claimed the Judge, "I only got my own." "Well, I made up my mind to have it back,-

"But you never did," cried the Judge. "Yes I did, and interest too!"

"How!" thundered the now enraged Judge. "Well, you see, Judge, I sold you one day a very nice pine log, and bargained with you for a lot more. Well, that log I stole off your pile, down by the mill, the night before, and next day I sold it to you. That night I drew it back home, and sold it to you next day, and so I kept on till you bought your own log of me twenty-seven times !"

It is well known that, by divine permission, and in order to remove trade. the doubts which had arisen in certain minds, the two chains used to bind St. Peterat Jerusalem and Rome clung together when brought into To the Ladies contact, and became so closely joined that it is now impossible to tell where one ends and the other begins. These chains are preserved in the Church of St. Peter in Vinculis, built A. D. 442, by the Empress Eudoxia, wife of Valentine III, We offer Raw Silks and all wool Plaids at N. Y. cost ready money. Emperor of the West. This Princess presented to Pope Leo the chain with which St. Peter was bound by Herod's command in the prison of Jerusalem, having herself received it as a gift from Juvenal, the patriarch of that city. The church was rebuilt in the Sixteenth Century, and modified in the Seventeenth. It contains the magnificent statue of Moses, by Michael Angelo, and many admirable paintings by Guercino, Domenichino, Guido and Giulio Romano. During the week the church was crowded with people, all the more anxious to kiss the chains sanctified by the sufferings of the Prince of Apostles, as these venerable relies are only exposed at this festival, and cannot be seen at another time without an express permission from the Popc. The Holy Father, attended by several prelates attached to the household, came to the church to join in the prayers of the faithful, and venerate these precious chains, which bound the first pastor of the Church whose seat he at present fills."

A movement has been started in England to encourage young women to learn the trade of watchmaking, with a view to qualify them to clean & repair watches-a branch of business which there is constant employment in the large towns and cities. It is said that the Massachusetts American Watch Company at Waltham, gives constant employment to a large number of women.

In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you, First-It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them. Secondly-It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly-It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show: the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly-It is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a is its chief merit over every other preparation, viz: FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTENDING TEETHING such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c.; also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For CROUP, the most fatal and trying of diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful anti-spasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to lose no time in procuring it. Lastly-It costs so much more than other preparations of the kind, that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself as the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle, must be strictly followed. Price 25 cents per bottle.
