Obituary.

Died, near Hopewell church, August 24th, 1852, Mrs. MARTHA McKNIGHT, daughter of Mr. Samuel Wilson, and wife of Mr. Hugh McKnight, in the 50th year of her age.

Mrs. McKnight was, by nature, a lady of the most tender feelings—solicitous alike for the welfare of both friends and relatives. Her christian parentage—together with her natural inborn tenderness of heart, ushered her at an early period of her life to think seriously of a future state.—She thought indeed, and happy was the result of her thoughts, that induced her to "lay hold on the promise set forth in the Gospel," and to seek, in Christ a friend who would shield her in every hour of need—shield her from snares and temptations of Satan, and finally waft her safely into that "haven of rest" where sin and sorrow never enter.

She lived long in her Master's service, and she was indeed a faithful servant! She seemed an angel sent into the world to sooth the sorrows of the poor and to lighten the eyes of the disconsolate—To the poor, she was ever ready to lend a helping hand. To the sick, she was untiring in her efforts to administer to their comfort—both temporal and spiritual. No burden too heavy—no task too hard for unwearied kindness where there was the least ray of hope to assure her that she was granting a favor. She was thus kind, not only to her relations and most intimate friends, but to all whom it was in her power to favor. She was zealous in the cause of Religion, and did all in her power to demolish Satan's throne on earth and to build upon its ruins the kingdom of Christ.

She was the mother of a large family whom she reared with the utmost care and solicitude in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, inculcating those principles of virtue and love which emanate from Deity, and pointing them to the Star of Bethlehem as their only hope for present happiness and a peaceful resting place beyond the grave. But her soul has taken its flight into another world. No more shall her sweet babes, whom she loved, with almost more than a mother's love, listen to those words of wisdom and truth, which fell from the lips of one whose tongue seemed tuned with heavenly accents. She is lost to all on earth and nought is left—save the precepts and example of the kind and loving wife, the indulgent and affectionate mother, and ardent, devout Christian.

She let her light so shine that even after she has gone, it is not extinguished. We have every reason to believe that the Father of Mercies has taken her to himself above, and that she has commenced her long and peaceful sleep in the arms of her Saviour.

CONGAREE HOUSE,

COLUMBIA, S. C.,

BY WM. MAYBIN & H. E. HARDY.

CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS.

THE Proprietor of this universally known and long established Hotel, takes this opportunity of returning his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage he, for so many years, has enjoyed at their hands; and begs to inform them that he has taken into partners in with himself in the management of the business Mr. H. E. HARDY, the former gentlemanly superintendent of the house, whose urbanity and unremitting attention have afforded so much satisfaction to the frequenters of the CONGAREE.

We are not in favor of great promises, and desire to avoid boasting, but we can assure those who stop at our Hotel that nothing which personal effort or liberal expenditure on our part can accomplish, to contribute to their comfort will be left undone—our intention being to make the CONGAREE HOUSE a temporary home to its guests.

W. MAYBIN.

N. B. Mr. Hitchcock's fine Omnibusses will convey passengers to and from the various Railroad Depots to this House; and his elegant Carriages will always be promptly at the service of those who desire to ride about the city or visit the adjoining country.

Notice.

I WOULD respectfully return my grateful acknowledgements to my former patrons for liberal patronage bestowed, and respectfully solicit a continuance of the same to the firm of Overman & Wilson. Mr. Wilson is well and favorably known of the firm of Harry & Wilson.

Feeling sensible of the scarcity of money, I will not ask it. All I ask is a settlement of accounts.

Respectfully,

C. OVERMAN.

N. B. Those are in my hands a good many unsettled accounts due the old firm of Overman & Trotter, which must be settled by CASH or NOTE.
