THE POPULAR CREED. Dimes and dollars! dollars and dimes!

An empty pocket's the worst of crimes! If a man's down, give him a thrust, Trample the beggar into the dust. Presumptuous poverty's quite appalling-Knock him over, kick him for falling! If a man's up, oh, lift him higher, Your soul's for sale and he's a buyer.

I know a bold and honest ma Who strives to live on the Christian plan, But poor he is, and poor will be, A scorned and hated thing is he; At home he meeteth a starving wife, Abroad he leadeth a leper's life, They struggle against a fearful odds, Who will not bow to the people's gods.

So get you wealth, no matter how, No questions asked of the rich, I know; Steal by night and steal by day, (Doing all in a legal way,) Join the church and never forsake her, Learn to cant and insult your Maker; Be hypocrite, liar, knave and fool, But don't be poor-remember the rule:

COMMERICAL INDEPENDENCE OF THE SOUTH. -If John Brown's foray into the South, and the sympathy which he has commanded in the North, shall enure to the freedom of the South from its unwise dependence upon the North for every article of manufacture, it will prove to be a blessed era to our country's history.

That this independence can be achieved, we have not a single doubt. But it is folly to deny that the work must be accomplished gradually, and that much self-denial must be brought to its aid. One thing the South can do, and do at once. Millions of dollars are annually spent by the Southert people at the North in pleasure trips, and in luxures which can be dispensed with. Let this dran of wealth from the south to enrich the Northeropeople, be stopped right away, and we shall weken the North to no inconsiderable degree, while we shall retain in the South a large capital to so to work with, and establish manufactories of

AN ICEBERG EIGHT MILES LONG.

The ship Uncowah, which arrived at San Franciseo on the 22d of October, from New York, passed a mammoth jeeberg about fifty miles to the south of Cape Horn, as late as the 9th of August. The captain in a description of this "wonder of the deep," says: The great berg was seen first by the second officer, from the deck, about noon of the 9th of August. It was then a mere glittering hammock on the horizon shead. Capt Kirby at first could not believe that it was ice, and thinking he might have been drifted to the northward during the several vation, set it down as an island covered with

The wind was from the eastward, and the ship going at the rate of eight knots, she soon brought the whole body above the horizon, and not long after he ice was found to stretch along the whole head, and on the weather bow. The course of the ship was then altered, so as bring the ice on his person, one on his head caused by a boil, and the lee bow, and gradually, as the bearings altered ship passed within a few miles to the windward of them. The ice was directly in the track of vessels bound to the eastward.

A MOVEMENT AGAINST NEGROES IN CANADA. -By the proceedings of the Court of Assizes of Essex county (Canada,) it appears that the Grand Jury have made a presentment to the Court, based upon a representation emanating from the authorities of the township of Anderson, in regard to the negro population of the county. The Grand Jury submit the document that was presented to them to the court and urge that some action be taken in the matter. The Anderson authorities say: "We are aware that nine-tenths of the crimes committed in the county of Essex, according to the population, are so committed by the colored people." And they further urge "that some measures may be taken by the Government to protect us and our property, or persons of capital will be driven from the country. The court, in alluding to this presentment, remarked that "he was not surprised at finding a prejudice existing against them (the negroes) among the respectable portion of the people, for they were indolent, shiftless, and dishonest, and unworthy of the sympathy that some mistaken parties extended to them; they would not work when opportunity was presented, but preferred subsisting by thicking from respectable farmers and begging from those benevolently
