

POETRY.

THE RECALL.

Alas! the kind, the playful, and the gay, They who have gladdened their domestic board,
And cheer'd the winter hearth—do they return?

Come home! there's a sorrowing breath In music, since ye went;
And the early flower-scents wander by,
With mournful memories blent;

Where finds it you, our wandering ones?
With all your boyhood's glee?
Untamed beneath the desert's palm,
Or on the lone mid sea?

I will sell, at the late residence of William J. Wilson,

Cotton, Corn, Wheat,
A set of Blacksmith Tools, 1 or 2 Cotton Machines, Stock of all kinds,
A number of very likely Negroes, if not previously sold at private sale. Also the following tracts of lands on a credit of 1, 2 and 3 years—12 months clear of interest, viz:

510 acres lying on the Catawba River just below Beatties Ford, known by the Cathey Tract.

460 acres lying on the Main-Creek above the foregoing, known by the Thos. McCorle place.

335 acres in Iredell County, on the Salisbury road, about six miles east of Beattie's Fork, being part of Moses Winslow's old place.

50 acres on the waters of Long Creek, joining Jos. Thompson, on which it is said is the prospect of a GOLD MINE.

Every person indebted to said estate is requested to settle by Note or payment. And those having claims against said estate, are hereby notified to present them within the time limited by law.

J. McKNITT, Executor.

Baltimore Type Foundry.

THE Proprietors of the Baltimore Type Foundry respectfully inform the printers in the United States, that they are now prepared to furnish them with a variety of letters suited to book, news and job work, at prices the same as they can be obtained at from other foundries—consisting principally of the following sizes, viz:

- Nonpareil
Minion
Brevier
Bourgeois
Long Primer
Small Pica
Pica
English
Nonpareil
Bourgeois
Long Primer
Pica
Four Lines Pica
Six Lines Pica, ornamented Eight Lines Pica, Antique Eight Lines Pica, Fluted Eight Lines Pica, Oak Leaf Eight Lines Pica, ornamented, &c.

Together with leads, brass rule, dashes, plain and ornamented; a great variety of flowers and cuts, suitable for books, newspapers and land-bills, card borders, &c. &c.

Orders for any of the above, as also for presses, cases, galleys, ink, varnish, or anything required in the completion of an office, will be executed on terms favorable as at any other establishment of a similar kind in the United States.

Old Type will be taken in exchange at 9 cents per pound, delivered at the Foundry.

Mr. Edwin Starr, who has long been engaged in carrying on the business, is superintending the Baltimore Foundry, and from his well known experience, will be enabled to attend to the orders of Printers in such a manner, for promptness and accuracy, as to ensure satisfaction.

F. LUCAS, Jr.

Agent of the Baltimore Type Foundry.

Printers of Newspapers who will publish this advertisement to the amount of two dollars, and forward a paper containing it to the Agent, will be allowed that sum in part payment for any bill they make with the Foundry for type, to the amount of 10 dollars.

August 14th, 1833.

25 DOLLARS
REWARD.

REWARD on the 26th of December last, my Negro Boy

JEFF,

about 35 years of age, stout built, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has a scar on his forehead over one of his eyes, caused from the kick of a horse. When spoken to he has a pleasing countenance and something of a down look; his wearing apparel not recollectcd, and if it were his friend John Underwood has got him others, as suspicion rests very strong against him for harboring the said Boy.

A further reward of

TWENTY DOLLARS

will be given for said Boy and proof sufficient to convict any white person of harboring him.

From information, I am led to believe that he has been at work at different Gold Mines through the lower end of Mecklenburg County, N. C. with this said John Underwood in an underhand way, such as carrying off the Ore after night and washing it when best suits their convenience from being detected.

John Underwood, at this time, is absent from his family, and it may be that he has got in with the Boy to go off with him. The said Underwood is about 30 years of age, dark complexion, black hair and eyes, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, possesses a mean look and is a shoemaker by trade, is fond of spirits and lying in negro kitchens.

The above reward will be given for the Boy if brought to me, or lodged in any Jail so that I can get him.

Boyd's Line of Post Coaches,

Running Twice a week and back, between Charlotte, N. C. and Camden, S. C.

THE Proprietor of this line informs the public, that he has lately furnished himself with new coaches, and he hopes that he will now be enabled to render satisfaction to those who may travel on his line. The mail leaves Charlotte every Sunday and Wednesday mornings, and returns every Monday and Thursday evenings. Persons wishing to make an expedition to New-York, are informed that by Charleston the shortest passage can be made, a steam boat starting for New York every other Saturday—the passage being performed in 7 days. This line intersects with the Charleston line at Camden.

THO. BOYD.

Charlotte, Aug. 20, 1833.

$5 REWARD.

REWARD on the subscribers on the 14th inst. a bound boy by the name of WIL-LIAM HOLTON. He is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and had on when he left a blue coat, steel mixed pantaloons, and white hat. He has light colored hair and has a long looping walk. We think that he is trying to get to Danburg or Washington, Georgia. We therefore forewarn all persons from employing or harboring him, as we are determined to deal with them according to law. The above reward will be given for his delivery to us in Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C. Sept. 17, 1833.

NEW BOOK STORE.

THE Subscriber having no prospect of being again able to perform the labors of the ministry; and feeling, in common with other men, the importance of engaging in some employment which will enable him to provide for the wants of a rising family, has opened a Book Store in Charlotte, N. C. He believes, that such an establishment was needed in the Western section of our State. He respectfully invites his friends, acquaintances, and all who feel any interest in his undertaking, to call and see his Books. He will be happy to execute orders for those who live at a distance.

Whilst he has on hand some valuable works in Law, in Medicine, most of the Greek and Latin Classics, and other books used in our Schools and Academies, many works in Theology, and many Miscellaneous books suited to almost every class of readers, he will be able to procure on favorable terms, any book to be found in the Northern Cities, or in the London Market. It will give him pleasure to assist professional gentlemen or private citizens in enlarging their Libraries, or in purchasing new ones. He joins with confidence and respect to an enlightened community for encouragement.

THE STEAM BOAT
MACON,

Capt. J. C. Graham, having been engaged the last summer in the trade running between Charleston and Cheraw, calling at Georgetown on her way up and down, will resume her trips in the course of a few days, and is intended to be continued in the trade the ensuing season. The exceeding light draft of water, drawing only four and a half feet when loaded, will enable her to reach Cheraw at all times, except upon an uncommon low stage when her cargo will be lightened at the expense of the Boat.

Comfortable accommodations for a few passengers, with all due attention.

Charleston, Sept. 26, 1831.

PROSPECTUS
Of a novel and interesting Weekly Publication to be commenced on Saturday the 6th of July, TO BE ENTITLED
The Spirit in Philadelphia,

AND SPIRIT OF THE AGE.

IT is very philosophically observed by Addison, that our greatest pride arises from doing good to each other, or, in other words, from being individually servicable to a ociety. This can be best effected by a proper application of our intelligences, mingling them out according to the necessities of the community, and less lamenting the decadence of public virtue than checking the progress of public vice: for vice retarded is more advanced. As the direction and discussion of measures of national and state polity are the business of the daily press, the application of Addison's remark is necessary and neglected, and the consequence is, that we are shielded by wealth and worldly influences, are abroad among the people, not only suspected, but courted and required; so that a publication is necessary which will not only detect, but exhibit these wretched sheep's clothing to public scorn; a matter which others will be warned from their tent and service be rendered to society, by effecting this object we shall pursue an un-trodden path; one where the necessary truth shall be mingled (not concealed) with contrasting flowers. The manner of our "Spy in Philadelphia" shall be perfectly delicate, and uncontaminated by cant or vagarity; its censure shall be judicious, and satire chaste. Literature and the arts shall find in it an untired friend; Dramatic and Literary criticisms shall meet with most tentive and impartial duty, and sketches of the Bar and Pulpit of Philadelphia shall casually appear from the pen of competent judges, uninfluenced by personal acquaintance, or professional attachment. To these recommendations, our Poetical columns will add another, which, coming from an already popular source, will, we trust, be equally to that of more pretending publications.
It is unnecessary to be more explicit, as we presume the want of the proposed journal is not only admitted, but generally felt.
We therefore place ourselves before the PEOPLE and relying upon their love of justice and of public virtue, await their discision respectfully but confidently.

CONDITIONS.

The first number of "THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will be issued on the first Saturday in July. It will be printed on white paper, in eight quarto pages, and will be of good type. As it is intended to render the contents worthy of preservation, for reference or instructive reference, the advantage of the proposed and more portable size will be evident. The terms are $2 per annum, payable in advance, or $2 50 if not paid before the expiration of six months. Agents will be allowed a discount of 10 per cent. on all subscribers they shall obtain, on re-mitting one year's payment in advance, and becoming responsible for the same, and a gratuitous copy of the paper.

"THE SPY IN PHILADELPHIA" will contain numerous engravings after the manner of the celebrated Cruikshank. They will be executed by skilful artists and accompanied with comic illustrations in prose or verse from the pens of original and competent writers.

All orders must be addressed, post paid, to WILLIAM HILL & CO.

No. 1 Athenian Building, Philadelphia.

Care will be taken to have the work carefully packed when sent out of the city.

Subscriptions received at this Office.
