CHARLOTTE:

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1833.

(COMMUNICATION.)

Saturday, Oct. 12, 1833.

Mr. HOLTON.—By this day's paper I perceive that in the proceedings of the Internal Improvement meeting of this place, held on the 7th inst. a resolution introduced by me is made to speak a language which if it means any thing conveys an idea different from that intended by its author. The resolution as introduced and passed was...

dictate, with all due modesty I would submit the following plan to the consideration of our representatives. Let our next Legislature pass a resolution authorizing the Governor to obtain a loan on the faith and credit of the State, say of two millions of dollars, redeemable at some distant period, the longer the better, say one-half in 1860 and the other in 1870.

Gideon B. Smith Esq. has retired from the Editorial department of the American Farmer. It will hereafter be edited by I. Irvine Hitchcock, Esq. the Proprietor. Great Mortality.—The New Orleans Bulletin says that the Cholera and Yellow Fever together have carried off ten thousand, or one-fifth, of the permanent population of that place within the last twelve months!

The Philadelphia Gazette contains the following: Mr. DUANE, we are informed, since his return from Washington, openly avows that his sentiments, in regard to the qualifications of General Jackson, for the office he holds, have undergone a radical change. Originally he supported Gen. Jackson, because he believed him a firm and honest patriot; but a residence of three months near his person has convinced him that he labored under a delusion; and, with his characteristic openness of character, he hesitates not to publish the fact.

Rail Road Delegates.—Governor Swain, Gen. Barringer, Wm. H. Haywood, Jun. Alfred Jones, Alexander J. Lawrence and John Primrose, are appointed Delegates from this County to the Internal Improvement Convention, at Salisbury, on the 17th inst. And to the Convention proposed to be held in this City, on the 4th Monday of November next, Governor Swain, William H. Haywood, Jun. and Johnston Busbee, are appointed Delegates.—Ral. Register.

Murder and Arson.—We learn that a deed of horrible atrocity was committed in the lower part of Moore county, near the line of this county, on Sunday last. The family of Mr. John McKinnon being at Church, except a negro girl who was preparing to follow them, his house was set on fire and burnt to the ground, the remains of the girl were discovered amidst the ruins, and a trunk which contained $250, found in the woods, a short distance off, broken open and robbed. No doubt that the girl was murdered by the incendiary and robber. No discovery has yet been made of the monster.—Fay. Observer.

Major Morgan A. Heard, the individual who attempted to take the life of Mr. Arnold, of Tennessee, on the steps of the Capitol at Washington, about a year and a half ago, died lately at Russellville, Ky.

Ingenious contrivance.—A gentleman at Philadelphia who has had his grape vines rifled for several years past, has now adopted a plan which will effectually defend his property from further depredations. He has attached a cord to the vines one end of which passes into his chamber, where it is affixed to a bell.—The slightest motion of the vine is sufficient to alarm him, and should the thieves be detected, he is fully prepared to inflict summary punishment.
