W. J. & E. A. YATES, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1860.

EIGHTH VOLUME --- NUMBER 398.

THE

TERIOUESO, MESTERN Published every Tuesday,

WILLIAM J. & EDWIN A. YATES,

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

TERMS, PER ANNUM: If paid in advance,......$2 00 If paid within 3 months,...... 2 50 If paid after the expiration of the year, 3 00 Any person sending us five New subscribers, accompanied by the advance subscription ($10) will receive a sixth copy gratis for one year.

Subscribers and others who may wish to send money to us, can do so by mail, at our risk. Transient advertisements must be paid for in

F-F Advertisements not marked on the manuscript for a specific time, will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly.

J. M. MILLER, M. D., Practitioner of Medicine and Surgery, CHARLUTTE, M. C. Office opposite Kerr's Hotel.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Will give prompt attention to all business entrusted t his Professional care. OFFICE OPPOSITE KERR'S HOTEL. March 14, 1859

ROBERT GIBBON, M. D., PRACTITIONER OF MEDICINE

OPERATIVE SURGERY, Office No. 2 Irwin's corner, Charlotte, N. C. December 14, 1859.

JAS. T. DAVIS, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.,

Will practice in the Courts of Mecklenburg and the adjoining counties. For The collection of claims promptly attended to. March 14, 1859

T. H. BREM & CO., WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN British, French and American

Dry Goods. Carpets, Hardware, Hats and Shoes, Charlotte, N. C.

THOMAS H. BREM. J. A. SADLER, Jr. T. LAFAYETTE ALEXANDER.

RANKIN & MARTIN Commission Merchants, Wilmington, N. C.

ROBT. C. BANKIN. Aug. 30, 1859. 1y-pd

ALFRED MARTIN

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE. The next Session of this Institution will open on the Third Monday in January.

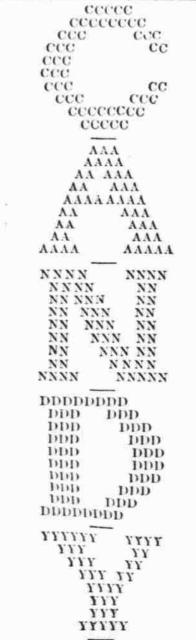

FACULTY

REV. W. M. WINGATE, President. PROF. W. T. WALTERS, PROF. W. G. SIMMONS, PROF. WM. ROYALL. Prof. J. H. Foote, German will be taught as an extra study. French will also be extra if pursued beyond the usual time al-

The Trustees feel that they have secured an able and well appointed Faculty, and the College stands deservedly high for the high-toned morality and studious habits of its young men.

JAMES S. PUREFOY, Treas.

Forestville, N. C., Dec. 22, 1859.

A saving of 20 per cent, by going to PALMER'S to buy your Candies, as they are manufactured at his Confectionery, always fresh and free from all poisonous

West India Fruits, Raisins, Nuts, Havana Segars, Snuff; Fine cut, chewing and smoking Tabacco; French, English and German Fancy Goods; Musical Instruments; Velosipedes, Cabs, Willow Wagons and Baskets of the finest quality, Christmas Toys, Cake Trimming, &c., which the public will please call and examine. One Door above the Bank of Charlotte.

J. D. PALMER.

NEW GOODS.

Koopmann & Phelps

DRY GOODS

And Groceries Suitable for the Fall and Winter Trade, to which they invite the attention of their customers and the public They assure those who may deal with them that they will endeavor to give satisfaction both in price and the quality of the Goods, as they are determined to sell at such low rates as will tend to the great advantage

A large lot of Ready-made Clothing of various styles and qualities at reduced prices. GROCERIES, Hardware, &c., of purchasers. They have in store

Of all kinds, kept constantly on hand and for sale on the most reasonable terms. They invite purchasers to give their extensive stock an examination before buying elsewhere.

KOOPMANN & PHELPS. October 4, 1859

C. S. BARBEE. C. C. BARBEE. Metropolitan Line, Shortest Route.

WE are running a daily line of two horse Coaches between Fayette-ville and Raleigh, N. C., connecting with the Raleigh and Gaston and N. C. Railroad at Best two horse line of Mail Coaches in the State. New Coaches thoroughly lined. Young, strong, and well-broke horses, with careful and accommodating drivers. Supper at Mrs. Barclay's. Through in 12 iours. Office at Fayetteville Hotel, Fayetteville, N. C. Tickets sold to Weldon. Office at Yarbrough House, Raleigh, N. C. Leave the latter place 54 o'clock, P. M. Leave Fayetteville 3 o'clock, P. M., and 2 o'clock P. M., Sundays. Extra baggage must be pre-paid, to have Boxes, Matches, Blacking, &c.; Meershaun Segar Hold-

C. S. BARBEE & BRO., Proprietors, Barclaysville, N. C. December 24, 1859. 2½m-pd.

WHEAT!

The subscriber is prepared to purchase the new rop of Wheat at the highest market price. Farmers will find it to their advantage to call at the CHAR-LOTTE STEAM MILLS before selling.

July 26, 1858 WINTER'S PATENT SAW-MILL.

HE undersigned invites the attention of Mill Owners, or those going into the Milling business, to an examination of the above Mill, one of which can be miles of Charlotte; said Mills are capable of sawing from three to five thousand feet per day, with half the power required to drive the circular mills, and much less than that required to drive the Sash-saw.

doing their work perfectly smooth and beautiful. In addition to the above, I will furnish all kinds of gearing and shafting: Iron Water-wheels: Patent Sawmill Dogs, Mill Spindles; French Burr Mill Stones, with patent balance; best anchor Bolting Cloth; in short, any thing pertaining to the Milling Business. The above are made with all the modern improvements, and will be sold on the most reasonable terms.

Mr J B. Stewart can be consulted with reference to the above mills or machinery, and orders through him will receive prompt attention. A list of prices, together with circulars containing certificates from persons using my mills, will be sent on application.

N. B .- The great simplicity of my Mill offers inducements to the infringement of my patent; and to prevent litigation I give this notice, that the law will be rigidly enforced against any person using or manufacturing any part of my improvement. 3m-pd Charlotte, Dec. 13, 1859.

Сиавьотте, Dec. 13, 1859. I am now using one of Mr Winter's Patent Mills at my place five miles from town, and find it all it is but resides beyond the miles from town to the miles from town town to the miles from town town to the miles from town town to the miles from town to the miles from town town. recommended to be, doing the work both fast and cheerfully recommend it to all mill-owners as superior to any that has come under my notice. J. B. STEWART.

ance Company, CONTINUES to take risks against loss by fire, on Houses, Goods, Produce, &c., at usual rates.

President-A. C. STEELE, Vice President-C. OVERMAN, Attorney-JOS. H. WILSON, Sec'y & Teas'r-E. NYE HUTCHISON.

DIRECTORS: S. T. WRISTON. A. C. STEELE. WM. JOHNSTON, JNO. L. BROWN, F. SCARR, M. B. TAYLOR,

CHAS. OVERMAN. Executive Committee-S. T. Wriston, F. Scarr, Jno. L. Brown. April 20, 1859.

THE TWO BARRELS. There's a barrel I have in a corner so snug,

Well charged with the best of good ale, With a tankard of that how the time will slip by, With a pipe and a song or a tale; If a friend from just over the way should step in,

He's hailed with a hearty good cheer, And never repents, as he tastes the contents Of an Englishman's barrel of beer.

There's a barrel I have, but stronger than beer Is the charge which for that I intend; It hangs by the chimney, in readiness near,

For I meant it my heart to defend, If a fee from just over the way should drop in, We'll meet him with three hearty cheers; But I think he'll repent when he tastes the contents

Of the barrels of stout volunteers. And thus double-barrell'd, my boys, let us live, Prepared for our friends or our foes: The hand that in friendship we readily give, Is as ready as need to give blows.

And whether the spigot or trigger we draw, Our barrels won't fail us, I wean; So tankards and rifles let's charge, hip-hurrah! For our Freedom, our Country, and Queen! SAM'L LOVER.

ANOTHER SOUTHERN MOVEMENT CUBAN SEGAR MANUFACTORY.

Segars and Tobacco Leaf direct from Cuba JOHN S. WILEY has returned to Charlotte from Cuba, where he bought a large and varied assortment of SEGARS, SNUFF, TOBACCO, &c., for this market, and is now opening some celebrated brands of Segars, among which may be found the following: Mucha El Littleto, El Rico Habana, Concha's Malos, Rio Hondro, Flor del Tumas, Lasbelas Gustou. He manufactures Segars from the best Havana Toacco; and keeps the best Smoking and chewing Tobacco, Lynchburg and Turkish Brands; Maccabau, Rap-

He respectfully invites the public to call at the Cuoan Segar Factory nearly opposite the Mansion House.

$50 REWARD!

ANAWAY from the subscriber on the 1st October. a mulatto boy named SOLOMON. He is near six feet high, about thirty years old, tolerably bright, rather slim, and weighs about 175 pounds. He has a down look when spoken to. The end of the forefinger of his left hand has been cut off, and a sharp hard knot has grown on the end of it. I think he is lurking about Rocky River, in the lower end of Cabarrus county, where he was raised. All persons are forewarned not to harbor or assist him, under the penalty of the law. I will pay the above reward for his delivery to brated S. S. Prentiss, of New Orleans, each by me, or his apprehension and confinement in any jail so WILLIAM HAMILTON. Negro Head Depot, Union Co., N. C.

December 13, 1859. KOOPMANN'S ANTI-DYSENTERIC AND ANTI-DYSPEPTIC BITTERS. PREPARED BY B. KOOPMANN,

Charlotte, N. C.

These unrivalled Bitters possess peculiar curative properties in all Affections of the Bowels. They will be found effectual in the cure of Dysentery, Diarrhae, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, and all those painful and troublesome diseases arising from a derangement of the digestive organs and irregular action of the functions of the stomach and intestines. They will also be found a Safe Remedy for Chills and Fevers. These Bitters are prepared from Roots brought from Germany, and for over a century have been found effectual in that country for the permanent cure of the diseases enumerated above. They contain no deleterious drug, but are compounded entirely from roots, and are perfectly safe at all times. A simple trial is all that is asked, as a cure will naturally follow, and that is the best certificate of their superiority over every other remedy for those particular

They are manufactured by B. Koopmann, Charlotte, N. C., and are for sale by KOOPMANN & PHELPS. Also for sale at F. Scarr's and E. Nye Hutchison &

Nov. 29, 1859. JONAS RUDISILL,

Co's Drug Stores.

Shop, before removal.

Jan. 25, 1858,

Architect and Builder.

COMPLETED ON THE MOST REASON-ABLE TERMS, AND IN EVERY STYLE OF ARCHITECTURE,)

On College street, corner of Eighth street Charlotte, N. C. Charlotte and surrounding country, that he still continues the above business in Charlotte, where he is prepared to furnish DOORS, BLINDS AND SASH, to the public on the most reasonable terms, and on the shortest notice. Having a great many small claims for work done. scattered all over the country, he is determined to to let the case proceed under his management. change his method of doing business and hereafter will require CASH for all work done in his Machine

State of N. Carolina -- Lincoln County. Superior Court of Law-Fall Term, 1859 Wm. Lander, propounder, vs A. C. Williamson, et al.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Sherman Converse is not an inhabitant of this State. but resides beyond the limits of the same, it is ordered tion of the witnesses the stranger evinced very lit- with God. the Western Democrat, a newspaper printed in the cach one to tell their own story, without interruptown of Charlotte, notifying the said Sherman Converse or his heirs to be and appear at the next Term of this Court to be held on the 8th Monday after the 4th Mon- one tell it over two or three times. He put a few dollars, and the night afterwards Hopkins was day in February next, then and there to make himself eross questions, which with keen witnesses only taken out of his bed by lynchers and beaten almost or themselves parties to the above stated case, or the served to correct mistakes, and he made no notes, to death. The Charlotte Mutual Fire Insur- case will be heard and decided without his or their which in mighty memories, only tend to embarbeing made parties thereto.

Witness, V. A. McBee, clerk of our said Court, at Office in Lincolnton, the 8th Monday after the 4th Monday in August, A. D. 1859. V. A. McBEE, Clerk. 94-6t (adv. $6.)

Notice.

F. SCARR having purchased the entire interest in after be continued by himself personally. All Notes and Accounts due the late firm of

F. Scarr & Co., to January 1st, 1859, must be paid in to F. SCARR by July 1st, or they will be placed in the hand of an Attorney for immediate collection. May 17, 1859.

THRILLING NARRATIVE. A Friend of the Widow.

Atric Subrary

John Taylor was licensed when a young man of 21 to practice at the bar of ———. He was poor, but well educated, and possessed of extraordinary ten or spared. genius. The graces of his person, combined with the superiority of his intellect, enabled him to win the heart of a fashionable beauty.

Twelve months afterwards the husband was emmission as Land Agent, to the West. As a heavy the stern order of the bench. Thus wonderfully salary was offered he bade farewell to his wife and son. He wrote back every week, but received not impassioned eloquence. a line in answer. Six months elapsed, when the husband received a letter from his employer that explained all. Shortly after his departure for the West the wife and her father returned to Mississippi. Then she immediately obtained a divorce by act of Legislature, married again forthwith, and to complete the climax of her cruelty and wrong, had the name of Taylor's son changed to that of Marks-that of her second matrimonial partner.

This perfidy nearly drove Taylor insane. His career from that moment became eccentric in the first degree-sometimes he preached, sometimes he an account of one of his efforts at the bar: At an early hour on the 9th of April, 1840, the Court House in Clarksville, Texas, was crowded to overflowing. Save in the war times, there had never been witnessed so large a gathering in the Red River country, while the strong feeling apparent in every face, will sufficiently explain the matter following.

About the close of 1839, Geo. Hopkins, one of the wealthiest planters and most influential men in Northern Texas, offered a gross insult to Mary Ellison the young and beautiful wife of his principal overseer. The husband threatened to chastise him for the outrage, whereupon Hopkins loaded his gun, went to Ellison's house, and shot him in pee and pure Scotch Snuffs; Powhatan Pipes, snuff his own door.

the charge. The occurrence produced intense excitement, and Hopkins, in order to turn the tide of popular opinion, or at least to mitigate the general wrath which was first violently against him, circulated reports infamously prejudicial to the suffered such cruel wrongs at his hands.

She brought suit for slander. And thus two cases-one criminal and the other civil and both out of the same tragedy, were pending at the April Circuit Court for 1840.

The interest naturally felt by the community as to the issue, became far deeper when it was known that Ashley and Pike, of Arkansas, and the celeenormous fees, had been retained by Hopkins for

The trial of indictment for murder concluded on the 8th of April, with the acquittal of Hopkins. Such a result might have well been foreseen, comparing the talents of the counsel engaged on either

The Texas lawyers were utterly overwhelmed by the arguments and eloquence of their opponents. It was a fight of a dwarf against giants.

The slander suit was set for the 9th, and the throng of spectators grew in number, as well as excitement. And what seemed strange the current of the public opinion new ran directly for Hopkins. His money had procured witnesses who served his powerful advocates. Indeed, so triumphant had been the success on the previous day that when the slander case was called Mary Ellison was left without an attorney. All had withdrawn.

The pigmy pettifoggers couldn't brave the sharp wit of Pike and the scathing thunder of Prentiss. "Have you no counsel?" inquired Judge Miles, looking kindly at the plaintiff. "No, sir; they have all deserted me, and I am too poor to employ any more," replied the beautiful Mary, bursting into tears.

"In such a case will not some chivalrous member of the profession volunteer?" asked the Judge, glancing around the bar.

The thirty lawyers were silent. "I will, your honor," said a voice from the thickest of the crowd, situated behind the bar.

At the tone of that voice many started half from their seats, and perhaps there was not a heart in the intense throng that did not beat somewhat quicker | sweet undersong of the softest cadence -it was so unearthly sweet, ringing and mourn-seen in operation at Mr J. B. Stewart's, within five (DESIGNS FURNISHED AND BUILDINGS) The first sensation, however, was changed into no person present remembered to have seen before elbowed his way through the crowd and placed problem to puzzle the sphynx herself. His high, WOULD most respectfully announce to the Citizens of pale brow, and his small, nervously twitching face seemed active with the concentrated essence and hardly visible beneath their massive arches, look. he fastened them there forever. The agitation of follows : ing dim, dreamy, almost unconscious, and his cloth- the audience amounted almost to madness. ing was so shabby that the court almost hesitated "Has your name been entered on the rolls of the State?" demanded the, Judge, suspiciously. "It is immaterial about my name being on your rolls," answered the stranger, his thin lips curling handed Judge Miles a parchment. The trial immediately went on. In the examina-plaintiff, he had a right to the opening as the clos- preach this evening at early candle light. ing speech; but to the astonishment of every one he dish of that coarse, dry logic which years after- heard this marvelous man.

wards rendered him famous in the Senate of the The poet, Albert Pike, followed with a vein of ten or spared. The great Prentiss concluded for the defendant with a glow of gorgeous words, brilliant as a show- having taken a light breakfast at 72; and there er of falling stars, and with bursts of oratory that susceptible are Southern people to the charms of parently abstracted during all the previous speech- the President has to devote several hours to receives. Still, and strait, and motionless in his seat, pale ing visitors on public and political business, supsmooth forehead shooting high like a mountain ervising reports from the departments, and pulling cone of snow, and but for that continued twich up any arrearages of labor which the day-hours that came and went perpetually in his face, you may have left unfinished. Never was there a more would have taken him for a mere man of marble, laborious man in the same high office-and never or a human form carved in ice. Even his dim, one, perhaps, whose real and earnest desire to serve dreary eyes were invisible beneath those grey, the public interests has been so disastrously misshaggy eyebrows. But now at last he rises-before the bar, not behind it-and so near the wondering jury, that plead at the bar, until at last a fever carried him he might touch the foreman with his long, bony The dial that points the hour of repose to clerks, fingers. With eyes half shut, and standing rigid and even to secretaries, show none to him. He as a piller of iron, his thin lips curled as if in is the master spirit of the Government-and when measureless scorn, slightly apart, and then the the time comes that his work is forever over, and sound came forth. into the brain, as an artless tune winding its way character of the really great statesman, the last of

into the deepest recesses of the heart, like the his school and generation, who, through difficulties melody of a magic incantation, while the speaker with few parallels, has carried the country peaceproceeds without a gesture or the least signal of fully and successfully onward. excitement, to tear to pieces the argument of Ashley, which melts away at his touch as frost THE HARPER'S FERRY INVESTIGATION .before a sunbeam. Every one looked surprised. Realf, old Brown's Secretary of State, has arrived His logic was at once brief, and so luminously in Washington. He is looked upon as a most imclear, that the rudest peasant could comprehend it portant witness in the Harper's Ferry investigawithout an effort. Anon he came to the dazzling wit of the poet- breast of the affair, and it is understood he will im-

The murderer was arrested and bailed, to answer sharper, his smooth face began to kindle up; and Northern States. lawyer Pike. Then the curl of his lips grew plicate prominent persons in New York and other his eyes to open-dim and dreamy no longer; but vivid as lightning, red as fire globes, as glaring as twin meteors. The whole soul was in his eye. In five minutes Pike's wit seemed like foam of folly character and standing of the woman, who had and his finest satire, horrible profanity, when compared with the inimitable sallies and exterminating sarcasm of the stranger, interspersed with jests and anecdotes that filled the forum with

Then, without so much as bestowing an allusion upon Prentiss, he turned round short at the perjured witnesses of Hopkins, tore their testimony into atoms, and hurled into their faces such invectives that all trembled as with ague, and two of them actually fled in dismay from the Court

The excitement of the crowd was becoming remendous. Their united life and souls seemed to hang upon the burning tongue of the stranger. He inspired them with the power of his own passion. He saturated them with the poison of his own malicious feelings. He seemed to have stolen nature's long hidden secret of attraction. He was the son to the sea of all thought and emotion, which rose and fell, and toiled in the billows as he chose. But his greatest triumph

His eyes began to glance furtively at the assassin Hopkins, as his lean taper fingers assumed the same direction. He hemmed the wretch with a circumvallation of strong evidence and impregnable argument, cutting off all hope of escape.

He piled up large bastions of insurmountable facts. He dug beneath the murderer and s'anderer's feet, ditches of dilemmas, such as no sophistry could overleap, and no secrets of ingenuity evade; and thus having as one might say, impounded his victim, and girt him about like a scorpion in a circle of fire, he stripped himself to the work of

Oh! then it was a vision both glorious and dreadful to behold the orator. His actions before graceful as the waves of the golden willow in the breeze, grew impetuous as the motion of an oak in a hurricane.

His voice became a trumpet filled with wild whirlpools, deafening the ear with the crashes of power, and yet intermingled all the while with a

His face was as red as a drunkard's-his forehead glowed like a heated furnace, his countenance was haggard like that of a maniac, and ever and anon laughter, when a tall, gaunt, spectral figure, that he flung his long and bony arms on high, as if grasping after thunderbolts. He drew a picture of murder in such appalling himself within the bar. His appearance was a colors, that in comparison, hell itself might be considered beautiful. He painted the slanderer so black that the sun seemed dark at noonday, when shining on such an accursed monster, and cream of genius; but then his infantile blue eyes then fixing both portraits on the shrinking Hopkins, All at once the speaker descended from his perilous height. His voice wailed out for the murdered dead and living-the beautiful Mary, more beautiful every moment as her tears flowed faster-till all wept and sobbed like children. He closed by a strange exhortation to the jury.

up into a fieudish sneer. "I may be allowed by the and through them to the bystanders .- He advised courtesy of the court and bar. Here is my license the panel after they should bring in a verdict for Persons within steamboats, within railroad cars, from the highest tribunal of America,' and he the plaintiff not to offer violence to the defendant, iron vessels and iron buildings, and telegraph however richly he might deserve it, in other words operators while operating with the wires, continue not to lynch the villain, but leave his punishment to enjoy absolute protection from lightning, no

The jury rendered a verdict of twenty thousand

As the court adjourned the stranger made known his name, and called the attention of the The examination being ended, as counsel for the public with the announcement-John Taylor will

The crowd all turned out, and Taylor's sermon ARE NOW RECEIVING fresh and genuine Drugs from declined the former and allowed the defence to equalled if it did not surpass the splendor of his the New York Market, which have been purchased as a mountain—and wildly rushing as a cataract ton Teas, Tobacco, Segars, &c., &c. Col. Ashley spoke first. He dealt the jury a of fire. And that is the opinion of all who have SEEDS just received.

THE PRESIDENT'S WORK.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times (an opposition journal) speaks as folwit and in a half torrent of ridicule, in which neith- lows of the industrious habits of President Buchanan, whose robust health and activity at his advanced age, excite no little wonder:

He enters his office at 8 a. m. every morning, works steadily at his desk, receiving visitors, readbrought the house down in cheers, in which even ing letters and writing messages and orders until ployed by a wealthy firm of that city to go on a the sworn jury themselves joined, notwithstanding 4 o'clock each afternoon, except on days when the Cabinet is called together for the transaction of special business. These Cabinet meetings generally npassioned eloquence.

It was the stranger's turn. He had remained apand oftentimes six hours. Each evening again conceived.

Another letter says, He is the hardest working man in Washington. the public trusts are confided, as they must be, to At first it is low and sweet, insinuating itself less experienced hands, justice will be done to the

tion, as he has indicated that he will make a clean

CONTESTED ELECTIONS .- A pamphlet of over 334 pages, embracing the testimony taken by the contestants of the two delegates from the city of Baltimore in the lower house of the Maryland Legislature, has been printed. It portrays, from beginning to end, a hideous mass of fraud and outrage perpetrated upon the elective franchise and individuals-such, there can be no doubt, as was never paralleled before, even in Baltimoreas it goes ahead considerably of the exhibit made two years ago by Mr Whyte, in his endeavor to contest the seat of Mr Harris in Congress. In addition to the scenes of riot and outlawry open to the view of all, special cases of illegal voting and the prevention of legal voters abound throughout, with brutal beatings, false swearing, corrupt acts of judges of election, intimidation, &c., down to open and cold-blooded murder.

SMALL-POX AND VACCINATION.—The Boston Journal condenses the following facts from various authorities, directing the attention of the public to the necessity for general vaccination:

1. Infants should be vaccinated without fail, between the sixth week and the fourth month of

2. Every one should be vaccinated, particularly those between fifteen and thirty five years of age, who were first vaccinated in childhood. This is especially desirable during epidemics; and the rule holds good even when the disease may have

3. In general, without regard to special seasons of danger vaccination should be practiced at least once in fourteen years, and better still, once in seven or eight years. 4. The prejudice against taking other diseases with the vaccine matter is almost entirely destitute of foundation, where care is taken by physicians to take their matter from healthy patients. Nor does the condition of the person from whom the matter is taken materially effect its protective power.

PRIVILEGES OF LEAP YEAR -On the evening of the 3d inst., the young ladies of Forsyth, Ga., gave a leap year party to the young gentlemen. The ladies engaged the company of the gentlemen, went after them and gallanted them to the Chapel, took care of their hats, overcoats and walking canes, gave them a seat and entertained them with good chat. When a lady wished to promenade she sought her own partner, engaged his company, gave him her arm, and paced the floor by his side as nimble as a nymph. After promenading with one a while they would seat him and take another. The young ladies administered a very sharp rebuke to the gentlemen in showing them that all ought to be noticed without distinction.

Mr Meriam of Brooklyn, New York, writes as

Our memoranda of lightning in the year 1859 contain a record of seventy-six (76) deaths on the land, and forty-one (41) persons injured by lightning, of whom three were not expected to recover. No death by lightning is reported in the field of our research, within the year 1859, in a building or vessel furnished with metallic lightning conductors, reared for the purpose of protection. death by lightning ever having been reported in a or to telegraph operators, since the introduction of

New Drug Store, IRWIN'S CORNER, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

E. Nye Hutchison & Co, Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Foreign and Domestic Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals, forensic effort. This is not exaggeration. I have upon such terms as to be sold low for Cash. We would respectfully call the attention of the public to our Then a shadow might have been seen to flit ac- listened to Clay, Webster and Calhoun-to Dewey, large and complete stock of Drugs, Medicines, Chemithe firm of F. SCARR & CO., the Business will here- ross the features of Pike, and to darken the bright Tyng and Bascom—but never heard anything in cals, Perfumery, Oils, Paints, Varnishes, Putty, Wineyes of Prentiss. They saw that they had 'caught the form of sublime words even remotely approxi- dow Glass, Kerosine Oil, Burning Fluid, Turpentine, a Tartar,' but who it was, or how it happened, was mating to the eloquence of John Taylor-massive Alcohoi, Lamps, Pure Liquors, Congress Water, Can-

Jan. 17, 1860.