HOME AND FRIENDS. Oh! there's a power to make each hour As sweet as heaven designed it; Nor need we roam to bring it home, Though few there be that find it. We seek too high for things close by, And lose what nature gave us;

For life hath here no charms so dear,

As home and friends around us.

We oft destroy the present joy, And future hopes, nor praise them, While flows as sweet bloom at our feet, If we'd but stoop to raise them. For things so fair still greater are When youth's bright spell hath bound us;

But soon we're taught that earth has naught Like home and friends around us. But friends that speed in time of need,

When hope's last reed is shaken, Do show us still that, come what will, We are not quite forsaken. Though all were night, if but the light From friendship's altar crowned us, 'Twould prove the bliss of earth was this-Our home and friends bround us.

An Every Day Occurrence. She falls in love with a fellow, Who sports a foreign air; .He marries her for her money, · She marries him for his hair.

One of the very best matches, Both are well matched in life -She's got a fool for a husband-He's got a fool for a wife.
