Democrat. CHARLOTTE, N. C. Tuesday, June 7, 1859.

MECKLENBURG AGRI'TUR'L SOCIETY A called meeting of the Mecklenburg Agricultural Society was held on Saturday last. The only business of importance transacted was the passage of a resolution to change the location of the Fair Grounds. The Executive Committee reported that a more eligible and convenient site could be obtained adjoining the Gold Mine on the Camden road, and they were instructed to sell the precent Grounds and purchase such quantity of land and erect the necessary buildings thereon as would enable the Society to conduct its exhibitions on a larger scale than heretofore.

Western

The Treasurer was instructed to collect the mo ney due the Society by subscription.

The financies of the Society are in excellent condition, and it is believed that the next Exhibition will be such an one as will prove highly creditable to the western part of the State. All the adjoining counties of this State and Districts of South Carolina are invited to participate in the Fair to be held on the 26th, 27th and 28th of Mr Williams gave Mr Gilme October next.

CHARLOTTE FEMALE INSTITUTE .--- We are eratified to inform our correspondent of last week, who made some inquiries about the erection of an addition to the Female Institute building, that the Trustees have contracted with Mr Jonas Rudasill and Saml. Taylor for putting up the additional building required by the increased patronage of the institution. The work will now be vigorously prosecuted to completion.

THE HORNETS' NEST RIFLEMEN paraded on Saturday last and shot for the Medal which they were prevented from doing on the 20th by the inclemency of the weather. It was won by Private Blake Davis.

The Riflemen visited Raleigh last week to participate in the reception of the President. They were under the command of Lieut. Williams, and we were gratified to notice the fine appearance of the company, as well as the good discipline manifested and proper conduct observed by each mem-

We do not understand these movements, and we should like for the opposition to say whether or not they intend to have a candidate in this District. We don't believe Mr Ashe would be guilty of any secret under-handed movement, but we think he ought to positively decline or accept in order to allow both parties to prepare for the canvass and understand each other, which would relieve his friends from any suspicion of desiring to pursue a deceptive course.

But where is the necessity for such a course Does truth need the arm of abuse to support and defend it? Are votes made by calling men liars and ran out into the street. In crossing the street and thieves who happen to think differently from us? Such a course can be pursued only upon the supposition that the people are incapable of thinking for themselves and of forming their own opinions.
