GOODS. COL. WILHITE'S FIRING THE WOODS

BY BEN COOKE. Scene.-A Court of Justice in Franklin county, N. C., in the year 1840.

The defendant, Col. Wilhite, was chargthereby endangering the property of his neighbors.

Lawyer A., county Attorney; Jesse Coppage principal witness against defendant. After several witnesses had been examined and deposed, Mr Coppage was called on Attorney-"Mr Coppage, do you know anything about Col. Wilhite's firing the woods some time ago."

Witness-"Wall,-yes,-I undertake to know something about it."

Attorney-"Well, sir, then go on and tell the Jury all that you know about it."

Witness-"Wall, yes, and I'll undertake to do that. Bennet Boone was over to my house, and he axed me to go with him down to the Buzzard branch to get a load of light-

Witness-"Wall, yes,-and I'll undertake to do that. Bennet Boone was over to my house, and he axed me to go with him down to the Buzzard branch-

Attorney-"Stop! Stop! Nobody cares anything about Bennet Boone and the Buzzard branch. Tell what you know about the woods being fired, and nothing more .-Go on sir."

Witness-"Yes sir. And as I was tellin' ve, Bennet be being a good fellow, I told m as how I'd go with him. So we starton down towards the Buzzard branch

Attorney-"There's that Buzzard branch again! Can't you tell what you know about this rigamarole about the Buzzard branch and the load of lightwood ?"

Witness-"Uv course I kin, but you don't let me git to the fire part." Attorney-"Well, sir, go on and tell just what you know about the woods being fired and nothing else." Witness-"Wall, yes,-and I'll undertake to do that. Bennet Boone was over to Attorney-"Stop, sir, if you please !"- Witness-(Assuming a dignified air.)-"Wall, yes,-and I'll undertake to do that. Bennet Boone was over to my house, and he axed me to go with him down to the Buzzard branch to get a load of lightwood, and bein' as how Bennet was a good fellow, and I wasn't much busy, I told him as how I'd go with him. So we started on down towards the Buzzard branch together. When we got down to the branch we saw the smoke arising in the woods over towards Col. Wilhite's. So we thought we'd undertake to go up on the hill on the otherside of the branch, and undertake to see what it was on fire. Buzzard branch is mighty !

deep, and there was no way to get across, except to walk a little slim pine log. I started foremest, and when I got right over the deepest part, my feet slipped, and I fell heels over head right into the water; and Bennet Boone, like a dirty fool jumped

We know it has been a subject of great astonishment to a great many how it was that we were enabled to sell such

at such Very Low Prices. Well, it is simply because we import our own Goods, manufacture them ourselves and sell them to our customers at the same prices that other dealers pay for them in Philadelphia or New York, and then we give them an article better made and to give satisfaction or money returned. We return you our sincere thanks for the iberal patronage bestowed upon us, and if selling good and fashionable Goods at very low prices will insure a continuance of the same it shall be done at the EMPORIUM OF FASHION by
