Resolved, That this Committee, representing that portion of the Democratic party which sustains the Maryland Institute platform, witness with deep concern and apprehension the long predicted result of Northern sectional aggressions on the rights of the Southern States. We uniformly opposed the policy which we foresaw must produce disunion, so we are equally prompt to raise our voice against civil war. We deny that the present war is in any sense a struggle for the Union, and believe those who precipitated the war neither care for or desire a restoration. We advocate a proposition for an armistice. We are convinced that the present administration has suspended the Constitution. We are gratified that the other wing of the Democratic party has refused to cooperate with the Republicans, and we respectfully trust the other wing the right hand of fellowship, and sacrificing minor considerations, and burying past dissensions, this Committee will not call a separate Convention, but recommend those who recognize this organization to unite with the other wing in the election of delegates to the Syracuse Convention.

According to the New York Herald, John C.
Breckinridge, Ex-Governor Morehead, James B.
Clay and J. Young Brown are advertised to address a grand assemblage of the people near Har-rodsburg, Kentucky, in favor of the Southern cause.

The BRECKINRIDGE DEMOCRACY IN THE NORTH STILL TRUE.—The following resolution has been unanimously adopted by the Breckinridge State Committee, assembled at Albany, New York:

Resolved, That this Committee, representing

result of Northern sectional aggressions on the
