REMARKS.

COTTON.—Since our last not a single bale is reported to have changed hands. A load of meal would sell readily.

The total sales in this market since the 1st of September amount to 66,139 bales, against 68,813 including the same time last season. The stock on hand in this place, on the 1st instant, amounts to 4,000 bales, against 4,792 bales at the same time last year.

CHARLESTON MARKET.

CHARLESTON, JULY 2.

COTTON.—The transactions to-day reached seven nearly 500 bales, at extremes ranging from 8½ to 10 cents. Prices were about the same as previously reported.

PIANO FORTES.

BEING appointed agent of Newman, Brother & Son's Pianos, I am prepared to furnish any order that may be desired for these celebrated Rose Wood Iron Frame Pianos. Messrs. Newman have been manufacturing for a number of years for themselves, have sold considerably, and I would recommend any person desirous of obtaining a first toned and durable instrument, to call upon me and I will explain the advantages of these instruments over others. This class of instrument does not require tuning as often as other Pianos, neither do they twist or draw up after being used for 3 or 4 years. Terms moderate. Call before purchasing on the subscriber.

Agent for Newman's Pianos, Charlotte N. C.

P. S. A second hand Piano for sale or rent.

$75 REWARD.

STOLEN from the subscriber's stable, on Friday night, 17th of June, a sorrel Mare, eleven years old last Spring. Flesh marks, a white blaze on the forehead, a little white ring around the right hind leg, at the joint; and a reddish gray spot on the nose, supposed to be on the right romp, about the size of the palm of a person's hand; and a hard knot lump the size of a birds egg on the inside of the fore leg above the ancle joint. She was shod before, with horse shoes. I will give $25 reward for the recovery of the Mare, or for information which will enable me to get her. And I will give Fifty Dollars for the detection and apprehension of the thief.

GEORGE M. BARNHARDT.

P. S. There was a stranger traveling on foot in the neighborhood on the evening before the mare was stolen, whose gait and general behaviour of a suspicious character. He is of medium height, dark hair, long nose, down cast countenance, red complexion, deep sunken eyes, and probably weighs 140 lbs. He had on a plain linen coat, and "coast jeans" pants, a red checked vest, and a black fur muff hat. Watch for him. G. M. B.

To the citizens of Mecklenburg and adjoining counties.

ALL persons having Minerals of any kind on their land, if they would take the trouble of bringing them to John E. Penman's office in Charlotte, he would take pleasure in examining them; and if valuable, would go and examine the lands, and make a report of the same, which would be entered in a book, for the benefit of Capitalists who are wanting to invest in Mining Lands. It would be all very well for the citizens at large, and preserve a record or history of the Mines or Mining Interests of Western North Carolina, and after my decease the Book would be deposited with the Clerk of the County Court.
