County Officers.

The following Bill has passed the Senate, and is now before the House. We presume there is no doubt about its becoming a law:

An Act to Provide for the Qualification of Certain Officers Recently Elected under the Provisions of the Constitution of North Carolina.

Section 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact. That it shall be the cluty of the County Commissioners elect, in each County respectively, to meet immediately and designate one of their number, who shall at once go before a Judge of the Supreme or Superior Court, United States Commissioner, or any other officer of the United States authorized to administer an oath, and be qualified by taking the oath prescribed in section four, article six of the Constitution of this State, and the County Commissioner thus qualified, shall forthwith proceed to qualify in like manner the other four Commissioners elect. Sec. 2. That the Board of County Commissioners being thus constituted, shall, without delay, proceed to qualify in like manner as aforesaid, each and all the County officers, elected or appointed, including Justices of the Peace and Constables, and shall take the bonds required by law, as specified in the Revised Code for the due discharge of their duties, from such of these officers as are or may be required by law to give such bonds, and shall cause the said bonds to be recorded by the Register of Deeds in a separate book to be known as the Registry of Official Bonds, and the original of said bonds shall also be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court, except the bond of said Clerk of the Superior Court, which shall be filed in the office of the Register of Deeds, and no officer shall be surety on any bond required to be filed in his office: Provided. The Sheriff shall execute three several bonds payable to the State of North Carolina; one in the sum of twice the amount of the County and poor taxes for the preceeding year, conditioned for the collection, payment and settlement of the county and poor taxes as required by law; one in the sum of twice the amount of the public taxes paid by the County for the preceeding year, conditioned for the collection, payment and settle ment of the public taxes as required by law; and the third in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned is elected and appointed Sheriff of - County, if therefore, he shall well and truly execute and due return make of all process and precepts to him
