LOPPC-

WILLS.—Our friend, Col. Z. Morris, of this county, is our thanks for a large bunch of goose quills, the but writing instruments ever used. This present from the Morris was very acceptable just at a time when its supply of imported quills and the Yankee-manu- latured steel pens is giving out. We have never used its latter article, however, and their scarcity causes is no inconvenience.	society. That tory preacher at Beaufort deserves im- mediate attention. The people of the State will sustain the Governor if he will act vigorously, which he is now disposed and enabled to do by the formation of a num- ber of new Regiments within the past week or two. The Wilmington Journal, of Thursday, says: "We have just been shown a letter from an influen- tial gentleman in Hyde county to a commercial house here, which emphatically denies the existence there of any disloyalty to the State, or of any disposition to succumb. The writer says that on the mainland they	Campbell 2 blankets and 2 pr socks each: C L McCall I blanket 2 pr socks.
