

AN INTERESTING DIALOGUE.

Schoolmaster—Which is the hardest and longest road to travel?
Pert Boy—the "On to Richmond" road, in course.

Schoolmaster—What similarity is there in the career of Napoleon the 1st and that of Napoleon the 2d?
Pert Boy—Napoleon the 1st "skedaddled" from Russia and Napoleon the 2d ditto from Richmond.

Schoolmaster—Why doesn't the "anaconda" crush the "rebellion" in its coils?
Pert Boy—Kase he's kinder "let down in the lines" around Richmond, and his "puckerin strings" have sorter gin in about Vicksburg.

Schoolmaster—What is the reason the "wall of fire" hasn't consumed the rebellion before this?
Pert Boy—Kase it's been stopped by the Hills and Stone walls in old Virginia, an the Forrests in Tennessee.

Schoolmaster—Give me an example of the relative position of man and animals in the scale of being?
Pert Boy—White Man, Ingun, Darkey, Monkey, Dog, Hog and Butler the Best.

Schoolmaster—What do the Yankees say they are fighting for?
Pert Boy—For the Constertation and the reconstruction of the Union.

Schoolmaster—What are they fighting for?
Pert Boy—For rice, cotton, turbancker, niggers, shugar, Fort Sumter, and 11 dollars a month!

NEW MILITARY OR THE CONSCRIPTION LAW.

To this law of Congress as at first published by us, there were subsequently passed several amendments or auxiliary laws. We present the following synopsis of the law as thus modified, which we are confident will be found correct, in the hope and belief that it will prove useful in contributing to a general understanding of it.

The conscription law places in the service of the Confederate States, for three years, unless the war sooner ends, all white men between eighteen and thirty-five years of age, resident in the Confederate States, and not legally exempt from service.

The law is exempt to exemptions, but an act embracing generally those heretofore exempt, with some additions.

All twelve months' men, between the prescribed ages, are continued in service for two years from the expiration of their present term, should the war continue so long, and all those under eighteen and over thirty-five, are to be retained for ninety days after their term expires, unless their places are sooner supplied by recruits.

Persons not now in service, who shall be enrolled, shall be assigned by the Secretary of War to the different companies of the State from which such persons are drawn; and each company is filled to its complement.

Persons not liable to duty may be received as substitutes, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe.

Vacancies shall be filled by the President from the company, battalion, squadron or regiment in which such vacancies occur, by promotion according to seniority, except in case of disability or incompetency.

PROCLAMATION
By the Governor of North Carolina.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 28th, 1862.
In pursuance of the power vested in me by the Constitution, and by and with the advice of the council of State, I, Henry T. Clark, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby prohibit the exportation beyond the limits of the State, of all cotton and woolen goods, including yarns, jeans, Linseys and Blankets except through the orders of the proper officers of the Confederate or State Governments.

Executive Department of N. Carolina
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, March 28, 1862.
General Order No. 5.
All new Companies of North Carolina Volunteers must be tendered directly to the State, otherwise the bounty authorized by the ordinance of the Convention to raise North-Carolina's quota of troops, will not be paid to them, as the law does not allow it. The Companies so tendered will be organized into Regiments by the State, the commissioned officers of which elect their field officers. The bounty will be paid each Company as soon as possible after their arrival in Camp.
