ENING OF THE JAPANESE PORTS.

he Singapore Free Press takes from the Rotterdam Courant, of the 23d October last, the following paragraph relative Japan:

We have frequently urged that our government should exert its influence with rgy and prudence to open the ports of kingdom of Japan to the general trade the world—to no purpose, however, for, ar as is known, no new efforts have been de since the clumsy attempt which was de for that purpose some years ago, and ved a failure. We see with indifference, the great naval powers—England, nce and North America—send expediis to remove the obstacles which are inposed to a free course of trade; and we not appear to reflect that if we do not mplish the opening of the ports, it will effected without our help, and certainly r disadvantage. The monopoly which possess there is of no advantage to us, excites the envy of other people against Wherefore, then, not seek to gain ge- good will by persevering and conued efforts for the opening of the Japan- ports?

We have lately learned from the En- newspapers that the United States had another expedition to Japan. It is not, r opinion, quite certain that if the harare not willingly opened, we shall not long see the barriers which are opposed the spirit of the times, the present policy the interests of commerce, broken down the cannon. If this should come to , we shall be left to lament over our ness and indifference. May our gonment yet be convinced in time, that it not use too many efforts to induce the peror to admit voluntarily all commerstates to his country."

A GOOD ONE.

Some time since the Methodist Episcopal isters of New York met in Convention, denounced the fugitive slave law as ng opposed to the Scriptures. This used a member of one of the churches, answered this ministerial document pungency, and closed his communicawith an extract from one of the church sitions for the use of the Sabbath ools, as follows:

Who was Philemon?

He was a minister, a fellow-laborer with Paul.

Who was Onesimus?

A slave of Philemon, who having robbed master, runnway from him.

What became of Onesimus?

St. Paul found him, and after being inmental in his conversion, sent him back his master, not feeing it lawful to detain

The writer challenged these ministers to se any other than the following conclus from this passage of a book which y taught in their Sabbath Schools.

1. That Philemon was a minister.
2. That he was a slaveholder.
3. That his slave ran away from him.
4. That St. Paul another minister, found m and returned him to his master.

The effect produced by this communicawas electric. People began to examine themselves, and the re-action commenced, the ablest theologians in the city sung the lead; and the result is that now fugitive slave law is as quietly executed that city as any other on the statute k

THE RANDOLPH NEGROES.

A writer in the Baltimore Patriot, who is elling in Ohio, gives this account of the Randolph negroes, who, it will be remembered, were driven from their homes which had been procured for them by the whites:

"Troy, about twenty miles from Dayton, a small and rather dilapidated town beore this place and Piqur. Along the caare a majority of the Randolph negroes. was in the adjoining county of Mercer, at the large tract of land was purchased their settlement, from which they were rably ejected by the white inhabitants.—he condition of these poor creatures is a sad commentary on the miserable policy of emancipating negroes, and allowing them remain in this country. The majority of hese once valuable servants, are now a worthless burthen upon the community among whom they are located, and often want for the common necessaries of life. I heard several express an ardent wish to return to the shores of Roanoke again, where they had plenty, and did not know what it was to suffer for want."

ARTESIAN WELL.

The Dallas Gazette says that the first Artesian well of Mr. J. E. Matthews in Cahaba is completed. It is 735 feet deep and sends forth a stream of water measured at 1200 gallons per minute. The famous French well at Grenoble, it is said, does not discharge more than half this quantity.—The water (says the Gazette) boils up, roaring like a cataract, forming a branch of considerable size, and the low grounds, some two hundred yards distant, require ditching, to carry off the immense quantity of water ejected upon its surface.

BANK OF ST. MARY'S.

Mr. J. S. Winter, President of the Bank of St. Mary's, has published a letter to Mr. Newton St. John. The letter charges Mr. St. John of making false allegations in his bill against Mr. Winter, in the Court of Chancery of Alabama. It attributes the whole proceeding to personal malice on the part of Mr. St. John, and having for its object the destruction of Mr. Winter's credit and character. The letter states that in opposition to sworn statements, it will give facts which will be proven on trial.

ANECDOTE OF WELLINGTON.

During the campaign of the allied troops in Paris, a French citizen, who was returning from the country through the Champs Elysees, where the troops were encamped, was robbed of a watch by a sergeant in the British army.

Complaint was immediately made to the commanding officer, and the troops were paraded before the Frenchman, who was thus enabled to single out the offender. A court martial was held, and the criminal condemned to die on the following morning.

As early as 4 o'clock the whole of the allied army was assembled in the Bois de Boulogne, near Paris, where the prisoner was to undergo the sentence. The charge upon which he had been tried and convicted was read aloud, and the unfortunate man prepared for the presence of an offended Maker. Not a murmer ran through the ranks. The justice of the decree was acknowledged by every soldier, and if the short lapse of time between the offence and its solemn expiation excited feelings of terror, they were mingled with feelings of respect for the stern severity of their commander. The drums beat and the black flags waved mournfully in the air. The ministers of justice had raised the engines of destruction, and the fatal word "Fire" was half ejaculated, when the Duke of Wellington rushed before their fire-locks, and commanded a momentary pause, while he addressed the prisoner—

"You have offended against the laws of God, of honor and virtue—the grave is open before you—in a few moments your soul will appear before its Maker—your prosecutor complains of your sentence—the man whom you have robbed would plead for your life, and is horror-struck with the rapidity of your judgment. You are a soldier, and as report says, until now, even virtuous. Speak boldly!—in the face of heaven, and as a soldier of an army devoted to virtue and good order, declare now your own feelings as to your sentence."

"General," said the man, "retire and let my comrades do their duty; when a soldier forgets his honor, life becomes disgraceful, and an immediate punishment is due as an example to the army—fire."

"You have spoken nobly," said the Duke with a tear in his eye. "You have saved your life—how can I destroy a repentant sinner, whose words are of greater value to the army than his death would be? Soldiers, bear this in mind, and may a sense of honor always deter you from infamy."

The troops rent the air with huzzas, and the criminal fell prostrate before the Duke.

PRESBYTERIAN (OLD SCHOOL) GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

We learn from the proceedings of this body, at Charleston, on Saturday, that two new Synods were constituted—one in California, and the other in Iowa. The report of the Theological Seminary, although exhibiting a small number of scholars, shows that 250 young men had received, in whole or in part, their theological education there. The seventh annual report of the Western Theological Seminary, shows that in addition to an invested fund of $74,200, large donations in books, &c., were increasing vastly the resources of the institution and its facilities for theological education. Dr. Van Rensselaer read the report of the Board of Education, which was referred to a committee of nine. The election of Trustees on the General Assembly was deferred until the next meeting of the General Assembly. The report on the overture from the Presbytery of New Jersey, against a change in the Book of Discipline in relation to the mode of taking testimony, elicited a warm debate. The report was finally adopted by a vote of 110 to 69.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

The Fairmount, Va., True Virginian says:—We are informed by Col. Haymond and others, that a portion of a regularly McAdamized road has been discovered on the opposite side of the river from this place.—We have not seen it ourselves, but learn that it extends pretty much along the banks of the river. Its width is about 16 feet and the track well graded. The bed of stones seems to be about two inches thick, and made after the plan of our McAdamized roads. The discovery was made by the washing away of the hill-side, which partially covered the road. When, and by what race of people this road was made, is unknown at the present day, but it gives evidence of the existence of a population here, at some other age of the world, as far advanced in civilization, or at least in the art of road making, as ourselves. There was found in the bed of the road, the stump of a chestnut tree, which was ascertained to be 150 years old at the least, and how much older, our informant could not tell as the stump was hollow.

Obituary.

Died at his residence in this county, on the morning of the 5th inst., MR. SILAS REA, in the 50th year of his age.

The subject of this brief notice was afflicted with dropsy for a length of time previous to his death.—This disease produced occasional mental aberation, which, when not brought on by voluntary imprudence, and excess, is in the judgment of the wisest men, abundantly sufficient to release a person from moral accountability for impro er feeling, speech and action, during the period of its continuance.—Although a great sufferer, he did not utter a repining sylable. He was known to reprove others for murmuring and complaining at the dealings of Providence toward them. He frequently expressed an unwavering confidence in the merit and blood of Christ. He had no other kind of hope. He was heard to pray for pardon and grace, when he could not bend his knees at the mercy seat as he desired to do. He was merely able to raise his left hand, and say in the language of the poet:

"Here Lord I give myself away
'Tis all that I can do."

Sensible of the near approach of death, he gave rational and christian counsel to his family, exhorting them to live, so that they might be prepared for heaven when they should leave this world, as he must soon do. He then requested one of the elders of the church to offer a prayer, at the close of which, he expressed a calm resignation, and a wilingness to die. We sincerely hope that all his children will take heed to the parting advice of their affectionate father, and that the supports and consolations of the gospel will be richly imparted to them and their widowed mother. READER! PAUSE!! Have you a pain in the right side, and soreness upon touch, just under the short ribs? Have you inability to lie upon the left side, or if at all able to do so, have you not a dragging sensation produced, which seriously affects your breathing, causing a troublesome dry cough? Is your tongue coated? Have you an acid stomach, deficiency of perspiration, and sometimes a sympathetic pain in the shoulder (either right or left) with disposition to sleep and general depression of spirits? These are symptoms of Liver Complaint and if not attended to, and promptly checked, will eventually terminate in confirmed Consumption, the most baneful of all diseases. Are you troubled with nausea, loss of Appetite, disgust for food, heart burn, a depraved appetite, sense of fulness or weight in the Stomach, sinking or fluttering in the pit of the Stomach, sour eructations, &c &c., connected with cold feet, pain or weakness through the limbs, swimming of the head, sudden flushes of heat, &c., with an acute Neuralgic pain about the tips very often mistaken for Rheumatism? Have you any yellowness of the skin and eyes? Have you a fluttering at the heart; a sense of choking when lying down; cob web feeling about the eyes; fever, and dull pain in the head; constant imaginings of evil and great depression of spirits? Is your pulse quick and strong, and your countenance pale and distressed? These are some of the most prominent symptoms of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. If you have any, or most of the foregoing symptoms, you should at once seek relief. All delays are dangerous, but most of all, that which endangers human life. The old adage "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is most true in its application here. We should at once apply a remedy to the disease. The Wild Cherry Tree Bark possesses a certain, peculiar and specific influence upon the Liver and other important organs of the body, restoring their natural action and thereby establishing that just equilibrium in all the functions of the system, which constitutes perfect health. The best, most certain and agreeable form for the administration of this remedy is, SILL'S COMPOUND WILD CHERRY TONIC AND ALTERANT, which taken in connexion with his Vegetable Anti Bilious Pills will certainly and effectually prevent and cure all cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Nervousness, General Debility, Fever and Ague Intermittant Fever, &c. &c., and will also be found highly beneficial in Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Gout, Rheumatism, Amennorhœa, Chronic Dysentery, Diarrhœa, &c.

Take Particular Notice

THAT I have sold out my establishment in the Town of Charlotte, to Mr. Edward Lonergan; and I return my sincere thanks for the liberal encouragement I received while in business; and am in hopes my successor will give general satisfaction.

I now call upon all those having standing accounts on my books to call and settle them either by Cash or Note, between this and July Court, and all delinquents may expect to find their names published in the Newspaper.

The Books are in the hands of Wm. Hunter, Esq., for settlement.

A New Establishment.
IMPROVED
Colored Photographic LIKENESSES.

THE Subscribers have fitted a suite of rooms for a first class DAGUERREIAN GALLERY, embracing reception and sitting rooms: Ladies toilet; operating and chemical apartments: all replete with the necessary furniture; and as it is the first and only Gallery in Western North Carolina, we have spared no pains or expense to make it, in all respects, equal, at least, to the best in the State.

We now, respectfully announce to the citizens of Charlotte and vicinity, our readiness to execute MINIATURES and PORTRAITS in the finest styles, and at reduced prices.

Our reputation is too well known in this State, to require a prolix notice, but would briefly state that our facilities in every respect, as superior Instruments, Chemicals, Stock, &c., a long practice, and all the improvements to the present date, enable us to guarantee Likenesses, in execution and finish, obviously superior to any now taken in this section, and quite equal to the best brought from the Cities.

Our style of coloring has no EQUAL IN THE SOUTH, and our method of sealing up pictures, entirely and permanently excluding them from dust, &c., is the ONLY EFFECTUAL mode, and precludes all fear of tarnishes.
