CHARLOTTE, N. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1874.

Selected Story.

OUT OF WORK.

"But have you tried anything else?"
"What else can I try?"

"Yes. I've tried other things. I have

"What makes you smile?" he asked.

"He has nothing in his house to eat."

A shudder crept over his wife's frame

"All gone. I baked the last this after-

"Then, we must starve!" groaned the Peter Stanwood was a book binder by tricken man, starting across the room.

trade, and had now been out of employ-those who generally calculated to keep about square with the world, and who consider themselves particularly fortunate if they kept out of debt. He was even when work was plenty, but now-have not a single penny in the world."

ling a day, we should not starve."

"Anything reasonable, Maria."

"What do you call reasonable?"

She felt inclined to smile, but the mat ter was too serious for that, and a cloud passed over her face. She knew her husband's disposition, and she felt sure he would find no work. She knew that he would look for some kind of work which would not lower him in the social scale,

as he had once or twice expressed it .-

However, she knew it would be of no use to say anything to him now, and so

On the following morning, the last bit of food in the house was put on the tathat he was penniless and without food.

For years he had been gay, thoughtless and fortunate, making the most of the the future take care of itself. Yet the truth was naked and clear: and when he left the house he said, "Something

No sooner had her husband gone, than

Mrs. Stanwood put on her bonnet and en years old, and her youngest four .-

she asked her next door neighbor if she would take care of her children until be good and quiet, and they were taken over there. Then Mrs. Stanwood locked up her house and went away. She re-

She came home in the evening before

"Nothing! nothing!" he groaned.

dred places, but its the same story in evchum, but could find no work."

"Why-anything decent."

she let the matter pass.

must be done."

ket on her arm.

'What luck ?"

"But our house rent?"

we have house room."

Peter, despairingly.

hing.

"Maria," said he, stooping and gazing

"Trust to me for that. The landlord ment about a month. He was one place. But how is Mark Leeds?"

"Why do you tremble, wife?"

"He is worse than I am."

"How so?"

shall have nothing.'

"But our flour?"

there was nothing.

"But we have pork?

"You ate the last this noon."

"I do."

"Why anything that you can do."

The Southern Home: PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY

D. H. HILL. CHARLOTTE, N. C.,

Devoted to the vindication of the truth of Southern History, to the preservation of Southern Characteristics, to the development of Southern Resources, under the changed relations of the Labor System, and to the advancement of Southern Interests in Agriculture, Mining, Manufacturing and the Mechanic Arts.

In addition to the contributions from the old corps of writers of "THE LAND WE LOVE," the services will be secured of thorough men of Science, and of Practical Farmers, Miners, Machinists, &c.

TERMS OF SOUTHERN HOME :

$2.50 11.25 One copy, one year, in advance, Fire copies, one year, : : Ten copies, one year, The remittances in every case must be by Jheck, P. O. Order, or Registered Letter.

To ADVERTISERS .- The Southern Home, having now the largest circulation of any paper west of Raleigh, affords a fine advertising medium. Terms moderate. To those wishing to subscribe to an Agricultural paper we would state that we will furnish the Southern Home and Rural Carolinian at 4.00

SELECT BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL

OF THE Misses Nash and Miss Kollock, HILLSBORO, N. C. The Fall Term of 1874 will commence on the 24th of July, and continue Twenty Weeks. Circulars forwarded on application.

Charlotte Hotel

CHARLOTTE, N. C. W. M. MATTHEWS & SON, Proprietors. Trust that the liberal patronage of the public will be continued.

F. SCARR, Druggist and Chemist, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Has a well selected stock of PURE DRUGS AND CHEMICALS Oils, Paints, Lamps, &c.

THE LIVE

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

(Over Farmers' Savings Bank,)

Charlotte, N. C.

A full stock of Stationery always on hand.

ALFRED ALDRICH.

RUFUS MORGAN.

ALEXANDER & BLAND, DENTISTS. Office in Brown's Building, op#### posite the Charlotte Hotel. Office hours from 8 o'clock a. m

R. F. DAVIDSON.

DEALER IN Fashionable Furniture,

Spring Beds and Mattresses, Wood and Me tallic Burial Cases and Caskets, &c. Has the largest stock in the city, and the lowest prices. Just received some beautiful Black Walnut Chamber Suits, Cheap Cottage Suits, Wall Pockets and Brackets, Mantle Mirrors, Looking Glasses and Glass Plate, 200 Cheap Cottage Bedsteads. Just arrived, also, 100 doz. Rattan and Split Seat Chairs-a first-rate article. Call and examine.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 23, 1874. tf To the Farmers.

Wheat, Oats, Barley, Clover, Grass, THE ETIWAN FERTILIZERS are confidently recommended to you for Wheat, Oats, Barley and the Grasses. If used on small grain it will insure a crop of grass sooner and also will not only hasten time of maturity but improve quantity and quality. Let Every Farmer Try It. TURNIPS .- The Etiwan Dissolved Bone is the best preparation for turnips and other root crops-containing 11 per cent. of Soluble Phosporic Acid. For sale by agents throughout the country. Former standard of these Fertilizers regularly preserved.

For sale by W. C. BEE & CO.,

Gen'l Agents, Charleston, S. C.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

Charlotle, N. C. WHITE BROTHERS,

July 20-3m

DOMARIA NURSERIES.

The largest fruit and most varied stock of Southern accelimated FRUIT TREES, adapted to our soil and climate, consisting of Apples, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Almonds, Apricots and Nectarines, from the earliest to the latest; Cherries, Quinces, Figs, Hazel Nuts, English Walnuts and Spanish Chestnuts, several fine varieties; Grape Vines, embracing choice table kinds; Strawberries and Raspberries, Evergreens, in great variety, for renament and for cemete-ries. Roses—all the best; Dahlias, Gladiolas, Lilies, Choice Verbenas, Double and Variegated Violets, Ornamental Flowering, Shrubs, Asparagus and Horse Radish Roots, Osage Orange and Macarthy Rose, for hedges. Choice Fruit Trees, of all kinds, which will bear the first season if transplanted early, will be furnished at moderate prices. Among other choice varieties of the Strawberry, Charles Downing proves to be the best for our climate. A new catalogue sent to all who apply. Persons wishing apply direct to the Proprietor.

WM. SUMMER,

Pomaria, S. C. who apply. Persons wishing will please Granger Eating House. MEALS at all hours. Our table will be supplied with the best the market will afford. Oysters, Fish and good Coffee will be furnished with every meal during the season.

W. N. PRATHER & CO.

WITH IMPROVED ROLL, Manufactured by J. M. ELLIOTT,

August 3-3m

Terms moderate.

Boarding House. WILL be pleased to receive permanent and day boarders at my house, on Church Street between 3rd and 4th Streets.

MRS. L. PRESSLEY.

R. M. Miller & Sons.

CROCERS and PROVISION

Corner College and Fourth Streets,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Now offer to the trade a much larger stock of HEAVY and FANCY GROCERIES

PROVISIONS.

ARLINGTON PIEDMONT

W. C. CARRINGTON, President. D. J. HARTSOOK, Secretary.

J. J. HOPKINS, Assistant Secretary.

matter as a success beyond precedent, and an enterprise which deserves and should receive the general patronage of the American people.

The Richmond Enquirer, of April 16th, speaks thus of the company:

PIEDMONT AND ARLINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—The annual meeting of this children to provide for, besides himself company was held at their office yesterday evening. The report of the President exhibited a marked progress of the business during the past year, showing a decided increase of new business as compared with the previous year, in spite of the disadvantage of the recent financial pressure. The following directors were elected for the ensuing term: Wm. B. Isaacs, John Enders, D. J. Hartsook, J. C. Williams, W. H. Palmer, Parker Campbell, C. H. Perrow, George S. Palmer, J. J. Hopkins, J. E. Edwards, W. G. Taylor and W. C. Carrington. The directors then assembled and re-elected the old officers. The Plan Mutual. Issue policies on all legitimate plans. No restriction on travel and resi-

Premiums can be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly. Dividends on all cash policies declared first year, on 1 loan policies after second year.

DR. C. D. RICE, Raleigh, N. C., General Agent for North arolina.

J. K. PUREFOY,

Bookseller & Stationer,

Jan 26-tf

CHINA HALL, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Ware, Plain and Cut Goblets, Tumblers, Decanters. Bar Bottles, Plates, Cups & Saucers, Dishes, Mugs, Pre-serve Stands, Salt Stands, Cruets, &c., together with all kinds of Fancy Glass-Ware, consisting of Bohemian Toilet Sets, Vases, &c. Wood and Willow Ware, of all kinds, and Housekeeping Goods generally. Feb. 16-ly JAMES HARTY.

Cotton Ginning. We are now ready to Gin Cotton at the corner of Ninth street and R & A Air-Line Railway. Bagging and Ties furnished, if desired. Corn bought at highest market price, or meal given in exchange. CHARLOTTE CITY MILLS.

Atlanta Nursery.

YOw is the time to plant Fruit and Orna-N' mental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, Ever-greens, Flowering Plants, Bulbon's Roots, Strawberry Plants, Raspberries, Currants, Asparagus, Budding Plants, Rhubarb, &c. My stock of the above is immense, and of the very best quality. I challenge any per-son to inspect it and find among any of the offering these to my numerous customers this suit incurred.

and friends, do it in the same honesty of intention and conscience that I would be dealt our said Court, at office in Charlotte this the by. Persons living at a distance will please send me a list of what they want and I shall return it with price that I feel confident will prove satisfactory. Orders solicited and promptly filled. E. Van. Goidtsnoven, Horticultural Agent, P. O.—Box 374. At-

OF THE NEW FAIR OF THE CAROLINAS! WILL BE HELD IN THE CITY OF

CHARLOTTE, N. C. Beginning Nov. 3, 1874,

Liberal Premiums given in money, silver-plated ware, medals and diplomas.

A Telegraph office and Post office in Floral Hall. Visitors should have their mail directed "Care of Fair of Carolinas." Catalogues furnished on application to the Secretary.

A. B. SPBINGS, Prest, York, S. C.

D. G. MAXWELL, Secretary, Charlotte, N. C.

Books and Stationery We have a good Stock of Books and Stationery for the Wholesale and Retail Trade, at TIDDY BRO'S. Trade, at Sept 28, 1874 work can I get."

hire me."

them?"

WHOLESALE "Its no use, Maria, I have tried every "But you are not going to give up, Pe-

"Give up! How can I help it? Within DEALERS, four days I have been to every book bindery in the city, and not a bit of

(The only strictly Wholesale Grocery establishment in the City,)

Our J. W. MILLER recently canvassed the Northwest and made special arrangements with Packers and Railroad Companies, such as will enable us to offer Bacon, Lard, Hams &c., at Baltimore prices.

FLOUR, (A Specialty.)

Have also made special arrangements with some of the leading Mills of the country to furnish us regular supplies of our celebrated brands—"Southern Beauty," "Pride of the Carolinas" and "Our Favorite," which we are selling at prices that defy competition. (Send for samples and price list.) Buying much larger than ever before, and for Cash, we will offer unusual inducements.

June 8

R. M. MILLER & SONS.

LIFE INSURANCE

Principal Office, Richmond, Va.

JOHN E. EDWARDS, Vice-President.

The annual exhibit of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company, for the tion, and so cautious in selection of its risks, that we deem it but justice to refer to the assets of this company amount to $1,960,000.

dence. Thirty days' grace on payment of premiums. Life and Endowment Policies non-forfeitable after two annual payments. Ten year life policies after one payment.

A "paid-up Policy" in this company continues to participate in the profits during the con-

W. A. WILLIAMS, Agent, Charlotte, N. C.

> STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA MECKLENBURG COUNTY,

TRYON ST., CHARLOTTE, N. C. Has constantly on hand, Writing Papers W. H. H. Houston and of the following kinds, viz: Foolscap, Let- J.P. Houston, Def'ts. ter and Commercial Note, Legal Cap, To the Sheriff of Mecklenburg Co. Greetings; Long and Broadbill, French Note and Envelopes to match, French Initial Paper, assorted colors. Envelopes, all kinds and J. P. Houston, Defendant in the above action, to appear at the next term of the Superior Court of the County of Mecklenburg, at the Court House in Charlotte. on the 8th Pencils, Slates and Slate-pencils, Arnold's Monday after the 4th Monday in September, Writing and Copying Inks, David's Blue, then and there to answer the complaint of Black, Violet and Carmine Ink, Full Bound Ledgers and Day-Books, Half-Bound Books in great variety, School to answer the complaint, within the time Books in use throughout the surrounding specified, the said Plaintiff will take judgcountry. Call and examine my stock be- ment for the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ble. Stanwood could hardly realize and for all costs and charges in this suit in-

> Witness E. A. Osborne, Clerk of our said Oourt, at office in Charlottee this the 10th day of August. A. D. 1874.

[April 27—1y

In the Superior Court.

Summons.

E. A. OSBORNE. Clerk of Superior Court of Mecklenburg Co. The above named Defendants will take notice that a writ of attachment has been issued by the above named Plaintiffs against their property for the Sum of Three Thousand Dollars due by note, returnable as set forth in the above Summons, and that if they do not appear and answer, judgment will be taken againt them.

JOHN E BROWN, Attorney.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. SUPERIOR COURT-MECKLENBURG COUNTY. S. G. Howie,

Geo. McWhirter. Plaintiffs, Summons. Against W. H. H. Houston and

J. P. Houston, Def'ts. To the Sheriff of Mecklenburg Co., Greeting. You are hereby commanded in the name of the State to Summon W H H Houston and J P Houston, Defendants in the above action, to appear at the next term of the Su-perior Court of the County of Mecklenburg, at the Court House in Charlotte, on the 8th Monday after the 4th Monday in September, then and there to answer the complaint of S G Howie and Geo. Mc Whirter, Plaintiffs in this suit. And you are further commanded to notify the said defendants that if they fail to answer the complaint varieties spurious plants. For the past four-teen years I have made the sale of Trees, Plants and Seeds my main business, and in 11th day of August, A. D. 1874.

The above named Defendants will take notice that a writ of attachment has been issued against them by the above named Plaintiffs for the sum of Five Hundred and Seventy eight Dollars due by note and ac-count, returnable as set forth in the summons, and that if they do not appear and answer judgment will be taken against them.

VANCE & BURWELL,

JOHN E. BROWN,

Attorneys.

THOS. F. DRAYTON, BROKER.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. Store.

Rents, Sells and Buys Houses and Real Estate in Town and Country.

sept 28—t dec 7

CENTRAL HOTEL. Formerly Mansion House, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

II. C. ECCES, P ROPRIETOR. The patronage of the traveling public is respectfully solicited. Jan 27, '73-1y

Hodges' Commentary on Romans, With Questions on the same. For sale at Tiddy's Book Store.

"So he's got your gold watch?"

he would let it rest." What a curse these hard times are !"

"Ab, what is that?" "Why, Mr. Snow has engaged me to carry small packages, baskets, bundles; and so forth, to his rich customers. He been to more than a dozen of my friends, What do you mean, Maria?" and offered to help them if they would "And what did you mean to do for "I offered either to post their accounts or make out bills, or attend to the coun-Mrs. Stanwoood smiled as her husband "To think that you should have imagin the morning." ined that you should find work in such a "Well this is a pretty go. My wife turned bucher's boy! You will not do any such thing."

"Because-Because-" "Say because it will lower me in the so-

"Well, so it will." "Because when we shall have eaten our breakfast to-morrow morning, we "What?" cried Peter Stanwood, half starting from his chair. "Do you mean lar friends, and engaged for them. At such a time as this, it is not for us to consider what kind of work we will do, so my own convictions of right.'

now thirty years of age, and had three of the children." It was hard for Peter Stanwood, but and wife, and this, together with house the more he thought upon the matter, rent, was a heavy draught upon his purse, the more he saw the justice and right of Mr James says, "if Mr Walkup seeks to the path into which his wife had thus prove that Kenton was mistaken about led him. Before he went to bed be seeing Jackson in Kentucky in 1779, and promised that he would go to the butch- to do it by testimony of witnesses now his wife in the face, "we must starve. I er's the next morning. "But do not despair, Peter. Try again new business. Mr. Snow greeted him years ago, and they were either very young to-morrow for work. You may find somewarmly, praised his faithful wife, and then or very old now." Some of them do thing to do. Anything that is honest is then sent him off with two baskets, one | yet live and remember those facts, and honorable. Should you make but a shilto a Mrs. Smith's and the other to a Mrs | those who were not living have circum-Dixall's. Thus the new carrier worked stances and facts well authenticated by all day, and when it came night he had persons recently deceased, as strong as earned 97 cents. It had been a day of positive proof, that he was then living in trials but no one specred af him, and all Waxhaw settlement. And those persons shall not turn us out. If you will engage trials, but no one sneered af him, and all to find something to do, I will see that his acquaintances whom he met greeted are not quite so old as the old lady spoken him the same as usual. He was far hap- of by John Chambers as "living in 1840," "I'll make one more trial," muttered pier now than he was when he went "But you must go prepared to do any-home the night before, for he was inde-On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and seventy-five cents in his pocket besides having paid for all the food for his family, save some few pieces of meat Snow had given them.— Saturday evening he met Mark Leeds, another binder, who had been discharged

"Have you tried?" "Everywhere; but its no use. I have pawned all my clothes to save those I have on. I've been to the bindery tocarting! He has just turned off his nigger ly recollected things not in "the memory

"Well," said Peter, "If I had been in your place I should have taken up with the offer." noon. These children were known to Mark mentioned the name of the same doing the work of a butcher's boy for a turned at noon bringing a dinner for ber children, and then she went away again. her husband, carrying a very heavy bas-

"Well, Peter," she asked, after her husband had entered and sat down, ment in which to drown his misery. ions to carry to Mr. W.—, his former employer. He took the load upon his made out to get dinner with an old "And where have you looked to day?"

ery place. It's nothing but one eternal old employer, kindly. no-no-no! I'm just sick and tired of "Yes, sir." "What have you offered to do?" "Why, I even went so far as to tend a iquor store down town The wife smiled. you, sir, I'm a regular butcher boy." "Now, what shall we do?" uttered Pe-"And how long have you been at work ter spasmodically. "Why, we will eat our supper first, and talk the matter over."

"Supper! Have you got any?" "Yes-plenty of it." "But you told me you had none." "Neither had we this morning, but I've been after work to-day, and found

"You been after work?" uttered the husband in surprise.

got through." "What-you been washing for our butcher's wife?" said Peter, looking very much surprised. "Of course I have, and have thereby earned enough to keep us in food through to-morrow, at any rate; so to-morrow you may come home to dinner."

"But how about the rent?"

"Oh, I have seen Mr. Simpson, told him just how we were situated, and offered him my watch as a pledge for the payment of our rent within two months, with the interest on the arrearsges up."

"But how about the rent?"

"Oh, I have seen Mr. Simpson, told fervently.

That night he gave Mr. Snow notice him just how we were situated, and of the must quit, and on the following morn he must quit, and on the following morn he must quit, and on the bindery. For two large and turn about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neighborhood, might be made to "wheel about and turn about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neighborhood, might be made to "wheel about and turn about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neighborhood, might be made to "wheel about and turn about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neighborhood, might be made to "wheel about and turn about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neighborhood, might be made to "wheel about and turn about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neighborhood, might be made to "wheel about and jump Jim Crow" up somewhere about "Crow's station in Kenton, or the United States."

"No, he wouldn't take it. He said if would become responsible for the rent,

"Then we've got a roof to cover us, and food for to-morrow. But what next? "Don't despair, Peter, for we shall not starve. I've got work enough engaged to keep us alive."

has had to give up one of his horses."

"Just what I say. When Mr. Snow came home to dinner, I was there, and came home to dinner, I was there, and once more, and for the last time on this Lancaster, South Carolina, about the subject, to reply to the communication of time he was President, in reply to a simiwhich he wished to send around to his Mr James H James. What Mr James recustomers. Never mind that, he said .- lates of Simon Kenton's statement, "that He did happen to want just such work he knew Andrew Jackson in 1779," and of lina;" and also in his proclamation against done, though he had meant to call upon his then being "with Dr Walker, in Kenthe idlers that lounge about the market. tucky," and was then "as old as Kenton," He promised to give me all the work he who says he born about "1755," is simply could, and I'm to be there in good season

"And why not?"

cial scale." "Then it is more honorable to lie still and starve, and see one's children starve, too, than to earn honest bread by honest Henderson and others to run said line, work. I tell you, Peter, if you cannot "but a difficulty arose as to the true lati-find work, I must. We should have tude of 36° 30', and the commission was been without bread to-night, had I not closed." At all events, Dr Walker was not found work to day. You know that all one of the commissioners. They were, seized upon by those who have particu-

ing our butcher's stuff. Why, I would over in the same ship to America." The sooner do it myself." "If you will go," said the wife with a pendent.

with himself. Leeds looked careworn

"How goes it?" asked Pcter. "Don't ask me," groaned Mark. "My family are half starved." "But can't you find anything to do?" "Nothing."

present, forgetting the past, and letting day, and what do you suppose he offered for drunkenness, and offered me the of" any other of "the oldest inhabitants." place! The old curmudgeon! I had a Her vision too, must have improved with shawl. Her oldest child was a girl elev- good mind to pitch him into the hand her age, and have been of thosecart, and run him to the-" ndividual again. "Why," resumed Peter, "I have been

Mark was incredulous, but his companion convinced him, and then they separated, one going home happy and contented and the other going away from home to find some sort of excite-One day Peter had a basket of provis arm, and just as he was entering the "Oh, everywhere! I've been to a hun- | yard of the customer, he met Mr. W .-coming out. "Ah, Stanwood is this you?" asked his

> "What are you up to now?" "I'm a butcher boy, sir." "You see I've brought provisions for at this." "This is the tenth day." "But don't it come hard?" "Nothing comes hard as long as it is bread." "And how much can you make a day at this?" "Sometimes over a dollar, and sometimes not over fifty cents." "Well, look here, there has been no "Yes."

"But how—where—what?"
"Well, look here, there has been no less than a dozen of my old hands hanging the how here girl was sick and I hoped she might have work to be done. I went to her and told her my story, and she set me at work at once doing her washing. She gave me food to bring home to my children and paid me three shillings when I gave me food to bring home to my chil-dren, and paid me three shillings when 1 that I would give him a dollar and a quarter a day; but he turned up his nose, and asked me not to insult him! And yet he owned that his family were suffering. But do you come to my place to morrow Landsford, in South Carolina." And, morning, and you shall have something otherwise, I know as little of him as I do to do, if it is only to hold your bench. I honor you for your manly independence."

a joyous, grateful grip, and blessed him to that date. I told him I did the busi- day a heavy job came in, and Peter Stanness because you were away hunting up wood had steady work. He was happy wife he had; an I second, how much re- the other in date; neither of which would sou ce for good he held within his own energies. Our simple picture has two points to its moral. One is, no man can be lowered by any kind of honest labor. The sec- "was been at sea," he (Anderson) seems to ond, while you are enjoying the fruits of to be so positive and circumstantial, and the present, forget not to provide for the Mr James' assertion that the statement of future; for no man is so secure but that Mr Anderson "cannot admit of a doubt." the day may come when he will want that I am inclined to think that in 1817 the squanderings of the past,

GEN. JACKSON'S BIRTH-PLACE.

MONROE, N. C., May 25, 1859. Messes. Editors: Will you permit me absurd. It is well known that Jackson never left the Waxhaw settlement until after the invasion of South Carolina by Cornwallis in 1780 and 1781. It was in 1780 birthplace. And therefore, as I have established the fact of his birthplace at the house of George McCamie. (or as it is usu-British officer for refusing to black his house of George McCamie, (or as it is usuboots. It was then also that he was taken prisoner to Camden, South Carolina, a youth only thirteen or fourteen years of age. Besides this, I think the line between North Carolina and Virginia was not run in 1779. There was a cammission to Judge kinds of light, agreeable business in Judge Henderson, Oroondates Davis, John Williams, James Kerr and William Bailey Smith. (See Wheeler's North Carolina, page 103, volume 1st.) He (Kenton) may have seen some other Jackson, or may long as it is honest. Oh give me the have mistaken 1789 for 1779.

liberty of living upon my own deserts So, in like manner, the old lady spoken and the independence to be governed by of by John Chambers may have been mis- who saw Jackson next day, and was aftertaken in saying "she received Andrew wards a schoolmate of his for many years, "But, my wife, only think you carry- Jackson in her own hands" as they "came parents of Andrew Jackson came to America in 1765, and Robert may have been smile, "I will stay at home and take care born on the passage, and thus she might have been in error; for it is well known here that Andrew Jackson's father died before he was born.

living in North Carolina, these persons And Peter Stanwood went upon his will be speaking of what they knew eighty who came ever in the same vessel with Jackson's parents, and who said "she received Andrew in her arms at sea;" for if Jackson was as old as Kenton, says, he must have been born about "1755;" and this mid-wife must have been at least twenty-five or thirty years old at that time. which would give her birth about 1725, and therefore in "1840," when she related this fact, or was then living in his (Chamber's) neighborhood," she must have been one hundred and fifteen years old; or if he (Andrew) "was born on the passage," which was in "1765," it shows that Kenton was mistaken as to his (Jackson's) "being twenty-four years old in 1779;" and even then the old lady who "received him in her arms" must have been over one hundred years old in 1840. If her statement was true she must have "received" Robert instead of Andrew; for it does not appear that she ever knew or saw Andrew or the family of Jackson afterwards. She then "must have been very young when that event took place" in 1755 or 1765, "or very old" in "1840," when it was asserted she was "living." She was an old inhabitant, "Why he offered to let me do his hand- at all events beyond "eighty," and certain-

"Optics keen, it takes I ween, To see what was not to be seen." And must have been of the acuteness of Simon Kenton's, of Kentucky, who could discover in a youth of twelve years the grown man of "twenty-four," and who, with a magic power equal to the genii of the Arabian Nights, could transport Andrew Jackson to Kentucky ten years be-still in the Waxhaws at school and with his mother. It just proves how sadly mistaken was this "old wife's fable" and that garrulous the Constitution of 1850, with 'no license' old man Kenton. If he (Kenton) had said that this was in 1789 instead of 1779. then his tale would assume an air of probability. And so also, if the old lady had "received in her own hands" Robert instead of "Audrew," it might be very pro-

As to the "accounts charged against Andrew Jackson." I did not state that they were contracted in "1779," but only adduced them as a circumstance to show that he was in North Carolina up to 1788, and West sink into insignificance. Boston, of he was then not twelve but twenty-one years of age; and I can see no reason why his accounts may not have been charged to him, though he was a minor. His parents were dead, and he had no guardian, and was acting for himself; and I presume accounts are charged against persons off at school and acting for themselves by merhonest, and will furnish my family with chants in every State in this Union, and always have been so.

Andrew Jackson was acting for himself in 1783; he taught school in the vicinity where he was born to enable him to acquire the means of prosecuting his studies. In 1784 and 1785 he was studying law in formed that "one James Crow married a zealous advocacy of it. sister of Mrs Jackson and settled near of that distinguished James Crow, (vulgar-ly called "Jim Crow,") who has so much delighted the Ethiopian songsters. Per-haps the wit of Simon Kenton, or that old lady who lived in John Chambers' neigh-Peter grasped the old man's hand with Kenton has evidently failed in his memory by one decade-just "missed one more happy than ever, for he had figure"—and the old lady just missed the learned two things; first, what a noble right name, viz: one missed it in identity, be very improbable circumstances.

As to W Marshal Anderson's statement about Jackson's reply to his father's ques-tion in 1817 as to his birthplace, that he General Jackson did have that conversation as stated by Mr Anderson, and did make that statement "that he was born at sea;" and it is equally undoubted that since that time General Jackson wrote a letter to Col James H Witherspoon, of lar inquiry from Col Witherspoon; that he "was born at Crawford's, in South Caro-South Carolina he styled them "fellow-citizens of my native State."

These two different assertions being wholly inconsistent and irreconcilable with each other clearly proves that Jackson was ally spelled McKemie,) in North Carolina, by those who were present at the time of his birth, who had the best opportunity of knowing the facts they relate, and who were most likely to be correct, they being all his nearest relatives and closest neighbors, who knew him well then and for long years afterwards, viz: his own aunt, Mrs Sarah Leslie, who delivered her sister, Mrs Jackson, of Andrew; and Mrs Sally La-than, the cousin of Jackson and daughter of Mrs Leslie, who was raised with him; of Mrs Mollie Cowsar, who lived in sight of the place where he was born at that time, and up to the time Jackson was elected President of the United States; of Mrs McWhorter, who was a close neighbor, and present at his birth; and her son, George, and who died in 1840-all these facts and circumstances identify the man, the time, and the place, and ought to satisfy any candid mind beyond a reasonable doubt. I think the evidence I have adduced will satisfy all such.

What I have written is to establish truth, and I now beg pardon of you, Messrs. Editors, and of the public, for trespassing so long upon your patience. I think I shall not feel slighted if this is not published. Very respectfully,

SAMUEL H. WALKUP. National Intelligencer, June 9, 1859.

Elections to Come Off. Oct. 13.-Election of Congressmen in Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska. Oct. 14.-Election of Congressmen in

Oct. 22 .- Election of Congressmen in West Virginia. Nov. 2 .- Election of Congressmen and tate officers in Louisiana. Nov 3 .- Election of Congressmen only n Rhode Island, Arkansas, Florida, Maryland, Minnesota, Mississippi, Virginia, Wisconsin and Texas; election of both Congressmen and State officers in Massachusetts, Alabama, Delaware, Illinois,

Georgia.

Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, New York, New Jersey, Nevada, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Tennessee. HOME AGAIN.-Henry Ward Beecher returned to Plymouth church last evening. His reception, an account of which appears elsewhere, must be gratifying to all who believe in him and who really see true religion in the worship of sentiment. Plymouth church deserves credit for the persistency with which she sustains her pastor, although, we are apt to fear, her members have not lost their disposition to worship Mr. Beecher rather than Jesus Christ. Whatever comes Mr. Beecher need no longer feel that he is on the "ragged edge," but standing on the rock of Plymouth affections. It is pleasant to see some people who believe in some one, and Mr. Beecher should feel as men now go in modern Christianity-N. Y. Herald. OHIO CONSTITTION .- The official canvass of the vote on the Ohio Constitution at the recent election shows that the majority against the new Constitution is 147,284, and the majority against liquor license 6,286. The Cincinnati Gazette says the great body of the temperance people oppose license upon principle, and in order to guard against the contingenfore he was ever there, and whilst he was cy of the adoption of the license clause, they generally voted against the Consti-tution, and adds: "Whatever may be said upon this point, we are back under that he is honored among men-at least, in the fundamental law, and anti-liquor laws on the statute books." THE HOOSAG TUNNEL .- The 1st of November has been fixed as the date for running the first train through the Hoosac tunnel. The tunnel thus completed is four and a half miles long, and in comparison with it, the Box and Kilsby tunnels, on English railways, and the huge course, anticipates that the tunnel will be the means of giving her a colossal export trade in grain, besides the adtavanges of cheap coal, and other New England towns are hopeful of receiving corresponding benefits.

Young Men's Christian Association .-There are now 940 associations in the Union, forty-eight of which have buildings valued at $200,000, and fifty-six are accumulating funds amounting to $500 .-000. There are seventy-eight general secretaries, employed by individual socie-ties to give their time and efforts to this work. Horace Maynard, better known as the great Narragansett, was nominated for Governor of Tennessee, by the Republican convention that met at Chattanooga.

The convention refused to endorse the "connexion" between them. I am only in- Civil Rights Bill. Yet Horace avows At the beginning of the present year the Order of Jesuits numbered 9,104 members. Of these 2,303 live in France: 1,527 in Italy; 1,080 in England and English colonies; 1,588 are on missions and 2,706 in the United States.

theat of await feels settled to be they will got have to compose with this spidest of the real i

First door above the market house, Trade st., Charlotte, N. C. AND CONTINUING FIVE DAYS. BEST QUALITY COTTON GINS,