Charlotte

W. J. VATES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Terms of Subscription-$2 50, in advance.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., OCTOBER 19, 1874.

TWENTY-THIRD VOLUME----NUMBER 1146.

THE Charlotte Democrat, PUBLISHED BY

WILLIAM J. YATES, Editor and Proprietor. TERMS-Two Dollars and Fifty Cents per annum, One Dollar and Fifty Cents for six months. Subscriptions must be paid in advance.

Advertisements will be inserted at reasonable rates, or in accordance with contract. Obituary notices of over five lines in length will oe charged for at advertising rates.

Dr. JOHN H. McADEN, Wholesale and Retail Druggist.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Has on hand a large and well selected stock of PURE DRUGS, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Family Medicines, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Dye Stuffs, Fancy and Toilet Articles, which he is determined to sell at the very lowest prices. Jan 1, 1874.

J. P. McCombs, M. D., offers his professional services to the citizens of Charlotte and surrounding country. All calls, both night and day, promptly attended to.

Office in Brown's building, up stairs, opposite the Charlotte Hotel. ROBERT GIBBON, M. D.,

Physician and Surgeon, CHARLOTTE, N. C. Brick Office corner of 5th and Tryon Streets. Residence on College Street. March 11, 1873.

> Alexander & Bland, DENTISTS.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. Office in Brown's Building, opposite the Charlotte

August 4, 1873. ISAIAH SIMPSON. W. H. HOFFMAN.

HOFFMAN & SIMPSON, Dentists,

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Respectfully inform the citizens of Charlotte and the public, that they have associated themselves together in the practice of Dentistry. Their aim will be to perform all operations relating to the profession in the most skillful manner and highest degree of excellence. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas. Satisfaction guaranteed. Office on Trade Street, in A. R. Nesbit & Rro's Jan. 15, 1873.

STENHOUSE, MACAULAY & CO, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Consignments of Cotton solicited, on which we will make liberal advances to be sold here, or if shippers desire will ship to our friends at New York or Liverpool direct. Commissions and storage on

CENTRAL HOTEL, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

This well-known House having been newly furished and refitted in every department, is now open or the accommodation of the Traveling public. Omnibuses at the Depot on arrival of Trains.

Jan. 1, 1873.

W. F. COOK,

H. C. ECCLES

Trade Street, on North Carolina Railroad Charlotte, N. C., Manufacturer of CIDER MILLS and all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS. ( All orders promptly attended to.

R. M. MILLER & SONS ACENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED PREMIUM Milburn Wagon.

A LARGE LOT NOW ON HAND.

For durability and style of finish unexcelled. Call and see them at our Ware Rooms, corner of College and 4th Streets, 2d story.

NOTICE.

Having sold out our entire stock of Groceries to Mr. R. B. Alexander, who will continue the business at our New Store, we respectfully commend him to the favorable consideration of our friends GRIER & ALEXANDER.

We will in future confine ourselves to a GENER AL COMMISSION BUSINESS, to the purchase and sale of Cotton and other country produce, to the wholesale and retail Liquor, Tobacco and Power business. Storage furnished on accommodating

We would respectfully solicit a share of the pub-GRIER & ALEXANDER. c patronage. tf

F. SCARR, Chemist and Druggist, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Prescriptions prepared at all hours of the Day and Night.

keeps constantly on hand all kinds of Drugs, Medines, Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Spices, Green and Black Tea, &c., &c. June 9, 1873.

SANDERS & BLACKWOOD,

COTTON BUYERS -AND-

Commission Merchants,

CHARLOTTE, N. C. New Arrow Ties on consignment at Wilmingon and Charleston card prices. We are State Agents for the celebrated

Winship Gin-House Outfit,

Omplete or any part). All orders receive prompt L. W. SANDERS, W. C. BLACKWOOD. Aug. 31, 1874.

D. M. RIGLER, No. 5, Granite Row.

A lot of very fine CRACKERS of all kinds for amily use-fresh and good. Fresh Bread, Cakes and Pies every day. PICKELS by the dozen or gallon-very fine. A full line of CONFECTIONERIES, just re-

Feb. 3 1874

D. M. RIGLER'S.

REMEDY FOR DIPTHERIA.—The following is said to be a thoroughly tested and effectual remedy for diptheria or sore throat. Gargle or wash the inside of the throat frequently with a teaspoonful of tincture of black cohosh, diluted with a little water. Commence using it on the first symptoms of soreness or inflamation. It does not burn or cauterize, but soothes and relieves the irritation. Do not swallow, as it will nauseate. Continue the use once in two hours until relieved. The tincture can be had at any drug store.

M. M. WOLFE. G. G. NISBET. NEW FIRM.

The undersigned, having leased from Stenhouse, Macaulay & Co, their store on the corner of Trade and College streets, and having succeeded them in the Grocery Business, now offer to the citizens of Charlotte and the surrounding country a well se-

Choice Family Groceries, Suited to the wants of all, embracing everything usually kept in a first-class establishment. We promise fair dealing and a strict attention at all times to the wants of our patrons.

We will also deal in grain and all kinds of country produce, which will be sold at current market rates. We solicit, and hope to merit a share of cending the rostrum one St. Stephen's day the public patronage. WOLFE & NISBET. Terms cash. Sept. 21, 1874.

Fashionable Millinery Store.

MRS. QUERY,

Having spent several weeks in the Northern cities, making selections of the most fashionable Millinery Goods, respectfully informs the Ladies that she is now ready to serve them with the latest styles and fashions. She is confident that she now has a stock that will not fail to please the most fastidious taste.

Mrs. Query keeps constantly on hand a large stock of every description of Goods in her line,

BONNETS, HATS, RIBBONS, Laces and Trimmings,

Dress Making,

In all its branches, executed in the most fashionable and best style. She has some of the most skillful seamstresses in her employ, who cannot fail to please the Ladies of Charlotte and surrounding country. Ladies are invited to call and examine Goods MRS. P. QUERY. and patterns.

A. L. WALSH. RANKIN & WALSH, Cotton and Commission Merchants,

COLLEGE STREET, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Mr WALSH is well known as having been connected for several years with Col. J. Y. Bryce, one of the oldest cotton-buyers in the city. Col. RANKIN is an old and experienced mer-

Sept. 7, 1874. Coffee.

Best Coffee, four pounds to the dollar. J. S. WILLIAMSON & CO.

May 18, 1874. J. McLAUGHLIN & SON.

(Successors to E. M. Holt & Co.,) Respectfully inform their friends and the public generally that they will continue the Grocery Business On College Street, at the stand formerly occupied

Farmers and purchasers generally are invited to call and examine their stock of choice Family and Plantation Groceries. Country Produce of all sorts bought at Market prices or stored for the owners at reasonable charges. A large Stock of Goods is being received for the J. McLAUGHLIN & SON.

A CARD.

I take this method of informing my friends that I am now with Messrs J. McLAUGHLIN & SON (successors to E. M. Holt & Co.,) where I will be pleased to see them, and will endeavor to wait HATS, CAPS and OVERCOATS. on them in a satisfactory manner. J. M. MORROW. Sept. 21, 1874.

BOUND FOR CALIFORNIA.

I have just returned from New York, where I purchased a large and fine stock of Custom-Made Clothing,

For Men's, Boys' and Youth's Wear. Also, a Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, &c. Since purchasing my stock, I have made arrangements to enter into business with my brother in San Francisco, California. Therefore, I offer my entire stock to the public at

COST PRICES (for Cash only),

As I intend to leave this city by the 1st of January.

Consequently the stock must and will be sold Parties indebted to me will please call and settle E. SHRIER. Sept. 28, 1874.

PEACE INSTITUTE, Raleigh, N. C.,

FOR YOUNG LADIES. The attention of parents and guardians is invited to the following advantages: A mild, intermediate, salubrious climate.

A refined, intelligent, cultivated community. A central position, easily accessible from all

A beautiful oak grove of eight acres, half mile from the Capitol square. A spacious building, well ventilated, warmed and lighted. A full corps of eleven experienced and successful teachers. A well selected Library, chemical and philosophical apparatus and cabinet of minerals. The Music Department is under the charge of Prof. Baumann, long and favorably known in Georgia and Alabama as well as the Carolinas. The music roll at present numbers eighty members. Special attention given to German and French. In addition to the large class in drawing and Painting, all the pupils take tri-weekly drawing lessons free of charge. The scholars draw from objects and from nature. A large Gymnasium and an accomplished lady teacher of Gymnastics. The cheerful, pleasant, home-like arrangement for the convenience and comfort of the young

The ample provisions for religious, moral and physical, as well as intellectual training. The present session commences September 23d,

1874, and closes June 16th, 1875. For further particulars, address Rev. R. BUR-WELL & SON, (formerly of Charlotte Female Institute), or S. J. STEVENS, (formerly of Rome, Ga., Female College), Raleigh, N. C. Sept. 21, 1875

Boys Wanted.

Boys of spirit, boys of will, Boys of muscle, brain, and power, Fit to cope with anything-These are wanted every hour.

Not the weak and whining drones, That all troubles magnify-Not the watchword of "I can't," But the nobler one, "I'll try."

Do whate'er you have to do With a true and earnest zeal; Bend your sinews to the task-Put your shoulders to the wheel.

Though your duty may be hard,

If it be an honest task, Do it with an honest will. At the anvil, or the farm, Wheresoever you may be-

From your future efforts, boys,

Comes a nation's destiny.

Look not on it as an ill;

A SHORT SERMON .- As a monk was asto preach a sermon in praise of that saint, the officiating priests, fearing that the holy father would be somewhat long-winded, whispered in his ear a petition that he would shorten his discourse. The monk gravely entered the pulpit, and after a short exhortation, he addressed his auditors: "My brethren, this time twelve months ago I told you all which could be said concerning this saint. As I have not learned that he has nothing to add to what I then related."

A BIRD LAW.-Like a contributor to the State Agricultural Journal we advocate the passage of a stringent law prohibiting the killing of birds for a certain period, or And every variety of Ladies' Furnishing Goods. the limitation of such killing to certain months. Soon all of our beautiful singers and useful auxiliaries in the war with insects will be gone. They should be retained. Let the sportsman be restrained. and these little feathered friends will not be lost to our forests and fields. The Legislature should enact a rigorous bird law .-Wilmington Star.

THE WILMINGTON

EYE AND EAR INSTITUTE AND SURGICAL INFIRMARY.

47 and 49 North Front Street.

This Institute, which offers all the comforts and privacy of a Home, while possessing the convenences and appliances of a public Hospital, is prepared to receive patients suffering from disease or njury of the EYE or EAR, or other surgical affecion requiring operative treatment.

One of the largest and finest residences in the city is occupied for the purpose, and the Surgeon in charge resides in the building with his family, having the nursing and treatment after delicate operations under his personal care and supervision. To persons from the Carolinas and States further South this Institute offers every advantage of the large Northern cities, without the severity of their climate, and with considerable economy in time and invited to address, for information, DR. M. J. DEROSSET,

Resident Surgeon Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 12, 1874.—2w

CLOTHING.

We are now receiving and opening the largest stock of HATS, CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS for Gentlemen, Youths and Boys, ever offered in this market. It has been selected with care in New York, and comprises the largest and most varied assortment of articles which enter into the wants of Gentlemen, making up a complete outfit, not to be found outside of a full-grown city. he would now be making a bad quality of Having doubled the size of our store-room, and increased our stock to fill it, and being the only exclusive CLOTHING HOUSE in the city with a fresh stock, we invite our friends and the public to call and examine it, with full confidence that every one can be suited. Talmas, Business and Dress Suits. Shirts and Under Clothing for Men and Boys. Umbrellas, Gloves, Hosiery, Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs, &c., and a large line of other articles, we offer at the very LOWEST CASH PRICES. We return our thanks to our patrons for their kindness and liberality in the past, and intend to merit its continuance. J. A. YOUNG & SON.

BOOT AND SHOE STORE.

Sample & Alexander Have the exclusive sale of the celebrated EN-FIELD SHOE. They also have Kelley & Moore's celebrated Philadelphia Custom-Made Boots and Shoes, for Ladies, Misses and Children. Call and see their assortment. You can get any width of Boot or Shoe as cheap as at any place in the city, at

SAMPLE & ALEXANDER'S Boot and Shoe Store. Oct. 5, 1874. Just Received at the Rising Sun,

A large lot of new goods; a large lot of fresh country Butter, Pickled Beef, Dried Beef, Beef Tongues, Bologna Sausage, Mackerel, Mullets, Blue Fish, Hominy, Large and Small Hams, Bacon, Lard, Coffee, Sugar, Cheese, Crackers, Herrings, Candies and Nuts of all kinds. In fact every article usually kept in a first-class Grocery and Confectionery can be found at the Rising Sun. C. S. HOLTON & CO. Sept. 28, 1874.

Substantial China and Crockery, AND ALSO FANCY ARTICLES.

tions, first door above the Court House. Wood and Willow Ware. Tubs, Buckets, Churns, Cocoa Dippers, Brooms Sugar Boxes, Bread Trays, Rolling Pins, Pastry

Boards, Wash Boards, &c. The public, and especially the ladies, are invited to call and examine the stock. JAMES HARTY. Oct. 5, 1874.

Activity Leads to Happiness.

We should all live more healthful, more useful and longer lives, did we so employ our activities to extract from them that en- the United States is to Russia for kindly joyment which is their natural and legiti- services during the war. It has often been mate result. Let every one be sure that, if vaguely whispered that Russian influence his work is toilsome, arduous and depress- prevented the armed intervention of hausted, while others are dormant. It is before published, in support of the truth of not rest so much as change that he needs- this rumor. When Gov. Curtin, on the not to lay down his work and fold his hands eve of his return to this country, went, in in idleness, but rather to embrace other his capacity as minister to Russia, to take doubtless be difficult to apply this to all the closed the conversation substantially in we appreciate and firmly hold to the truth, thanks to the American people for the rethat real happiness can only be attained by activity of mind and body, and the more Duke Alexis." This, it will be rememit. While he is thus realing and saving it, fully and harmoniously all our powers are exercised, the fuller will be our life, and the more real enjoyment will it yield.

Sheep Raising.

We find the following paragraph credited o the Fredericksburg, Va., Herald: "The subject being up for discussion before the Woodlawn (Fairfax) Agricultural Club, Mr Walsh was called on to give his experience as to the profitableness of sheep raising. Mr W. said that last fall he purpople—and only to the people." Gov. chased fifty ewes for $187. He had on hand at the time ten sheep, including a pure Cotswold buck. This season he has sold wool, lambs and fat sheep, to the amount of $500, and had on hand forty sheep, including his bucks. Four of his ewes produced wool, lambs and mutton to the value of $80. The first contained an autograph letter shaped by his own experience. These nat-He keeps a large dog, which protects his flock from other dogs.

fit of this particular section of the State, independence of the Confederacy. The but for those parts where sheep may be letter asserted that England had already ness success in after years. They constimore profitably raised. The figures speak promised her co-operation, which was prob- tute the best practical education which a an emphatic language. We hope our up- ably a lie. The second book contained the man can have as a worker in this working country friends who raise sheep will thank Emperor's reply. He flatly declined the world. They are gained in season for life's God and take courage because one man has alliance proposed by Napoleon, and degiven the business a fair trial and made a clared that, in the European interference in they are wanted, when foolish notions are success. The raising of sheep costs less the war, Russia would actively aid the most likely to mislead an inexperienced than any other industry we know of. They North. The third book had within it brain, and when, too, there is a full opporrequire little or no feeding from hand, or copies of the sealed orders given to the tunity for expansion and development in other care. - Wilmington Star.

ing sheep while thousands of worthless curs are allowed to roam at large and prey act by the Legislature extirpating the use- main at anchorage there for some time; they form, will ordinarily determine the upon them with impunity? We want an expect to see our hillsides covered with with the blockade, to put his whole force succeed, men must have the elements of sucless and ravenous canines and then we may fleecy flocks, and our farmers remunerated at the command of the Cabinet at Wash- cess in themselves. One great reason why with a profitable income therefrom.

girls: one is the kind that appears best abroad, the girls that are good for parties, visits, ball, &c., and whose chief delight is in such things. The other is the kind that appears best at home, the girls that are useful and cheerful in the dining room, the sick room, and all the precincts of home. They expense; The medical profession and others are differ widely in character. One is frequently a torment at home; the other a blessing. One is a moth, consuming everything about her; the other is a sunbeam, inspiring life have every reason to trust the gentleman are the only really strong men in this world. and gladness all along the pathway. Now from whom we have received this story. it does not necessarily follow that there shall be two classes of girls. The right modification would modify both a little, and unite their characters in one.

If there is one man on this continent that ought to feel under obligations to the Southern people it is U. S. Grant. If the Southern people had never seceded leather in Illinois instead of drawing a $50,000 salary at-Long Branch.

New Stock of Groceries.

W. J. BLACK

Has just received a new Stock of Groceries and Provisions-the very articles farmers and everybody else needs for support during the Summer. Examine stock and prices, as inducements will be held out to prompt customers. W. J. BLACK. June 1, 1874.

WITTKO WSKY & RINTELS, TO THE WHOLESALE TRADE.

Judging the future by the past, we enter with confidence upon this our new enterprise of separating our Wholesale from our Retail Trade, by having a separate and distinct House; and in doing so we flatter ourselves that it will not only large influx of new trade, and that of a character not heretofore enjoyed. It must be obvious to every buyer that a strictly Wholesale House, arranged and adapted for that male under the age of fifteen without the he is vainly trying to appears hunger with Trade only, with a corps of experienced Wholesale | consent of her father. Salesmen, with a Stock carefully selected for that Trade only, and moreover, the avoidance of coming in contact with retail buyers, which we and you all have heretofore found so irksome, as it frequently happens that the retail buyer is your very neighbor, (perhaps your own customer). Such a house, we assert, must and will commend itself to

We now call your attention to the fact that we Wholesale House, where you can find all lines of the spectators seemed to share. goods necessary for a country store, to-wit: Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Notions, Groceries, Hardware, Millinery, all in complete lines, bought in large quantities and from the very first hands.

Our Stock is now arriving and will be complete about the 1st of September, and will be the largest of any here, the pretentions of others to the contrary notwithstanding. We respectfully invite your personal inspection, or write to us for circu-Very truly yours, WITTKOWSKY & RINTELS.

RETAIL.

Now, a few words about that. We now occupy the superb House heretofore so favorably known as the Messrs. Brem, Brown & Co.'s Dry Goods House, to carry on our Retail business, and as "Excelsior" is and always has been our motto, we claim also in that line to excel in stock, to excel in lowness of prices, and to excel generally. We will, in that House, have a corps of thirty Salesmen and Sales-Ladies, all experienced, affable and obliging. We make the Millinery branch a specialty

WITTKOWSKY & RINTELS.

A Diplomatic Secret.

From the Chicago Tribune. Few people know how deeply indebted the same words. "I shall be happy," he said, "to carry your majesty's thanks to making him an earnest and watchful econmy government and people." "I sent my omist of time. that had thus been publicly put upon the government he represented. He was in- has toiled for it; he has observed its slow the subject. Three books were brought in mate it represents so many months or years from the archives of the foreign office. of practical labor. His ideas of life are from Napoleon III, asking Russia to join ural effects of earning the first thousand with England and France in breaking up We reproduce this item, not for the bere- the Federal blockade and guarranteeing the They are just the qualities of mind and Admiral who, as our readers will remem- later years. But how can our farmers succeed in rais- ber, brought his fleet into New York harbor during the war. The order directed they start from opening manhood but once. available force, to New York City; to re- purposes they have in view, and the habits and, in the event of European interference entire sequel of their career on earth. To Two Kinds.—There are two kinds of dumfounded at these unexpected proofs of boys seeming to be men-consists in the steadfast fidelity to the Union cause, simple fact that they do not start. A with him and the interview ended. We law. The workers in some suitable sphere It will probably be found true substantially, although there may, of course, be errors in detail.

An Elopement and what came of it.

to work she was so heartbroken that an one but each other in their world of love. elopement was decided upon, and meeting | Alas! that such bliss must ever be dishim agreeable to promise, they trudged pelled. Time brought preparations for the seven miles to his father's house, where she approaching wedding; for this devoted couple they were married, the girl telling the offi- complete until the Hymeneal knot was tied. ciating alderman that she was eighteen confronted by the enraged father of the schooldays she has spent her time in studybride, armed with a warrant for the arrest | ing the tastes of her lover, which certainly of the groom for abducting his daughter. seemed to incline towards dress and senti-The accused was seized, taken before a mentality. meet the approval of our numerous customers, but magistrate and committed to jail, from that an exclusive Wholesale House will bring us a | which he was finally bailed. He was in- demands food of the best quality; and bedicted under the twelfth section of the law cause she knows not how to cater to his in relation to crimes, for taking away a fe- palate his love seems to be waning. While > the Burlington Court of Over before Judge | words which used to be so satisfying to his Woodhull, the court room being crowded sentimental nature. with a deeply interested crowd at the trial.

> ney, made an eloquent appeal, but the judge | woman they marry, and what have they to charged the jury that the law had been vio- give in return? It seems impossible that lated, and the jury should not be influenced | those delicate attentions which characterby appeals to their sympathy. The jury was | ized the lover should be so withdrawn by out the entire night and came in several the husband. times for instructions. Finally they rendered their verdict of guilty, united with demanding his dinner in not the most pleaswhich lasted so long that it was deemed December term.

Axle Grease.

White-Wash Brushes, Paint and Varnish Brushes, Lanterns, Kerosene Lamps, &c., for sale by W. R. BURWELL & CO., Druggists.

The First Thousand Dollars.

The following extract we take from the New York Independent, and commend it to the careful consideration of the boys and young men among our readers: The first thousand dollars that a young man, after going out into the world to act ing, there is something wrong; some of his France, and perhaps England, in behalf of for himself, earns and saves, will generally faculties are restained, while others are the South. We are enabled to lay before settle the question of business life with him. overburdened; some of his powers are ex- our readers trustworthy information, never There may be exceptions to this statement; yet, for a rule, we think that it will hold true.

The first condition is that the young man actually earns the thousand dollars in quesfields of action, hitherto untrodden. It will formal leave of the Emperor, the latter tion. He does not inherit this sum. It does not come to him by a streak of good details of practical life, but we shall have these words: "I wish, sir, that you would, luck, as the result of a fortunate venture in gained one important step towards it, if upon your return, express our hearty the purchase and sale of a hundred shares of stock. It is the fruit of personal indusbered, was shortly after Gen. Grant had he must earn two or three, or perhaps four refused to return Alexis' call, and the lat- times as much to pay his current expenses. ter had left Washington in disgust. Gov. He is consequently held sternly to the task Curtin noticed the Emperor's failure to of industry for a considerable period. The send thanks to the government as well as direct consequence to him is steady, conthe people. He supposed, however, that tinuous and solid discipline in the habits of it was a slip of the tongue until the Em- industry-in patient, persistent, forecasting press bade him farewell in almost precisely and self-denying effort, breaking up all the tendencies to indolence and frivolity, and

> He not only learns how to work, but he also acquires the love of work; and more-Curtin afterward complained of the slight over he learns the value of the sum which vited by Gortschakoff to a conference on increase from time to time; and in his estidollars we hold to be very large benefits. body which are most likely to secure busipurposes, at the opening period, just when

> Men have but one life to live; and hence, him to proceed at once, with his whole And the manner in which they start, the ington and to promise abundant and speedy | there are so many useless, inefficient, and reinforcements. While Gov. Curtin stared poverty-stricken men on earth-or, rather, Gortschakoff said to him: "Perhaps you prominent reason why the children of the can appreciated, sir, why the Emperor and rich so frequently amount to nothing may Empress sent their thanks to the people be found in the luxury, ease and indolence who have honored the Grand Duke Alexis | which marked the commencement of their and not to the government that has insulted lives. It is the law of God that we should him. We saved your country, and now be workers on earth; and no one so well your President insults our representative. | consults the best development of his being It is too much." Curtin quite agreed as when he conforms his practice to this

Courtship and Marriage.

It is a singular fact, says a Parisian writer, that a man generally requires very different qualities in a wife from those he admires in a sweet-heart. While a lover, he expected A young man about twenty years old, to see his future wife neatly and stylishly living in Randolph township, Burlington dressed whenever he chose to call, either county, New Jersey, some months ago be- morning or evening, and the girl busied came deeply attached to the daughter of a her little brain all day in efforts to please neighboring farmer, who, although large of his taste. If he left town for a few days, her age, was not fifteen years old. She re- he sent letters full of sweet nothings that ciprocated his love, and he agreed to wait filled her soul with joy. Then came defive years, or more if it was necessary, be- lightful rambles in the moonlight and hours fore wedding her; but when he made his spent in charming tete a tetes after the preparation to go to an adjoining county family had retired, when the two saw no was taken care of till the next day, when imagined that their happiness could never be So the wedding and honeymoon were soon over, and the parties settled into the They returned to the house of the groom's matter-of-fact part of life. The bride sister, at Haddonfield, where they were knows nothing of housekeeping. Since her

Now, alas! she discovers that his stomach sour bread and burned steak, little does he Last week the case was called for trial in appreciate the sweet nonsense and honeyed

Ah, men are so unreasonable. They ex-The girl, in her examination, declared pect to find every quality of excellence in her love for him, and assumed her share of the woman they marry, yet have not peneblame in the matter, expressing her belief tration sufficient to choose the most worthy. have converted our superb store into an exclusive in his honorable intentions, a belief in which To shine in society, to exhibit every feminine accomplishment, both at home and Col. G. S. Cannon, formerly State Attor- abroad, are duties which they require in the > recommendation to the mercy of the Court. ant tone, I thought, "Can it be possible that As soon as the verdict was announced the he ever played the ardent lover to that pale, young man was seized with convulsions, dejected woman, whom he calls his wife?" The lover who could scarcely tear himself best not to sentence him, and bail was ac- away from his sweetheart at midnight is cordingly given for his appearance at the the same man who now leaves his wife to spend her evenings as best she may, while he passes the hours in doubtful enjoyment. Ah! how soon men forget the solemn yow to love and cherish till death! And how many women regret that the charming delusions of courtship were ever exchanged for the unpleasant realities of marriage.

The other day when I heard a neighbor