THE LEGISLATURE

Of North Carolina assembled yesterday at Raleigh. We intend to keep our readers well informed of the proceedings, as we contemplate having one or more correspondents in the city. Those who wish to keep "posted up" in the transactions of either our Legislature or Congress, ought to subscribe for the Western Democrat without delay. Terms, in advance, $2 per year, or $1 for 6 months. Thursday next is the time appointed by Gov. Bragg as a day of thanksgiving in this State. Certainly we all have cause to return sincere thanks and grateful acknowledgments to Almighty God, giver of all things and preserver of all mankind, for his protection and mercies in the past. A suspension of business on that day has

MECKLENBURG SUPERIOR COURT.

The Fall Term of the Superior Court for this county was held last week, Judge Caldwell presiding. On Wednesday the State Docket was taken up, and R. H. Weddington put on trial charged with the murder of James M. Journey of Iredell county, near this place last September. The Judge charged the Jury to bring, in a verdict of manslaughter, which they did. The circumstances attending the fatal occurrence were so mitigating, that the Judge only sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs. For the State, Mr Solicitor Lander. For the prisoner, J. W. ing, Esq'rs.

Wm. Lander, Esq. the Solicitor for this Judicial Circuit, is a gentleman of eminent attainments in his profession, and a persevering prosecutor of those who violate the peace and the laws of the State.

TO BE HUNG .- At Union Superior Court sentenced to be hung on the 29th day of lish all. December. He had been convicted at a previous term of the Court, but had appealed to the Supreme Court and obtained a new trial, which resulted as above stated. It is said that the murder was a most brutal affair.

It will be seen that the 29th of December is Monday. We learn that Judge Caldwell never sentenced a man to be hung on Friday, the usual day, giving as a reason on one occasion, that "that good day had already been too much desecrated by hang-

N. C. WHEAT .- A friend handed us for publication, a certificate from an eminent AgriculturDEMOCRATIC JUBILEE,

And Torch Light Procession, IN CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Thursday night last, the Democratic jubilee and rejoicing at the election of Mr Buchanan, took place. It was an occasion that will be long remembered by those who witnessed the display made by the illumination, transparencies and fire-works.

At sunrise, a salute of one gun was fired for each State that voted the democratic ticket, and half-hour guns during the day.

At night a bon-fire was kindled in the public square, and several thousand people assembled, a large number being in attendance from the country. A procession was formed by chief-marshal Townley, aided by John Rigler, W. A. Lonergan, C. Davis, F. W. Ahrens and Rob't Shaw, assistant marshals, and accompanied by an excellent band of music, with transparencies of all sizes and colors, marched through the principal streets of the town.

There were forty-two transparencies in the procession, with a great number of mottoes. We copy a few, as follows:

Charlotte, N. C., the Hornets' Nest of the Revolution-Old Mecklenburg, majority 458-The Hornets are about-Tar. pitch, turpentine and feathers for Sumner, Chase, Giddings, Seward, Beecher, Garrison and Burlingame-Old Rip Van Winkle wide awake-The Constitution as it is, and an Ocean-bound Republic-The three Governors, Bragg, Wise, Adams-R. The procession returned to the public square, where a platform was erected, and the speeches of the evening were made. The first speaker introduced was the Elector for this District, Mr Waring, who made a short and appropriate address. Hon. Dan'l M. Barringer was next introduced. He congratulated the people on the triumph of Mr Buchanan, and alluded to the dangerous position of the Union previous to the late election. He said that for the safe delivery of the Union from a perilous situation, we might thank the national democracy. James W. Osborne, Esq., next appeared on the stand amid the applause of the multitude, and reviewed the past in a pathetic and eloquent manner. Six months ago, the speaker said, he saw a portentious cloud arising in the North, and he became convinced that it was the duty of every southern man to assist in its dissipation. He thauked providence that right had triumphed over wrong, and the greatest nation on the face of the earth preserved.

Wm. Lander, Esq., of Lincoln, was loudly called for. He made a beautiful and appropriate speech, and was greeted with cheer after cheer. The crowd was so dense around the stand that it was not convenient to get a position where we could hear all the remarks of the gentleman, but we know they suited the occasion and gratified all present.

After the speaking, the fire-works were displayed at the Depot. Rockets and Roman Candles were set off in large numbers, together with fire-wheels, &c.

The illumination of the town was the most beautiful exhibition of the kind we ever saw. Upwards of fifty business houses were lighted-the three story buildings presenting a magnificient appearance. A large number of dwellings were illuminated and made a fine display.

It affords us gratification to say that several Fillmore men joined in the general rejoicing and illuminated their houses. They thus manifested their appreciation of the triumph of southern rights; and although their favorite did not succeed, they very properly rejoice at the overthrow of black republicanism. We must not forget to mention the fact 261,151 that the ladies turned out in great numbers, and testified their approval of the demonstration by their presence and smiles. by this free-will offering on their part. At half-past ten o'clock the company adjourned in order.

Everything passed off in good feeling and good humor. Everybody appeared pleased, and we do not think there was anything said calculated to offend a member of any party-except the Fremont faction, and but one of that stripe was present, and he rode the woolly horse.

The following "pome invitationa" was prepared by our foreman :

Ye people all, of every name, Who grace this famous section. Come, listen, while I offer you A thought for your reflection.

I merely wish to say a word About our County Fair. And give to each and every one An invitation clear.

Come, then, ye farmers of the land, Bring on your sheep and oxen; And mention to the ladies, that We need some woollen socks on.

Ye tillers of the soil, come, And bring its rich production; And tell the ladies, one and all, To send their geese and ducks on. Also, your Turnips and your Corn,

Your Flour and Potatoes. Your Grapes and Wine, and Barley fine, Your Pickles and Tomatos.

The Chickens, too, the Pootras, bring A sample of each kind. The Brahmas, Shanghais, too, will all A pic-us people find.

Mechanics, too, your place is here, And each one represented: You know it never would be Fair. Unless your work's presented.

Then bring along your handy-work, Your "phine and phancy phixens'," And show the folks what brains can do When stirred with proper mixens'.

Ladies, on you I humbly call, To heed this invitation. And give your presence, one and all, To grace this grand occasion.

And also, bring the fancy work Your fairy hands have finished, With skill that always marked your sex, And time has not diminished.

The time is short, the day draws nigh, What further need I say? Come one and all, both great and small, Come, come to the Fair I pray. ASBURY.

LOOK AT THIS, YE MEN OF THE SOUTH.

The Secretary of one of the meetings in Philadelphia, addressed by Kenneth Ray ner, of North Carolina, previous to the late election, refuses to endorse his (Rayner's) conduct. The gentleman publishes a card, saying that Rayner went to Philadelphia at the invitation of Fremont Leaders!!! and if he (a Northern man) had known that fact beforehand, his name would never have been connected with the meeting. A Southern man playing second fiddle to the Abolitionists! what a spectacle!

Now see what this man Rayner said to the abolitionists about Southern men. Here are a few extracts:

FOREIGN NEWS.

The steamer Europa arrived at New York on the 13th inst. The foreign Cotton market is reported generally firm, except in lower qualities, which have declined an eighth.

The feature of the news which has created most attention is an official paragraph in the Moniteur complaining of the English press publishing calumnies against the French Government, and holding out the menace that a continuance of such conduct will break up the Anglo-French alliance. This paragraph causes some excitement both in England and France, having affected the Paris Bourse. It is reported that the English Government will ask an explanation of the threat to dissolve the alliance.

The late election sealed the fate of knownothingism. -It was the end of one of the grandest humbugs and one of the most

The know-nothing organization was conceived and nurtured by certain individuals for the sole purpose of getting possession of the government on the 4th of March, 1857. The democracy had overwhelmed the old whig party with defeat, and the ambitious men of that party knew that it would require some scheming and an extraordinary effort to get into power again. One of the main objects of the secret party was to operate during the last Presidential election, and when it first began to spread through the country, many flocked into its recesses with various objects in viewsome after popularity, some after office, some for pecuniary advantages, and a few joined for the purpose of curtailing the influence of Roman Catholics and foreigners. All who joined were egregiously deceived, as they deserved to be. Know-nothingism received a death-blow before the Presidential canvass commenced.

The time will come when it will require a mass of testimony to prove that a man in this country joined a party like the miscalled "American party."

A few old whigs held out against the new party, and some rather than act with it preferred to join the democracy. Those whigs who refused to desert their openly avowed principles for an oath-bound faction, now have cause to congratulate themselves. Know-nothingism has passed away (or at least become entirely powerless) and most of its devotees have crawled back to the whig ranks, and are now claiming to be old line whigs! They are indeed beautiful pinks of whiggery-at one time publicly asserting that the whig party was corrupt and deserved to die.

Democracy has achieved another victory over a combination of isms. What we shall next have to fight has not yet been revealed.
