The very deuce is in it! Here's a big washing to be done, One pair of hands to do it: Sheets, shirts & stockings, coats & pants, How will I e'er get through it!

Dinner to get for six or more, No loaf I ft o'er from Sunday; A baby cross as he can live-He's always so on Monday.

And there's the cream, 'tis getting sour, And must forthwith be churning. And here's Bob wants a butter on-Which way shall I be turning?

*Tis time the meat was in the pot, The bread was worked for baking. The clothes were taken from the boil-Oh, dear! the baby's walking.

Hash, haby dear! there, haush-ah-ah! I wish he'd sleep a little. Till I could run and get some wood To harry up that kettle.

Oh, dear! if P--come home, And finds things in this pother, He'll just begin to tell me all About this tidy mother!

How nice her kitchen used to be, Her dinner always ready Exactly when the noon bell rung-Hush, hush! dear little Freddy.

And then will come some lasty wo d, Right out before I'm thinking-They say that hasty words from wives Set sober men to drinking.

Now isn't that a great idea, That men should take to sinning, Because a weary, half sick wife Can't always smile so winning.

When I was young I used to earn My living without trouble, Had clothes and pocket money, too, And hours of leisure double.

I never dreamed of such a fate. When I, a-lass! was courted-Wife, mother, nurse, seamstress, cook housekeeper, chambermaid, laundress, dairy-woman and scrub generally-doing the work of six-
