It will be remembered that the cavalry are frequently assigned to the duty of picking up stragglers, and hence there is no good feeling between the infantry and cavalry. As they approached Sergeant -----, the foremost one, asked: "What are you doing here, sir, away from your command.

"That's none of your business," answered the Sergeant.

"You are a straggler, sir, and deserve the severest punishment."

"It's a lie, sir-I am not a straggler-I only left my regiment a few moments ago, to hunt me a pair of shoes. I went all through the fight yesterday, and that's more than you can say-for where were you yesterday when Gen. Stuart wanted your cavalry to charge the Yankees after we put 'em running?
