REMARKABLE CIRCUMSTANCE.—The Hartford "Post" says that at the celebration of the semi-centennial anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. Allen McLean, which was held at Simsbury, Connecticut, on Tuesday last, there was present a family of eight brothers and sisters, every one of whom was present at the ordination fifty years ago.

Do not believe one half that you hear, but make sure that you believe all you say.

It does not necessarily follow that a man is a Christian because he belongs to a church, any more than it follows that a man is a dog because his name is Barker.

"I never come late to a friend's dinner," says Boileau, "for I have observed that when a company is waiting for a man, they make use of that time in loading him with abuse."

A Waggin' chap, whose vixin wife by drowning lost her precious life, called out his neighbors, and told them that his spouse was drowned—and could not be found. He knew, he said, the very nook where she had tumbled in the brook; and he had dragged along the shore, above the place, a mile or more. "Above the place!" the people cried. Why, what d'ye mean?" The man replied: "Of course you don't suppose I'd go and waste the time to look below! I've known the woman quite a spell, and learned her whimsies passing well—alive or dead, she'd go, I vow, against the current anyhow!"

THE DURATION OF LIFE—Medical science, or perhaps increased intelligence and social comfort, arising from the increased wealth of civilized nations, have done something towards prolonging the term of man's existence. It is shown in the official returns of the life insurance companies of Great Britain, that the average duration of human life is sufficiently upon the increase to require a constant revision of the rates of insurance.

Do not believe one half that you hear, but make sure that you believe all you say.
