MEETING IN LINCOLN.

According to previous notice, a large and respectable number of the citizens of the county of Lincoln, without respect of party, assembled in the court-house in Lincoln, on Saturday, Dec. 1, 1860, for the purpose of taking into consideration the present distracted condition of our country.

On motion of Gen Daniel Seale, C C Henderson, Esq, was called to the chair, and A Costner and V A McBee, were requested to act as secretaries. By request, Wm Lander, Esq, explained the object of the meeting; and offered for the consideration thereof the following preamble and resolutions, viz: Whereas, It is now apparent to the most common observer, that a crisis the most alarming to our country, is near at hand. And, whereas, the present unhappy condition of the country has been brought about by a series of injuries and insults inflicted upon the Southern States of this Union for a number of years by the abolitionists of the North. And, whereas, the recent election of purely sectional men to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States, upon a platform inimical to the vital interests and destructive to the future hopes of the Southern States of this confederacy, in addition to the many other wrongs heretofore perpetrated upon the South, warn us that we are now at the mercy of a dominant and fanatical majority, the declared views of which, if carried out, will destroy all the future hopes of the South, and inevitably bring upon us ruin and disgrace. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we have read with great pleasure the patriotic sentiments contained in the late Message of His Excellency, John W Ellis, Governor of North Carolina, on the subject of our Federal Relations, and fully endorse the views contained therein. We request the Legislature of North Carolina now in session to carry out the objects recommended in said Message, and hereby specially instruct our immediate representatives in that body to use their exertions to accomplish this object.

Resolved, further, That we, as law abiding citizens, ask for nothing more and will submit to nothing less than a perfect equality in the Union; and to effect this object, we have been and still are willing to make every sacrifice and use every exertion which patriotism and honor will justify; but failing in this, and without equality in the Union, we shall demand independence out of it; and for the vindication and maintenance of that independence, "we hereby pledge our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

Whereupon, V A McBee, John Coulter and Henry Cansler, each, in a few and pertinent remarks, approved and advocated said resolutions. And, upon motion of H Cansler, Esq, said resolutions were and unanimously adopted.

And, upon motion of H Cansler, Esq, the foregoing proceedings were ordered to be published in the newspapers of Charlotte, and other papers in the State requested to copy the same. A. COSTNER, Sec'y. C. C. HENDERSON, Chairman. V. A. McBEE, Sec'y.

"DIVIDE AND CONQUER"

The Philadelphia Bulletin (republican) thus concludes a long article: "General Scott fortunately is a Virginian. Should armed force become necessary, we should not send a man from the North against South Carolina. We should gather the chivalry of Kentucky, the patriotic citizens of Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina, who are not maddened by this hash of sedition, that, if possible, it might be suppressed without bloodshed. The responsibilities of the new President will be very great, and we are fortunate in possessing at the head of the Government in such times, so brave and clear-headed a man as Abraham Lincoln."

This is a very nice and comfortable programme. The enemies of the South are to sit comfortably in their parlors while the people of the South cut each others' throats. Without entering into the political question of secession, we think the Bulletin is much mistaken if it expects any part of the South to play the part of police and Jack Ketch upon its own countrymen, whether North or South. The Union sentiment is strong in Virginia; the opposition to secession and nullification embraces many of our most intelligent and reflecting minds; but the idea of bloody domination and compulsion is a plant that does not take kindly to Southern soil. Virginia would not desire to bathe her sword in Northern blood, even if those Northern States which have nullified the law should also secede from the Union. She cannot be expected to have less clemency for her Southern than for her Northern brethren.—Richmond Dispatch.

GOOD ADVICE FROM THE RIGHT QUARTER.—The N. Y. World, (independent Republican,) says:—"The North has been the leader in wrong courses, and nothing would now become her so much as to be the leader back to the old true positions."

59,396 53,303 48,538 44,990 2,701
Ellis' maj. 6,093 Breck. m. 3,849

The vote of Wilson is counted with Edgecombe, Nash and Wayne. The vote of Alleghany was not sent to Raleigh, and the vote of Bladen and Madison was incorrectly returned—the returns merely stating so many votes for Bell and Breckinridge, without naming the Electors. The vote of these three counties would have increased Breckinridge's maj. over Bell to about 4,000; and counting Douglas' vote with Breckinridge's maj., the democratic majority would stand 6,637.

The popular vote as indicated above is, 4,324,638. Add for California and Oregon, 180,000. The popular vote in 1856 was, 4,504,638, 4,064,453.

Increase of vote, 420,185. It will be seen by the above that Mr. Lincoln, although elected President, falls at least 800,000 short of a majority of the people of the United States. A rough estimate indicates that Breckinridge has a majority of 75,000 over Bell and 25 or 30,000 over Douglas. Douglas does not carry a State in the Union.

A correspondent writing from Columbia, S. C., says: "People here and in Charleston scrutinize drummers and agents for Northern houses very closely, and they find but little favor. Not a few of them in registering their names at the hotels pretend to hail from Baltimore, which they consider a good shield. So far as I have been able to learn, there is no disposition at present to strike bargains with this species of tradesmen in the latitude of South Carolina."

THE BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA.—The quarterly statement of this Bank for Oct. 20th, is published. It shows $3,035,502 of notes discounted; $1,586,184 of bills of exchange; $49,571 due by banks in other States; $413,733 of specie; $269,904 of notes of other banks; $221,324 of profits; $485,951 of deposits, and $418,443 due the State Treasurer; $651,784 due to banks; $1,185,420 notes in circulation.

From the above it appears that the bank has nearly one dollar in specie for every two and a half dollars of circulation; whilst of specie and bills of exchange (which are better than specie when they are at maturity), it has nearly two dollars for nearly every dollar of circulation. Its circulation is not half as much as its capital.

Gen. Jo. Lane has addressed a letter to the Breckinridge club of New York, about public affairs. He takes the ground that the rights of the South have been menaced and impaired, and its equality in the Territories destroyed by the same North which retains on its Statute Books nullifying ordinances. He expresses his opinion that unless these wrongs are promptly remedied, the dissolution of the Union cannot be averted. He denies the right of the Federal Government to use force; it compelling the submission of a sovereign State, when its rights have been repeatedly infringed, and equality refused to it. The Union he argues, was not formed by force, and can never be sustained by force. Secretaries Cobb, Thompson and Floyd, it is well understood, hold views identical with those of Gen. Lane.

The New Orleans Delta says that a large batch of Harper's Weekly, received by J. C. Morgan & Co., bearing the likeness of Lincoln, were returned to the consignee. The Delta regards this as a sensible act of non-intercourse which the South should appreciate.

THE POPULAR VOTE.

The following table presents a rough statement of the popular vote for President of the United States at the recent election. It is made up partly from actual returns and reported majorities in the different States:

	Anti-Repub. vote.	Repub. vote.
Alabama	90,000	—
Arkansas	40,000	—
Connecticut	33,921	42,308
Delaware	12,224	3,816
Florida	12,000	—
Georgia	100,000	—
Illinois	135,000	145,000
Indiana	140,000	150,000
Iowa	70,000	59,000
Kentucky	150,000	2,000
Louisiana	60,000	—
Maine	40,000	65,000
