Hestern

CHARLOTTE, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1866.

OFFICE WEST SIDE OF TRADE STREET

J. YATES, EDITOR AND PROPREITOR.

CHARACTER IS AS IMPORTANT TO STATES AS IT IS TO INDIVIDUALS, AND THE GLORY OF THE ONE IS THE COMMON PROPERTY OF THE OTHER

$4 Per Annum IN ADVANCE

FOURTEENTH VOLUME --- NUMBER 704.

WESTERN DEMOCRAT Published every Tuesday,

WILLIAM J. YATES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OFERMS. $4 PER ANNUM, in advance. SALEM ALMANACS for 1866.

Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance. Obituary notices are charged advertis-Advertisements not marked on the manuscript for a specific time, will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly. $1 per square of 10 lines or less will be charged for each insertion, unles the advertisement is inserted 2 months or more.

MEDICAL CARD.

DRS. GIBBON & McCOMBS, having associated themselves in the practice of Medicine and Surgery. respectfully tender their professional services to the citizens of Charlotte and surrounding country. From a large experience in private as well as Field and Hospital practice, they feel justified in proposing to pay special attention to the practice of Surgery in all its branches. Office in Granite Row, up stairs, opposite the Mansion House.

ROBERT GIBBON, M. D. J. P. McCOMBS, M. D.

FIRE, LIFE & MARINE INSURANCE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

The undersigned, representing some of the strongest New York Insurance Companies, are prepared to issue Policies for any amount desired against Loss on Land or Sea of Property or Life, in North and South Carolina. Address HUTCHISON & SPRINGS, Agents, Sept 4, 1865. Charlotte, N. C.

HUTCHISON & BROWN. ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.,

Having again associated themselves in the practice No. 23 North Water St., WILMINGTON, N. C. sifted .- Raleigh Standard. of Law, will give faithful attention to all business entrusted to them in Mccklenburg and the adjoin-

Office in the corner building formerly occupied by the late Col Wm. A. Owens, nearly opposite the Charlotte Hotel, where one or the other may always be found. December 25, 1865.

Come one, come all! come big, come small! Come young, come old! and see bargains sold, KOOPMANN & PHELPS' CELEBRATED OLD STAND.

We would respectfully call the attention of all friends and customers to the fact that we are receiving one of the largest and best assorted Stocks of Goods to be found in this place. We intend to do an exteneive CASH BUSINESS, and are determined to cell sur Goods at the very lowest prices. THE LADIES are especially invited to call and examine our Stock, consisting in part of Dry Goods

as follows: Fancy Goods, Trimmings of all kinds Blankets, Clothing and Furnishing Goods, Carpetings, Hats and Caps, Hardware and Cutlery, Boots and Shoes, Roping & Bagging, Leather.

Also a large assortment of Family Groceries.

Country Merchants who desire to purchase from a select and complete stock, are respectfully invited to inspect our goods, before purchasing elsewhere, believing it can be made to their interest to do so KOOPMANN & PHELPS. December 4, 1865.

WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS,

PATENT MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, &c Orders with remittances promptly executed at Harral, Risley & Tompkins. No. 141 Chambers Street, NEW YORK, Proprietors of Risley's Ext. Buchu, which is sold for less prices and is double the size and strength | continue their best endeavors to advance the high of any other.

Charlotte Foundry & Machine Shop. PARTICULAR NOTICE.

December 4, 1865

The public is respectfully informed that I am prepared to build and repair Steam Engines and do all kinds of Machinery work. Also, make Castings in Iron and Brass. I am well-fitted up, and guarantee work to be done as well and as cheap as at any Shop in the State.

Old castings bought or taken in exchange for J. M. HOWIE. Oct 16, 1865 Proprietor.

North Carolina Railroad. CHANGE OF TIME.

On and after Sunday, January 7th, 1866, Trains will run as follows:

		G	015	G	WEST.
		Most Train.				Tre	Freight Train.
	Leave	Goldsboro	.5	10	P M	4	15	A M
		Raleigh	29	00		0	0.0	6.0
		Hillsboro	11	48	44	12	25	P M
4			3	10	A M	- 1	49	64
	44	Salisbury	7	00	388	9	15	46
	Arrive	at Charlotte	9	50	4.6	1	00	АМ.
			111	V()	EAST.

Mail Train. 4 30 A M Leave Charlotte 3 00 P M Salisbury 12 50 P M Greensboro 10 00 " 1 20 A M 5 00 " Hillshoro 8 45 " Raleigh 12 40 A M Arrive at Goldsboro 7 45 "

Gaston Railroad trains for the North. At Golds- Of Sulphate of Lime hydrated, boro with A. & N. C. and the Wilmington & Weldon Railroads. At Greensboro with the Piedmont Rail road; and will run daily.

Mail Train connects at Raleigh with Raleigh &

Freight Train has a Passenger Car attached for the accommodation of passengers, and runs daily, E. WILKES, January 15, 1866 Eng. and Sup't.

EDWARD J. HALE, Jr., of Fayetteville, N. C.,

ROMME, DUNKLE, JOHNSTON & CO.,

370 BROADWAY, NEW YORK. Wholesale Dealers in Hats, Caps, Straw Goods, Furs, Parasols, &c.

Jan 8, 1866

NEW BOOK STORE. (Between the two Drug Stores,)

CHARLOTTE, N. C. Webster's Spelling Books, only $2 a dozen ! Timbrels of Zion; Presbyterian Psalmodist: Baptist Psalmody, (Hymn Book.) Presbyterian Hymn Books; Bibles, and a great variety of Books and Stationery, for Jan 15, 1866

GROCERIES.

J. M. SANDERS & CO.,

(At the Stand formerly occupied by Elias & Cohen as Grocery Store, 2d door from Democrat Office,) AVE just received a large and well-selected

GROCERIES. consisting principally of Sugar, Coffee, Molasses, Liverpool Salt, Bagging and Rope, Mackerel in kits, barrels and half-barrels, Cheese, Ginger. Spice, candies, Raisins, Pickles, Sauces, Pepper, A fine article of white-wine Vinegar, Crockery, Hardware and Cutlery,

GLASS-WARE,

ALSO, a fine stock of

PORTER, ALE, &c. Having bought their stock in the Northern markets for cash, they are prepared to sell on moderate terms for CASH at wholesale and retail. The attention of country merchants is respectfully invited to this stock of Groceries.

J. M. SANDERS, M. B. TAYLOR,

J. J. BLACKWOOD. Charlotte, Oct. 2, 1865.

PETER MALLETT,

Consignments of Cotton, Naval Stores, Lumber and other Produce for Sale or Shipping, respectfully selicited. Liberal advances made when desired. Orders accompanied with Cash promptly mington, at auction, at $40 per share. Nov 27, 1865.

Charlotte Female Institute. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

JOHN B. BURWELL, A. M., PRINCIPALS. The next Session will commence on Monday the 15th of January, and continue 24 weeks to 30th of her father, two daughters of Mr John Bivens, age of the bill as reported.

Half in Advance .

Board, including every expense except Washing and Lights, Tuition in English,

These terms, in proportion to length of Session, same as before the war, adding on discount of cur- of the young gentlemen, in the company, began Martin, and was in favor of giving the widow rency. The Department of Music, Vocal and Instrumental, will continue under the direction of Prof. A. Baumann. The Department of Modern as he reached the side of Miss W's. horse, the children, and if he were Caiph of Bagdad such College, Switzerland.

terms, &c, address REV. R. BURWELL & SON.

Charlotte, N. C. Jan 8, 1866. $2 \mathrm{m}$

For Sale,

A superior toned CHURCH BELL, with iron frame Inquire at this Office. November 27, 1865

E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime, BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

Being made of the best material and in the most approved manner, it is recommended, to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will eputation which it has acquired. We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it which they will sell at low figures for Cash, or exnearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although | change for Country Produce of all kinds. furnished at half the price.

Messrs R II Allen & Co, the well known manufacurers of agricultural implements, say of it: "We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime for four years. It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured. "We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each | Prompt personal attention given to sale of Cotton, year since its introduction in this market, and that t will continue to maintain its present high stand-

"Very respectfully, "R. H. ALLEN & CO., "No. 191 Water street, New York."

E. FRANK COE, Esq., Annexed please find result of my analysis of sample of your Super-Phosphate of Lime left with me. This being such a superior article in every respect, I cannot refrain from congratulating you upon such manufacture, which undoubtedly will meet with great success.

Wishing you every success, I am, Respectfully yours, Baltimore, Aug. 3, 1864. Freight Train. Of Free Phosphoric Acid Hyd. containing of Anhydrous Phosphoric Acid. Of Bi-Phosphate of Lime, containing of Anhydrous Phosphoric Acid, Of Neutral Phosphate of Lime, containing of Anhydrous Phosphorié Acid. containing of Sulphuric Acid (Soz.) 21.20

Of Alkaline Salts as Sulphates. Of Organic Combustible Matter, capable of producing Ammonia, Of Animal Coal and Sand, Phosphoric Acid soluble in Water. 11.15 Phosphoric Acid insoluble in Water, 4.36 Ammonia, ANUFACTURED BY ENOCH COE, Hunter's Point L. I.

The undersigned have been appointed Agents for the State of North Carolina, and will supply this superior fertilizer at manufacturers' prices. l'ut up in barrels of about 300 pounds weight.

700 Barrels now in Store, and for sale by O. G. PARSLEY & CO.

Wilmington, N C.

Che Western Democrat. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

STATE ITEMS.

Molasses .- The arrival of the brig Benj. Carver, with a large cargo of Cardenas molasses, sale on reasonable terms. Also, a large quantity of for Messrs. O. G. Parsley & Co., is an evidence of returning commercial vigor that is most gratifying to the denizens of our city.

Messrs. Parsley & Co. are displaying a most commendable degree of energy in their efforts to inaugurate and keep alive a direct frade with foreign countries, in which we wish them unbounded success. This is the proper course to sembly of the Presbyterian Church in the Unipursue, if we wish to build up a permanent ted States of America." Placed on calendar. commercial prosperity .- Wilmington Dispatch.

The British Barque Cumberland, consigned to Messrs. O. G. Parsley & Co, sailed from this port on Wednesday last, direct for Liverpool, with the following cargo: 141 bales cotton, 58 sonal estate as in cases of intestacy.) barrels spirits turpentine, 39 barrels pitch, 2,379 barrels rosin, 300 barrels tar, and 9 boxes tobacco. The freight on the above articles ing law, especially as the alteration proposed amounting to £950 sterling, or about $4,700 in would operate to the prejudice of children by gold .- Wilmington Journal.

Iron, Nails, and everything generally found in feelings we announce the death of one of the nett had misapprehended the scope and object best and most gifted of this community. Rev. of the bill. The existing laws in cases of in-H. C. Parsons departed this life at his residence testacy, gave to the widow when there was but Medicinal Liquors, in this town on Monday last, just at sunset. one child one half of the personal estate, but in He was a member of the South Carolina Confercases of a dissent from a will, when there is but ence, and one of the most eloquent of that gift- one child, the law allows her but one third of ed body of ministers .- Wadesboro Argus.

route, Assistant Quartermaster at this post, was the widow's prejudice. placed under arrest on Saturday morning, on a Mr Hoke opposed the change contemplated charge of malfeasance in office. His Chief in the bill. The provision allowing the wife Clerk, Lieut. Montgomery, is, we understand, but one third of the personalty when she disalso under arrest, as connected with the charges sents from the will, was in his opinion, just and against Captain Garoute. We are not informed reasonable. Some respect was due to the hus-General Commission and Shipping as to particulars, but an investigation has been band's wishes. ordered, and the charges will be thoroughly of Miss Maggie White, daughter of Col. Joseph was in favor of giving her the whole of it. which is now 24 instead of 20 weeks long, are the and would not keep up with the others. One made. He concurred with the gentleman from to switch him, when he took off in a lope, and the whole of the personalty when there were no coming in contact with a tree, the skull was also thrown near the same place, and received senting class any way, and the tendency of the some hurts but none very serious.

Eight shares of Wilmington and Weldon Railroad stock were recently sold at Wil-

Miss W. was a young lady highly esteemed for fill the Court House with caveats. her intelligence and amnable qualities, and her unfortunate death has cast a gloom over a wide circle of relatives, friends and acquaintances. - | thought at first that the bill would work injury Wadesboro Argus.

NEW STORE AND NEW FIRM TAYLOR, McLAUGHLIN & CO.,

Having formed a Copartnership, respectfully inform the public that they have opened a Store in Bryce's building, a few doors below the Mansion House corner, where they keep on hand a good assortment | McCulloch, which nac in hostility to granting

GROCERIES,

TAYLOR & DUNCAN, J. McLAUGHLIN, C. H. ELMS.

GEO. M. DEWEY.

Jan 22, 1866 B. G. WORTH. DIBBLE, WORTH & CO.,

Commission Merchants. 113 MAIDEN LANE, NEW YORK. Naval Stores, and country Produce generally.

January 29, 1866. PIONEER LINE OF STEAMERS,

Boston, via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal. The commonious Steamers

PIONEER AND COMMODORE ADAMS,

Will leave New Berne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock, A. M. connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named 10.28 week, making semi-weekly trips. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodato forward goods to this line at low rates and with-without change. The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families travelof a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel. On the 15th c. December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be

For freight or passage apply to WHITFORD, DILL & CO., New Berne, N. C. DAVID WILLIAMS, Proprietor. November 27, 1865.

N. C. LEGISLATURE.

Saturday, Feb. 3d. SENATE .- On motion of Mr McEachern, the bill authorizing a court of Pleas to be held mending that it do not pass.

A bill to amend the 12th section of the 118th chapter Revised Code, was put on its second reading. (Provides that widows dissenting from their husbands' wills, may take of his per-

Mr McKay opposed the passage of the bill He saw no good reason for changing the existgiving the widow an undue proportion of the personal estate. DEATH OF A MINISTER. - With sorrowful Mr Manly said that the gentleman from Har-

Mr Smith, of Hertford, thought that as long as the law allowed widows to dissent from their husband's will full legal effect should be given her. He hoped the bill would pass.

Mr Jenkins, of Warren, was not only in DISTRESSING ACCIDENT .- It becomes our favor of the bill, but when the husband dies inpainful duty to chronicle the accidental death testate, if the property came by the wife, he White, on Sunday the 28th ult., near her fath- Mr Moore, of Martin, thought that when the er's residence, in the neighborhood of White's widow dissents from the will, such dissent Store, in this county, and about thirteen miles should have the effect of creating a virtual in-from this town. Miss White, in company with testacy as to her. He was in favor of the passand several young gentlemen, one of them an | Mr Cameron, said the effect of the bill was to Terms per Session of 24 Weeks, Layable in Currency, ex-Confederate soldier, a stranger in the coun- give the wife one half of the personalty in cases ty, who was stopping at the Colonel's house, of intestacy, instead of one-third when there is whose horse Miss W. was riding, was on that but one child. No change was contemplated $25 and 30 00 day returning from Church. It seems that the when there is more than one child. It was horse of one of the Miss Bivens was very lazy, eminently proper that this change should be

Languages, Drawing and Painting will be under the latter took off at a very rapid rate, apparently at decree should issue immediately. (Laughter.) direction of Prof. Wm. Benziger, Graduate of Geneva a "run-a-way," the horses of the Miss Bivens in Mr McKay again addressed the House, in opcompany. When near her father's place Miss position to the bill. He thought it would en-For Catalogue containing full particulars as to White was thrown from her seat, and her head courage dissents from wills and consequent litigation, prejudicial alike to the widow and the fractured and her neck broken, death resulting | children, as the costs would speedily absorb the almost instantly. One of the Miss Bivens was | personalty in question. The women were a dis-

> Mr Hoke, asked leave after hearing the discussion, to take. "the back track." He had to orphans. If it applied only to cases where there was but one child, he should withdraw his objection and accord it his support. The bill passed its second and then its third reading under a suspension of the rules. REPUDIATING THE FLAG.—The House of Representatives has adopted the views of Mr the privileges of national registry to American vessels which, during the Rebellion, were sold to foreign owners, or adopted a foreign flag .-The argument is, that the owners of those vessels, having deliberately repudiated the protection of the country during time of war, should not be allowed to return to that protection in time of peace. By their action they escaped the risks which those shipping merchants dared who would not "give up the ship." The latter flew their flag, and were not intimidated by Rebel privateers. They paid for their patriotism also in heavy premiums on insurance, which their more crafty colleagues escaped by their subterfuge. The latter knew that the laws of date of the 2d inst, writes as follows : their country denationalized these vessels, and reflection. On the other hand, it is urged that tion for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies. Hon. W. W. Boyce, of South Carolina, (who ments have been made with the different companies has removed to Washington City) in addressing out delay. Each of these steamers are capable of a farewell letter to his constituents, says: Lookcarrying two hundred and fifty tons of Freight ing to the great future, I should say the first through the canal without difficulty, as they were thing for the South is white immigration; the built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up second thing is white immigration; the third with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of acthing is white immigration. You should do commodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who everything in your power to invite a white popwill not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer ulation, both by your legislation and favorable to other vessels, but will be taken through direct public sentiments. Receive immigrants from Europe and the United States with open arms. The danger in the future is in a collision of ing will find it to their interest to take this line, as races; your safety is in the closest sympathy they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort with your own race in the United States. You nced the friendship of the American people; take every step to obtain it.

> A Washington letter says: In due time Congressmen will ascertain that they cannot denounce the President and his policy at the Capitol, and then come to the White House to ask and receive good places for their friends.

THE LADY AND THE ROBBER.

In a large lone house, situated in the south of in Cabarrus county, was taken up, the rules human habitations, but they seem to have felt spirits are cheerful, and he has great interest in were suspended, and the bill passed its several no fear, and to have dwelt there peacefully and the prosperity of the Church, which he so ar-Mr Winstead from the Committee on Propo- the house with her maids every evening to see Conference, and was present two or three days sitions and Grievances to whom was referred that all the windows and doors were properly during the session. It is worth a pilgrimage to the bill relative to building a Penitentiary and secured. One night she had accompanied them spend a few hours with this good and great man, work houses, reported back the same recom- as usual, and ascertained that all was safe. - who is ripe for the kingdom, and only waiting House .- Mr Hutchison introduced "a bill and then went to their own, which was quite at The Bishop's postoffice is Nashville. to incorporate the Trustees of the General As- the other side of the house. As the lady opened her door she distinctly saw a man underneath her bed. What could she do? Her servants "three-score years and ten," and yet he retains were far away and could not hear if she screamed for help, and even if they had come to her assistance those three weak women were no match for a desperate housebreaker. How then did she act? She trusted in God. Quietly she closed the door, and locked it on the inside, which she was always in the habit of doing -She then leisurely brushed her hair, and putting on her dressing gown, she took her Bible, and sat down and read. She read aloud, and chose a chapter which had peculior reference to God's watchfulness over us, and constant care of us by night and by day. When it was finished she knelt and prayed at great length, still uttering her words aloud, especially commending herself and servants to God's protection, and dwelling upon their atter helplessness and dependence upon him to preserve her from all dangers. At the personalty. He saw no good reason for last she arose from her knees, put out her can-ARRESTED .- - We learn that Capt. A. M. Ga- making a distinction between the two cases to dle, and lay down in bed, but she did not sleep. After a few minutes had elapsed, she was conscious the man was standing by her bedside .-He addressed her and begged her not to be alarmed. "I came here," said he, "to rob you, but after the words you have read, and the prayer you have uttered, no pawer on earth could induce me to hurt you, or to touch a thing in | sides near Culverton, Hancock County, Georgia. your house. But you must remain perfectly quiet, and not attempt to interfere with me. I shall now give a signal to my companions, which Dr. Lovick Pierce, is known throughout the to such dissent by creating an intestacy as to they will understand, they will go away, and whole country as a minister of rare powers and you may sleep in peace, for I give you my sol- great strength. Now far advanced in years, he emn word that no one shall harm you, and not is able to deliver two or three sermons on the the smallest thing belonging to you shall be dis- Sabbath, and oftentimes during the week. The turbed." He then went to the window, opened | Bishop's uncle, the late Rev. Reddick Pierce, it, and whistled softly-returning to the lady's | was in his day regarded by many as superior to side (who had not spoken or moved) he said. his brother. He was a giant, having few equals, "Now I am going. Your prayer has been heard | and perhaps no superiors, in the pulpit. The and no disaster will befall you." He left the Bishop, too, has two brothers belonging to the room and soon all was quiet, and the lady fell Georgia Conference, and a brother-in-law, Rev. asleep, still upheld by that calm and beautiful faith and trust. When the morning dawned, she awoke, we may feel sure that she poured great modesty commend him to his brethren out her thanksgivings and praises to Him who everywhere. had defended her "under his wings." and "kept' her "safe under his feathers," so that she was sailles, Ky. He was ordained also in 1854,- > are possible? - Monthly Packet for October. termined to murder her; so that it really was | uel's land."-Charleston Record. God's good guidance that told her to fellow the course she did. Then, before he went away, he said, "I never heard such words before; I must have the book you read out of," and carried off her Bible, willingly enough given, you may be sure. This happened many years ugo, and only comparatively recently, did the Lady hear any more of him. She was attending a religious meeting in Yorkshire, where after several noted clergy and others had spoken, a man arose, stating that he was employed as one of the bookhawkers of the Society, and told the story of the midnight adventure as a testimony, to the wonderful power of the word of God. He concluded with "I was the man." The lady arose from her seat in the hall, and said quietly, "It is all quite true; I was the lady," and sat down again.

BO A Washington correspondent, under what they did could not have been for want of diana, made an eloquent and able speech in op- civil justice." The shameful petti-coat story For Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and the United States Government, having failed gross in all the States the civil rights and privi- Mr Davis is at present in good health, eats hearto protect American commerce, was in fault, leges that are enjoyed by white citizens. In tily, reads a good deal and possesses, as he said and drove ship owners into the course which the course of his remarks he expressed the hope the other day, "a good digestion and a good conwas adopted by such of them as registered their that the day would never again dawn upon the science." He receives letters from his wife vessels as Dutch or French. They had either country when citizens could be dragged from three times a week - Washington Cor. Nashto submit to the risk of loss or indulge in strat- their beds at midnight, hurried by an armed ville Banner. egy. The arguments seem to be very fairly guard to a distant city, incarcerated in a dunpoints. On and after the first day of December balanced, but the lower House of Congress has geon for months, and denied the right of habeas next they will leave on Tuesday and Friday of each adopted the views of Mr McCulloch .- Phila-corpus. He hoped the day would never again in England up to the 30th ultime show a large dawn when the stealthy tread of the spy and the increase in cases, amounting in the last week of future the shield of the Constitution would protect every citizen in his rights, and this without digious amount of uneasiness, as is very natural, the aid of the military. Senator Lane, also of considering the losses it involves. Indiana, in support of the bill, frankly admitted in substance that it was the object of the bill to override all State laws and to compel the States to act in conformity with its provisions"

> THE END .- The Rev. Dr. Cumming, of London, is still preaching his favorite theme of the second advent, and in a recent discourse placed the time in the year 1867, at the autumnal equinox. An American gentleman who heard him writes to one of our religious papers that he "cited a large number of authorities, which seemed to confirm his view." There is one "authority" which the preacher evidently forgot: "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not even the angels which are in wait, but I'll come for you." The gentleman heaven."-Mark xiii, 32.

METHODIST BISHOPS.

The venerable senior Bishop Soule, now near-England, there once lived a lady and her two ly eighty-five years of age, resides in the vicinimaid servants. They were far away from all ty of Nashville. His health is feeble, yet his happily. It was the lady's custom to go around dently loves. He visited the late Tennessee They left her in the passage close to her room, the call of the Master to "come up higher."-

> BISHOP ANDREW-Postoffice, Summerfield, considerable physical vigor and a mind unimpaired. The last we heard of him he was in Texas, conducting the deliberations of an Annual Conference. At our last interview, which was nearly a year since, we were much impressed by his sweetness of temper and childlike simplicity of manners. He is the senior acting Bishop of our Church, and has been in office since the year 1832. The, first Conference in which he presided was the Tennessee, which held its session that year in this city.

BISHOP PAINE resides at Aberdeen, Miss .-He was elected Bishop in 1846, and has the love and respect of the whole Church. A man of learning and piety. He is over sixty years of age, but has a fine constitution, and we hope will be able for many years to do effectual service. He is a superior chairman. The Bishop, during the past fall, had a severe attack of sickness on his way to the Mississippi Conference. He has, however, recovered, and at our last information was presiding at the Mobile Conference. May his useful life be spared to the Church!

BISHOP PIERCE is a native Georgian, and re-He is about fifty-five or fifty-six years of age. He belongs to a preaching family. His father, Dr. Mann. Bishop Pierce was ordained in 1854. His pulpit abilities, amiable disposition and

BISHOP KAVANAUGH-His home is Vernot 'afraid of any terror by night. The man | He is the senior of Bishop Pierce in years, but proved true to his word, and not a thing in the is a man of great physical powers, and capable house had been taken. O! shall we not hope of much endurance. He, too, is of the family that his heart was changed from that day forth, of the Levites. His grandfather, Dr. Hines, and that he forsook his evil courses, and cried was a minister, and he has several brothers and to that Saviour "who came to seek and to save nephews in the ministry. Bishop Kavanaugh that which was lost," and even on the cross did is a prince in the pulpit and in the chair, and in not reject the penitent thief? From this true private life an amiable Christian gentleman. In story let us learn to put our whole trust and labors he is abundant, and loved and admired confidence in God. This lady's courage was in- by all who know him.

deed wonderful; but "the Lord was her defense BISHOP EARLY, Lynchburg, Va.-Ordained upon her right hand," and "with Him all things in 1854 .- He is a Virginia gentleman of the old school He is known and respected through-We have received an extract from a letter out his native State, where he has labored as a fully corroborating the remarkable anecdote of minister from his youth. He is a remarkable "The Lady and the Robber" in our October man. Now far advanced in years, he displays number, and adding some facts that enhanced great energy, and bids fair to "cease at once to the wonder and mercy of her escape. We quote work and live." He has in the last few years the words of the letter: "In the first place the passed through several severe attacks of sickrobber told her, that if she had given the slight- ness, but still he rallies, and is off at once in est alarm or token of resistance, he was fully de- the field laboring and toiling to cultivate "Eman-

JEFFERSON . DAVIS .- Strange Rumors --What he says and does - The rumors of the rescue of Jefferson Davis from prison are assuming a new and strange character. It is now hinted that the authorities desire his escape; and that facilities have been offered him, but that he won't go. There is little room to doubt the awkward embarrassment attendant upon his confinement and expected trial. Chief-Justice Chase does not hesitate to say that he can not be convicted of treason, and Thadeus Stevens declares that he is nothing more than a foreign leader, about as much amenable to the laws of the United States as Maximilian. I have it from the best authority-from authority which you cannot question-that Mr Davis feels the most ample security. He said less than a week ago: "My defense is complete now, and rests solely upon the law, which will be administered "In the Senate, to-day, Mr Hendricks of In- fairly, I know, and in perfect accordance with position to Mr Trumbull's bill securing to ne- will be put to the blush when that time arrives.

THE CATTLE DISEASE .- The official returns

The large mortality in this malady is giving the stock raisers of the United Kingdoms a pro-

The recent importation of hides stripped from diseased animals is a warning to us, which we are glad to know the Secretary of the Treasury has not been slow to act upon. In this connection we take occasion to renew our suggestion that a full publication of the nature and treatment of the disease be made by "authority," so that the farming interest of the country may be prepared for the appearance of the disease, should it, as seems likely, reach this country.

"If I am not at home from the party to night at ten o'clock," said a husband to his better and bigger balf, "don't wait for me." "That I won't," replied the lady, significantly. "I won't returned at ten o'clock precisely.