North Carolina News Items.

THE DEAD CHANG AND ENG.—The surgeons from Philadelphia, who went to make an autopsy of the Siamese twins, returned on Wednesday morning to Greensboro, bringing with them the bodies, which will be conveyed to Philadelphia, where the intended operation will be performed.

WE regret exceedingly to hear of the declining health of Hon. A. W. Venable of Oxford. When he shall have passed beyond the flood, one of the most gifted men we have ever known will be lost to the State and the country.—Raleigh Sentinel.

ARREST OF ILLICIT DISTILLERS.—A small force of deputy marshals, accompanied by U. S. Commissioner W. S. Ball, of Greensboro, made a tour in Yadkin county and arrested nine men against whom warrants had been sworn out, on the charge of illicit distillation of spirits.

There is on Roanoke Island, N. C., a grapevine called the "Scuppernon" by some "the Lord Raleigh vine"—which was growing when Sir Walter landed on that island, in 1610. It was then three inches in diameter, and was then spoken of as the largest grapevine in the world.

The National Hotel was closed on yesterday—Major Blair relinquishing the proprietorship. Col. C. S. Brown of Salisbury, it is stated is negotiating to rent the same, and its closing will only be temporary.—Raleigh Examiner.

Gov. Vance is advertised to deliver a lecture at Masonic Temple in Baltimore on the 13th inst.—subject "The Scattered Nations."

South Carolina Items.

Hon. F. J. Moses, Sr., has been re-elected Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of South Carolina without opposition, for another term of six years, from August, 1874.

Col. Benjamin F. Evans of Charleston, S. C., whose death was recently announced, was well known in the South during the war, as the printer of all the paper money issued by the Confederacy.

DEATH OF GEN. J. W. MILLER.—Seldom has our community ever received a greater shock than when the sad news was received of J. W. Miller being found dead last Monday morning at his residence nine miles from Spartanburg.

Patronize Home Enterprise. No man can serve God and Mammon. No more can a resident of the west or south advance the business interests of his neighborhood, and thus his own prosperity, by patronizing strangers.

A Warning. A sad story of a woman of waywardness. The Chicago Times tells the story of a beautiful and accomplished daughter of a prominent financier of Cincinnati, who, two years ago, graduated at a fashionable boarding school in Philadelphia.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE has declared that women had no right to fill offices, and in Massachusetts the Boston School Committee declared by a vote of 46 to 45 that the seats of the women vacant, had been elected members were vacant.

AN exchange says that Mayor Hall, of New York, has five daughters and one son, all of whom are learning some trade or profession. The Mayor has much of this world's goods, but he does not know how soon the wheel of fortune may turn, so he is preparing his children for any emergency.

Encouraging Prospects.

We learn that orders have been received from the stockholders in New York to press forward the completion of the Carolina Central Railway to Charlotte as rapidly as possible, with as many hands as can be worked to advantage all along the line.

When the road is completed through to Charlotte there will be a continuous line from Wilmington to Lincolnton, and the intention is to then build up the short distance intervening between Lincolnton and Hickory Tavern.

Daring Robbery on a Missouri Railroad. Sr. Louis, Feb. 1.—As the train on the Iron Mountain Railroad which left here at 9:45 this morning came in sight of Gold Hill station, 120 miles below this city, a switch was turned and the train ran on a side track.
