

Never Satisfied.

A man in his carriage was riding along,
A gaily dressed wife by his side;
In satin and lace she looked like a queen,
And he like a king in his pride.

A wood sawyer stood on the street as he passed,
The carriage—the couple he eyed.
And said, as he worked with his saw on a log,
I wish I was rich and could ride.

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife,
One thing I would if I could,
I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health,
Of the man who is sawing the wood.

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work,
Whose face, as the morning, was fair,
Went tripping along with a smile of delight,
While humming a love-breathing air.

She looked in the carriage—the lady she saw,
Arrayed in apparel so fine,
And said, in a whisper, I wish in my heart,
Those satins and laces were mine.

The lady looked out on the maid with her work,
So fair in her calico dress,
And said, I'd relinquish position and wealth,
Her beauty and youth to possess.

Thus it is in this world; whatever our lot,
Our mind and time we employ
In longing and sighing for what we have not,
Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

SOUTHERN ENTERPRISE—The Philadelphia Inquirer advises Northern capitalists and manufacturers not to delude themselves with the belief that the South of 1863 is the South of 1860, or that section will consent to longer be dependent upon the North for supplies of certain goods. Affairs have been reversed. The popular errors concerning the ability of the South to become her own manufacturer are daily being exploded by actual results. And we must not forget that a large amount of Northern skill and enterprise has been transplanted to the Southern field in the natural course of events. The time is not far distant when the hum of a new industry will be heard below Mason and Dixon's line—when that section will make its own boots, shoes, cotton fabrics, machinery and other articles long purchased in Northern factories.

A CARD.
I would respectfully inform my numerous friends in this section of the State, and the adjoining Districts of South Carolina, that the end for which my Physician recommended my engaging in some active pursuit for the restoration of my health, broken down in the active duties of the Gospel Ministry, having been sufficiently restored to enable me early return to that work, I have now determined to close out my entire stock of Goods by the 1st of January ensuing. At that time I expect, Providence permitting, to resume my ministerial labors; and in order to enable me to do so, my friends can aid me by calling and purchasing my stock, which I guarantee to sell them at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. Those who know me need not be informed that this is no advertising dodge to procure trade, but a plain statement of facts. The public who may favor me with a call, as well as the interests of the Church of which I am a Minister, will, it is to be hoped, be benefited by aiding me in so laudable a purpose.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY!
Dr. Byrn's Magic Pain Cure.
This is a new and wonderful Medicine. It is used for the various forms of Headache, which, in ordinary cases, it cures in a very short time; also, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Cold in the Head, and Weakness of the Nerves, is speedily brought under its influence. Ordinary or mild cases of Catarrh in the Head, can also be checked by its use, and prevented from going further, which is of great importance, and even cases of long standing can be cured by persevering in the use of the medicine. It is perfectly harmless, and is warranted to give satisfaction.

People often express wonder and astonishment to find themselves so suddenly relieved from all pain; yet the remedy contains no Opium, no Chloroform, no Ether, nor any thing of a narcotic nature. It is prepared from roots, bark, leaves, gums and flowers, and is absolutely harmless, even for an infant. This remedy is a nerve, and is used as a liquid, and this is one reason why it cures so quickly. There are no diseases more common than those for which it is recommended. Millions of suffering mortals would be willing to pay almost any price to secure a few hours relief and rest, if they knew of a remedy that would give immediate ease. Then by all means be cured permanently by using the Magic Pain Cure.

Price 50 cents.
