A NEW FORM OF SLAVERY .- In many respects the negro is as much a slave to-day as he was six years ago. Nine-tenths of them are eurolled in the Loyal Leagues, and are bound by oaths to obey their superiors and masters. They move like sheep, and dare not disobey, under peril of persecution in their business, social ostracism, and personal violence, even to the taking of life. The few negroes who some years ago in Virginia undertook to act independently and most slavish despotism erected over the African. The only difference is that he has changed his master.
