracuse on the 10th of July. Israel J. Hatch, of Buffalo, New York, is spoken of as the candidate who will be selected for Governor, and a union Presidential Electoral ticket will be formed.

Some of the Know-Nothing journals don't like the name of "Breckenridge." Strange to say, the same journals, not long since, thought the name of Frelinghuysen beautiful! Hurra! say we, for Buchanan, Breckenridge, and Bragg!—or, as our juvenile Democrats sing it out: "Hurra, for Buck, Breck, and Bragg! The three B's will sting Know-Nothingism into fits."

The Wilmington Herald says the nomination of Mr. Breckenridge, instead of Mr. Dobbin, "in effect gives the State (North Carolina) to Fillmore and Donelson—"a consummation devoutly to be wished."

Lay not that flattering unction to your soul, Mr. Herald. Sam and Solouque have about an equal chance for the vote of North Carolina in November.

RAIL ROAD CELEBRATION.—A grand celebration of the completion of the Danville and Richmond (Va.) Rail Road, will take place at Danville, on Thursday next. Several thousands of people will be present.

THE GREENSBORO' TIMES.

We see invitations circulating tolerably freely for the approaching Rail Road Celebration, which takes place in Danville, Va., on Thursday the 19th instant. We expect they will have a great time, and we may be among the number, but present or absent, we hope they will not forget, in their rejoicings, that the road is to be extended to Greensboro', and form a connection with the North Carolina Rail Road. This is a necessity of the age. It is the thing for North Carolina, which we feel able to show to any unbiased doubting mind. But let us for the Danville celebration on the 19th instant!"

The Black Republican Abolition Convention.

meets at Philadelphia to-day, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President. Chase and McLean, of Ohio, and Fremont, of California, will be amongst the names for the honor of a nomination.

CHARLESTON RATIFICATION MEETING.

A meeting to ratify the recent nomination at Cincinnati, is announced to take place at Charleston, S. C., on Thursday evening next. The Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, James L. Orr, and Preston S. Brooks, will address the meeting.

DESTRUCTIVE HAIL STORM.

We learn from the Greensboro' Patriot that a hail storm passed over the northern part of Guilford and the Southern part of Rockingham counties, on Monday, the 9th inst., which did serious damage to the farmers. Some of the hail stones measured 9 inches in circumference. Wheat, corn, pig, window lights, gardens, birds, &c. suffered severely.

Peter Johnson, a white man, was hung at Greensboro', N. C., on Friday the 6th instant, for the murder of Yancey Diamond. The "Patriot" states that a painful scene occurred at the gallows. Johnson being large and corpulent—weighing more than two hundred—as he swung off, the rope broke and he fell to the ground. The rope was then made three double, which proved sufficient to sustain his weight. He denied the killing to the last, and accused some of the witnesses of swearing falsely.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

On Saturday evening last, the Democrats had an interesting and pleasant meeting at the Court-House. They assembled mainly for a business purpose, but they were unexpectedly favored with an entertainment not anticipated. They had assembled to form a Democratic Club, when it was ascertained that they had in the room an eloquent Democrat from Raleigh. Wm. R. Myers, Esq., was appointed to the Chair, and Dr. H. M. Pritchard, Secretary.

A committee, consisting of R. P. Waring, Thomas H. Brem, J. B. Kerr, J. L. Caldwell, and John Hart, was appointed to report officers for the Democratic Association. The Committee retiring, loud calls were made for E. G. Haywood, Esq., of Raleigh, Mr. H. being introduced to the meeting, responded to the call in a speech of about one hour's length, argumentative and able throughout. The beauties of Know-Nothingism and Fillmoreism, Mr. H. showed up with a master's hand.

At the conclusion of his eloquent speech, the Committee reported the names of Dr. H. M. Pritchard, for President of the Democratic Association, Leroy Springs, Esq., for Vice-President, and J. J. Palmer, Secretary, which nominations were unanimously confirmed by the meeting. The meeting then adjourned.

THE MECHANICS' BRASS BAND.

This Association of Musicians, composed of about a dozen young gentlemen of our town, attended, by invitation, the Democratic meeting at the Court-House, on Saturday evening last, and by their excellent music, added much to enliven and to the entertainment of the proceedings of the evening. They played in admirable style many favorite airs, on their fine and brilliant brass instruments, eliciting rapturous applause from the assemblage.
