THERE IS NO DEATH. There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore; And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown

They shine ferever more. There is no death! The dust we tread Shall change beneath the summer showers Cambries, Organdies, &c., To golden rain or mellow fruit, Or rainbow tinted flowers.

The granite rocks disorganize To feed the hungty moss they bear; The forest leaves drink daily life From out the viewless zir.

There is no death! The leaves may fall, The flowers may fall and fade away -They only wait, through wintry hours, The coming of the May.

There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread; He bears our best loved things away, .. And then we call them "dead."

He leaves our hearts all desolate-He plucks our fairest; sweetest flowers; Transplanted into bliss, they now Adorn immortal bowers.

Born into that undying life, They leave us but to come again; With joy we welcome them-the same, Except in sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen, The dear immortal spirit tread; For all the boundless universe Is life-there is no death!
