

DEFERRED ARTICLES.

The new Capitol.—The Commissioners appointed by the Act just passed by our Legislature for rebuilding the Capitol, viz. Duncan Cameron, Henry Seawell, Wm. Boylan, Wm. S. Mhoon, and R. M. Saunders, Esqrs. met at the Office of the Public Treasurer on Saturday last, to take into consideration the subject committed to them. D. Cameron, Esq. was appointed President of the Board, and J. Gales, Secretary. It was resolved that the Capitol be immediately rebuilt, entirely of stone; and that Mr. Wm. S. Drummond, (a builder from Washington City, who comes highly recommended) be appointed Superintendent of the Building. It will be seen by Advertisements in to-day's Register, that Contracts are offered for the execution of the Work and for Lumber. Proposals to be submitted on or before the first of March. In the mean time the rubbish of the old Building will be cleared away.—Ral. Reg.

The term "sovereign," as applied to an individual State, is a gross solecism. The States are sovereign only in matters of which their local Legislatures may take cognizance. In all the essentials which constitute national sovereignty, they are entirely deficient, having voluntarily surrendered them without the reservation of a right to resume them at will. We have the authority of Dr. David Ramsey, a name dear to South Carolina herself, for saying (2d vol. Ramsey's history, p. 174,) that "the Act of Independence did not hold out to the world thirteen sovereign States, but a common sovereignty of the whole, in their united capacity."—Dr. Ramsey, be it recollected, did not write this sentence to suit this emergency. He has long slept in the tomb, happy that he has escaped the knowledge of acts which cover his native State with disgrace, and will plunge her, in future years, in the sackcloth and ashes of bitter and perhaps unavailing repentance.

Kentucky.—That gallant State, who, if need be, could send fifty thousand rifles into the field, to maintain the integrity and honor of our country, is preparing to admonish a voice that never spoke but to command respect. Already she tells us through her Chief Magistrate, that if the dominant party in "S. Carolina shall resort to force, and resist the execution of the laws named, or make a violent attempt to sever herself from the Union, that the people of that State will stand upon their duty and their allegiance, (mark that!) and will support the General Government in the use of any legal and constitutional means necessary to prevent the accomplishment of so sad a catastrophe."

Governor Breathitt, upon submitting the "Ordinance and other documents" of a late Convention in this State to the Legislature in Kentucky, made it the occasion for introducing to that body most of the substantial beauties of our "conjuncture." In the survey he takes the trouble to make of it, he does not fail to do most excellent justice to the "celerity of the climax," whose big events were crowded in the ever memorable little month that succeeded the first open step of the Master of Ceremonies. "It is desirable (says he) that our sister State should be informed, that, while Kentucky is ready to relieve her from all just ground of complaint, she will not permit this Union, which protects us in the enjoyment of so many blessings, civil and religious, to be torn asunder for any cause!"

From the New York Advocate.

SAGACITY OF THE ELEPHANT.—A few nights since one of those noble Elephants now exhibiting at 53 Bowry, called Columbus, either by accident or design, broke the lock to the chain which confined him; no sooner was he extricated from his fastenings than with one stroke of his trunk he demolished the stable containing four or five ponies, one of which he had travelled with for the past year, and for some cause or other had frequently evinced a hostility towards him: he passed his trunk over the other two ponies, and the moment he came to the object of his hatred, plunged his tusk through his body, which produced instant death. Having satiated his malignity against this offending pony, he returned to his place, and there remained until morning, without offering injury to any other animal, although there were at least one hundred contained in the same building.

MENAGERIE.

FROM BUENOS AYRES.—It is stated in a paragraph from the British Packet (newspaper) of the 27th of October, "that the American schooner Harriet, detained last year for an infraction of the law relative to the Falkland Islands, and which has been since lying in this port, is ordered by the Commercial Tribunal to be sold, and the proceeds to be deposited subject to the orders of Government."

The Bank Robbery.—We have much satisfaction in stating that the rest of the money stolen from the Bank of South Carolina, was yesterday given up by the robber Barton. The amount ($48,000) was concealed in the wall of his shop; and the whole amount stolen ($156,000) has now been recovered, with the exception of $22.

Dreadful Calamity.—The Shetland Islands have been visited with an awful dispensation of Providence. The fishermen, while engaged in their usual occupation, at a great distance from land, were suddenly overtaken by a hurricane of unprecedented violence even in that tempestuous region. Some were fortunate enough to gain the shore; others were picked up at sea by passing vessels; and many were doomed to a watery grave. Nineteen boats sunk under the fury of the elements; and of one hundred and fourteen men who composed the crews, exposed to all the evils of extreme poverty, aggravated by the rigors of a northern winter. A subscription has been set on foot for the surviving sufferers in London. Lord Darnley has contributed £100 each. The total amount subscribed is nearly £500.

The following characteristic story, is from the Portsmouth Herald:

RICH FODDER.—Last week the crew of the United States ship Concord were paid off at the Navy Agent's office in this town, and discharged from service. Forthwith these reckless sons of the ocean were seen wandering up and down our streets, some in coaches and some in chaises which they hired for the day, and some reeling along the roads and sidewalks, "half seas over," as sailors term it. One of the crew who was pretty essentially drunk, had about two hundred dollars of bank bills in his pockets, but knew not what to do with them. His ship-mates advised him to deposit it in the Portsmouth Saving Bank. Jack was very good-natured about it, and said that he would follow their advice; so he marched on in a direction entirely contrary to the one that led to the bank, singing and whistling, and as jolly as need be, when suddenly he spied a poor miserable old cow just ahead. He made up to her as well as he could, put both arms round her neck, kissed her, hugged her for several minutes, and then went off to buy her something to eat. He soon returned with a small basket of potatoes.—"Here, eat these, my old charity sweetie," said he, at the same time putting one into her mouth.—"Here, that's good—now take another—you take another—you shall have 'em—and you shall have some of my money, you old honey—you poor old cooney," and he cramed two five dollar bills into her mouth. His mates saw what was going on and asked him what he meant by feeding the old cow with bank bills? Why don't you put them into the Savings Bank? "Never mind; she is poor and I am rich; I've got enough left yet," and in went another potato, followed by a ten dollar bill. Here the other sailors seized hold of him and put a stop to his folly.

INTERESTING TO MEDICAL GENTLEMEN GOING ABROAD.

Extract of a letter to the Editors of the New-York Daily Advertiser, dated.

PARIS, NOV. 13. "Gentlemen of the medical profession coming to France, will do well to bring their diplomas with them, as without them they will be subjected to much expense and trouble, if they desire to attend the schools and Hospitals; whereas, if they have their diplomas, on showing them they will receive tickets of free admission to all the medical institutions. You will place this in a prominent part of your paper and request other journals to copy it."

We take the following welcome information from a letter dated 3d instant, from an estimable correspondent in Virginia.

Nat. Gaz.

"I have just returned from a short visit to Mr. Madison, whose health, I am happy to say, is greatly improved, so much so, that I hope he will be enabled yet to see many summers, and enjoy that commanding intellect and those unrivalled social qualifications for which he is so well known and so much esteemed."

The thorough Bred HORSE, RIOT,

W.H.L. stand the ensuing season at Beattie's Ford, Lincoln county. He was gotten by the justly celebrated Race Horse and Breeder, OLD SIR ARCHIE. His dam a full blooded mare—her pedigree can be traced to many of the most distinguished Racers of her day. As to Sir Archie, his reputation and that of his colts and his descendants are so well established, it is scarcely necessary to say any thing at the present day, as they have been among the most successful distance Horses in the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee for the last fifteen years.

RIOT is a handsome bay, five feet three inches in height, four year's old next Spring. It is expected that he will make a good breeder, in his form and blood are good. Particulars made known in due time.

Valuable Property For Sale.

ON Thursday, 21st of February, I will offer for sale, to the highest bidder, on the premises, my Plantation on Big Sugar Creek, (the place of my former residence.) The tract contains between three and four hundred acres, lying on the main road leading from Charlotte to Camden. The site is truly beautiful, commanding at all times a full view of the celebrated King's Mountain and a wide extent of country around. The buildings are sufficiently commodious for a large family. And on Tuesday of the next Court, I will offer for sale, to the highest bidder, three improved and three unimproved Lots on main Trade Street in the town of Charlotte.

Also, on the same day, I will sell my GOLD MILL, about two miles from the Mine, and about 40 head of Hogs.

The real estate will be sold on a liberal credit, the balance on twelve months.

TYROLESE MILLS.

THE undersigned has at considerable expense, had improved Patterns made for these mills agreeable to directions of Col. A. Caldwell and Mr. Monteith (Engineer at the Cape mine) who has experienced their Utility from 6 months trial of an imperfect set they had made here last spring—on fair Experiments with the aforesaid Mills at the Cape mine they were found to excel all other methods of extracting gold hitherto in use.

1st. On receiving an equal number of bushels of the ore from the same pile and put in the Arrastres or Grinders, and the Mills produced from 25 to 30 per cent. more gold. It was believed none of it escaped.

2d. As the quicksilver does not come in contact where there is any friction, none of it is ground to Calomel or lost.

3d. The most power required is for the stampers. It is thought 3 Mills would not take more power to work them than one set of Arrastres or Grinders.

4th. Their durability—except the stampers and stamper beds, which will wear out, the other part of the Machinery may last half a century.

5th. The Mills when in operation requires no further attendance than to be regularly supplied with ore. One hand can attend two Mills.

Three sets of the above Mills are now made at Venus Furnace, except stampers, as miners differ so much in the form of the stampers, they will not be made until directed. Each applicant for them is requested to furnish his own pattern. Miners wanting these Mills will please order them against the 1st of March. It is uncertain whether the Furnace will blow longer, and no more will be made than ordered besides those now on hand. The person who will first set one in complete operation, a deduction of $5 will be made in the price. J. GRAHAM. December 27, 1832. 1523f
