

The Hornets' Nest

—AND—TRUE SOUTHERN.

"THE SOUTH—IT MUST BE PRESERVED."

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1850.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

(COMPILED.)

SENATE—Saturday, Nov. 23.

After the Journal of the previous day had been read, Mr. Speaker Edwards announced the following standing Committees:

Propositions and Grievances—Messrs. Courts, Barringer, Sherrod, Eborn, Berry, Susmons, McMillan.

On the Judiciary—Messrs. Woodfin, Caldwell of Mecklenburg, Courts, Gilmer, Washington, Hoke, Kelly.

On Education and the Literary Fund—Messrs. Shepard, Bunting, Lillington, Haughton, Williamson, Bower, Jones.

On Claims—Messrs. Drake, Hargrave, Pender, Grist, Wooten, Willey, Barrow.

On Internal Improvements—Messrs. Thomas, Joyner, Gilmer, Canady, Nixon, Bogle, Lane.

On Corporations—Messrs. Cameron, Bynum, Watson, Caldwell of Burke, Davidson, Spaight, Thompson.

The Speaker desired the indulgence of the Senate to state that he had, from considerations of delicacy to the Senate and himself, omitted to appoint the committee on Privileges and Elections. He hoped the Senate would appoint that committee in such way as might be deemed appropriate.

Mr. Shepard introduced the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States was a compromise of conflicting interests ordained and established by the people of the several States in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to all the parties, and that whenever its provisions are so perverted or changed that it fails to secure those objects to the weakest member of the confederacy it ceases to be the constitution agreed to and becomes the creature of the whims and caprices of a dominant majority, alien in interest to the oppressed—the most dangerous and intolerant of all Governments.

Resolved, That although we love the Union of the States and view its destruction as a great calamity, we nevertheless regard the right to secede from it, as a right of self-defence and protection, which the people of North Carolina have never surrendered, and never can surrender, with due regard to their own safety and welfare; and that whenever a majority of the people of North Carolina shall solemnly resolve that they cannot safely remain in the Union, it is not only their right but it is their duty to secede, and punish such of her citizens as refuse submission to her will, as rebels and traitors.

Resolved, That when we claim the right of secession as a right reserved to the people and not surrendered by the Constitution, we believe it to be an extreme remedy and one that should not be resorted to unless all means to preserve the Union, and to protect the property and insure the welfare of the people, have manifestly failed.

Resolved, That the fugitives lately passed by Congress, in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution; and that its repeal or any alteration tending to impede the owner of a slave from retaining his property, will be regarded as unadvised and sufficient evidence that a majority of Congress are unrestrained by the express provisions of the Constitution, and that a time has arrived when it becomes the duty of the people of North Carolina to decide whether they will submit to an unlimited government or resist its encroachments, boldly and effectually.

Resolved, That property in slaves being recognized both by the Constitution of North Carolina and of the United States, it is as much the duty of the Federal Government to defend and protect Slave property as it is its duty to protect and defend any other species of property; and that any action of the General Government preventing the emigration of slave property to any territory of the Union is an assault upon such property tending ultimately to destroy it by the slow but sure process of circumventing it, and preventing its removal to territories better adapted to its profitable occupation than where it now is found.

Resolved, That the injustice done to the slaveholding States by the late admission of California into the Union would never have occurred, had the South been united. We therefore invite the co-operation of the slaveholding States in demanding from the Government an adequate protection for such slave property as may emigrate to any territory belonging to the United States, or should it be more advisable, an equal division of such territory between the slave and the non-slaveholding States of the Union.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to transmit a copy of these Resolutions to the Governors of the other States of the Union, with a request that they be laid before their several Legislatures.

The Resolutions were read, when Mr. Shepard rose and stated that he did not desire to enter into a discussion of them at present. On his motion, they were laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.

A message was received from the House concurring in the proposition to appoint a joint select committee on so much of the Governor's message as relates to Cherokee lands.

Senate branch of the joint committee on Negro slavery consists of Messrs. Clark, Shepard, Joyner, Caldwell of Mecklenburg, Woodfin and Cameron.

Mr. Joyner, from the committee to superintend the election of Secretary of State, reported that Mr. Hill had received 150 votes.

General Bynum presented the memorial of sundry citizens, praying for the erection of a new county out of Cleveland, Burke, Catawba and Lincoln, and also a counter memorial, which were respectively referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances; and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The following Committees were announced (House Branch of Committee on Finance)—Messrs. Person of Moore, Thornton, Gordon, Waugh, Steele, Adams, Jenkins, and Winstead. House Branch of Committee on Library—Messrs. Williams of Mecklenburg, Mizzell, and Wiley.

House Branch of Committee on re-organization of Public Offices—Messrs. Dickerson, Dargan, Barrow of Edgecombe, Flemming, and Campbell.

Mr. Wiley, a bill to appoint a state superintendent of Common Schools, and for other purposes; referred to Committee on Education.

Mr. Sanders, of Johnston, a bill explanatory of the Revenue act of 1848-9; referred to the Committee on Finance. [Bill provides that the bill of 1848-9 shall be so construed as to exempt from taxation in all cases the interest on one thousand dollars. The bill now exempts from taxation interest on less than that sum.]

Mr. Ford, a bill to repeal the act of 1846-7, providing for the opening and clearing out certain creeks in the counties of Iredell and Rowan; referred to Committee on Private Bills.

Mr. Eaton, a bill concerning original attachments and a bill concerning stills; referred to Committee on the Judiciary. [The first bill authorizes Clerks of the County and Superior Courts to issue original attachments returnable to their respective Courts, in the same manner as Justices of the Peace now do; the second, declares that all stills, distilling ardent spirits, shall be considered as personal estate.]

Mr. Maulsby, a bill to quiet the title to lands and slaves, and a bill concerning overseers of the public roads; referred to Committee on the Judiciary.

[First bill provides that deeds and bills of sale for the conveyance of lands and slaves, which shall have been registered twenty-one years, shall and may be read in evidence in any Courts of this State notwithstanding any defect in the probate of the same; the second authorizes the County Court to levy a tax to pay the overseers of the public roads one dollar per day, while superintending repairs to the roads.]

Mr. Wiggins introduced a resolution, for which Mr. Saunders of Wake offered the following substitute, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary inquire into the most eligible plan for the speedy removal of free persons of color from the State, and for their better government whilst they shall remain within the same, and report accordingly.

Mr. Saunders, of Wake, introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the select Committee on the amendments of the Constitution inquire into the expediency of making the following amendments:

1. To abolish the freehold qualification of voters for the Senate.

2. To give to the people the right of electing the Superior Court Judges, and of changing the tenure of their office for a term not less than seven years.

3. To give to the people the right of electing Justices of the Peace, and for a term of years not less than four.

4. To restrict the General Assembly in all appropriations of the public money, when the sum shall exceed one hundred thousand dollars, or when the fifth of the State shall be pledged unless by a vote of two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature, or by the vote of a majority of two successive Legislatures; and that the Committee report a bill for the earliest constitutional mode of carrying these amendments into effect with the approval of the people.

Mr. Fleming introduced the following resolution upon which he demanded the yeas and nays:

Resolved, That the Committee to whom is referred the subject of amendments to the Constitution be instructed to inquire into the expediency of permitting the people at the polls in August next, to decide whether or not they will call a convention to amend the Constitution; and that they report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Rayner said he was disposed to go for the resolution, if it did not commit the House to any particular course.

[Here a spicy debate ensued, being participated in by a good number of members.] The Resolution was finally adopted—Yeas 105, Nays 12.

The Faculties, for intellectual abilities, moral worth and professional acquirements, will compare favorably with the most distinguished in our country. The medical faculty constitutes an anomaly in this or any other country—all of them are able lecturers and the best of teachers.

Those who will contemplate our geographical position, and the extent of our population, can have no doubt as to the eligibility of our situation for an enterprise of the kind. As to health, including all seasons of the year, we deny that ANY OTHER CITY HAS MORE.

A common error exists in the minds of many students relative to the place of studying medicine; those who intend practicing among the diseases of the West and South should certainly educate themselves at a school whose Faculty are practically acquainted with those diseases.

That the public may be satisfied of the permanency of this school, we feel it our duty to state, that the Trustees and Faculty form a UNIT in action, which augurs well for its future success; and that the peculiar internal organization which connects them, cannot be interrupted.

Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger.

Prepared only by FREDERICK BROWN, at his drug and Chemical Store, corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.—This Essence is a preparation of unusual excellence and of varied properties. In all cases where a powerful and safe stimulant is required, it is unrivalled for efficacy as well as immediate action. To the traveller and to the family circle it is invaluable, as a few drops diluted in sugar and water present a safe and agreeable remedy to the invalid who requires immediate relief, as well as to the convalescing patient who needs a gentle tonic. In a southern climate, where relaxation of the system so generally induces thirst for stimulants, it will always be found an excellent substitute for those stimulating beverages which debilitate the stomach and cause a morbid condition of its powers. In dyspepsia, in relaxation of the bowels, in nausea and sea-sickness, it is an active and prescribed by most eminent of the medical faculty.
