HOLTON & WILLIAMSON, EDITORS.

T. J. HOLTON, PROPRIETOR.

TERMS:

out be delayed for three months, and THREE DOLLARS at the end of the year. No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, ex-

Auvertisements inserted at One Dollar per square 16 lines or less, take sized type) for the first meerton, and 22 cents of canadamana.

vertisements and Shariff's Sales charged 25 per cent higher; and a desirction of 33; per cent, will be made from the regular prices, for advertisers by the year. Advertisaments inserted monthly or quarterly, at $1 per square for each time. Semithly 75 cents per square for each time.

I.T All letters on business affast he directed to will not be attended to. LF Payments can be made to either.

13" Postmusters are authorized to act as agenta. gini

CAROLINA INN. BY JENNINGS B. KERR, Charlotte, A. C.

Pelewary 16 trad.

TAYLOR'S INTERNATIONAL HOTEL.

Broadway, (Corner of Franklin See .) NEW YORK.

completed and opened for tra-best Europe in Histels, the meals he best made ing served in the several apartments, or at the moles best made in the several apartments, or at the moles in the school, at the option or guests. The Hatel and Furniture combine elegance with computed and is disagreed as well first the convenient reception of translars by the late trains.

And he by him.

Hagler's Hotel.

Till some ther adopte this me that of informing his friends and the public generally, that he has recently refitted and approve for that a common lim the large Break Building on Margerstown are et, in the fawn of Le or owned by C-t Wm Davenoort, of the Happy Ho for South Troy and Engle Mills The a learning topes by an amiduous at fention to his duties to remore the condition of all who top with him comficiable and egre-able. Pemus travelling in the mauntains, and sciency to relays of Lenoir, may find his house a phonent consecuted to the stell or are requested to make once, and repose in its prosperty, are when we immediate settlement with the subscriber, who a have done with it, ill non-shell call us blossed.

A. E. HAGLER.

ANDREW BAGGARLY. C. J. FOX. Sentember 1 1853.

JAMES MOORHEAD. NO. 26, ARCHDALE STREET,

CHARLESTON, S. C.

RANKIN, IULLIAM & CO., IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

Foreign & Domestic, Staple & Farcy stred.

No. 131, Meeting Street,

CHARLESTON, S. C. W. D. HANGIN of Ashivilla, N. C. PULLEASE lat of .

P. M. RAIGHELLE, late of Georgia. A. D. PHITH, late of Ashaville, N. C. Jast Receive,

AT GILMER'S DRUG STORE, MEXICAN MUSE AND LINEMENT, PERCY DAVISS PAIN KILLER,

FULL'S SARSPARILIA, WESTER'S BALSAN WILD CHERRY, DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, DR. HOSFLAND'S GERMAN BIFTERS

Laudreth's Warranted Garden SEEDS.

MISHER & HEINITSH, Druggie's and Chemnets, beg to inform their friends and the pub-generally, that they have now open and ready frem's GARDEN SEEDS, embracing every vacuty usually planted in the Carolinas. The re-putation of Mr. Landreth is extensively known, and well startained from year to year. They take pleasure in stating that every packet of seed from their Store may be relied upon for genuineness. From y 11, 1054.

For Sale, BELVOIR, NEAR LENOIR.

MIS place, late the residence of the under-s gned, is offered for sile on very scenamo-dating terms, privately until the let Manday of The North-Carolina Wing will be afforded to July next enough, when, if not previously disposed subscribers at TWO DOLLARS in advance, or sed of, it will be put up to the highest bidder at TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if pay-public anction. The tract of Land comprises sed of, it will be put up to the highest hidder at public suction. The tract of Land comprises 250 Acres,

50 to 60 of which is first rate bottom under the plow. From 70 to 80 seres til good upland is also in cultiva-boo; the comainder of the tract is woodland. The Dwelling House, a Cot-tage orner, contains four large and convenient me on the ground floor, with dining room, store room, pantry and library attached by a covered way. There are also on the place a barn 70 by 25, two stories high and very conveniently arranged stables directly rows and lorses; all other reces sery out buildings, such as kitchen, negro houses, &c.: a growing and thrifty orchord, containing about 100 trees of different kinds of fruit just beoning to bear. The situation is one of the most pleasant and improvable in the State, commanding a full view of the finest mount in security and falling off beautifully in every direction from the house. To any gentleman in the low country desiring a cool, healthy and pleasant summer residence it presents an eligible choice. Further information may be obtained of the undersigned, by addressing from at Charlotte or Lincolnton

T. S. W. MOTT. February 14, 1834.

CHARLOTTE

Carriage Manufactory, NO. 53, Opposite the Jail.

sellers who desire agreeable and afteretive accommodations. It is the public, that he manufactures out of the conducted upon the principle of the the public, that he manufactures out of the best materials, and by the best of workness, every

Carriages and Buggies.

And he furthermore warrants every article made by him, to be just what he represents it. He deand flatters binecif that he can give general satistaction to all who may call on him.

J. TROTTER.

化对称对公司

A MINE OF WEALTH-

A little more help and its riches shall be de veroped to the ustantshnest of the world and to the enrichment of the south;

The proprieture of Eagle Mills and South Troy, the most important real estate in the South, and nomprising water powers of incating ble value, anothing daunted by a segree of public meglet, are pushing forward. There makes is, a CANARD CONMARD -and so let, their CHARLESTON, S. C.

It was a construction of expectation to expect the season of the same and se realized by a function of the point of the shoemands between the same and the last season of the same and the last september. The children are much in move men give their stitutes thus healthy and their moval and the same of the same and the last season of the same and the last september. The children are much in move men give their stitutes thus healthy and the same and the last september. The children are much in move men give their stitutes thus healthy and the same and the last september. The children are much in move men give their stitutes and the same sequence of the same and the last september. The same gas between the same of the same and the last sequence of the same and the last sequence of the same and the last sequence and the same sequence of the same and the last sequence and the same sequence of the same and the last sequence and the same sequence of the same and the last sequence and the same sequence of the same sequence and the same sequence of the same and the same sequence and the same sequence of the same sequence and the same sequence tion: Come forward gratismen, here is the place for your money, and the placethat will repay you nearon. double for every stoll r expensed. $4,000 a year-for 25 years, are $100,000 -clear-over and slove expenses. Money will make transpy. It strange. The precious in achieving and the and by the deep repeals will make manny. It stronges by the deep many counties and presente Bounds to account properly used. Will you make that very repeals, when it had and Pen on brine. Office Johnston's brik building between Kerr's Hotel and the Pension We'll do the best we can't We'll continue to improve this valuable property, slowly and surely—We'll introduce one thing after another until the ground is occupied. We will not only fix by it. THE consent rough for A sandwell is this chief and the the state of th

Read extension. It is our intention to call of in-formation on this subject, with a view of urging AS always on hand a good assortment of the upon the public and the Legislature, the claims of heat GROCERIES, WINES and LIQUORS. that section; and have but little doubt that it facts Manufactures much recommended by Physicians, and all who have used them, as the best result and strong with Shisbury by railrond as it ought to be, and have used them, as the best result and ground strong with the mortist of the world. To this have used them, as the best result and ground strong with the mortist of the world. To this have used them, as the best result and ground the most the count between the two places with a great one. "No excuse its necessary. Miss shall be used in due time. South Troy will, or shall be used in due time. South Troy will, or shall be used in due time. South Troy will, or shall be used in due time. South Troy will, or shall be used in due time. South Troy will, or where the public which is a great or old an acquaintance to one ceremony." necessity of increasing transporting and traveling facilities. The advantages of such a road would tall powerfully upon the merchantle and mechan-eal interests of Salisbury; Deters, Lawyers and Dynnes, we also concerned, and would all be bene-children, very fould be bene-

Morehead's Premium Wine Bitters,

Law Copartnership.

WM. JOHNSTON and A. F. BREVARD have ing formed an association for the Practice of Law, will bereafter attend the Courts of Mechanics lenburg, Caborrus, Iredell, Lincoln and Gaston chaser? counties, and give prompt attention to all buschess entrusted to them.

1 / Office opposite American Hotel.

January 17, 1854.

Celebrated Schiedem Schapps, money.

ly pure and free from every injurious property, but of the best possible quality. Its cutrantille-

Cheap Drug Store.

For Sale. TWO GOOD WORK HORSES. Inquire at this office.

. Poctrp.

SOULS NOT STATIONS.

Who shall judge a man from manners?
Who shall know him by bus cross?
Paupers may be fit for princes,
Princes, fit for sometiming less.
Crambled shirt and dirty jacket May brobathe the gallen ore, Of the despest thoughts and feelings— Satin vest could do no more.

There are springs of crystal nectar Beer as they dot of time. There are purple buds and golden, Hidden, crushed and over grown; God who counts by souls, not by dresses.

But as publics in the sea. Ort forgets his fellow; then M. stgrs-rulers-lards-remander That your meanest hands are men?

Men by I bor, men by feeling, Men by thought, men by four, It iming repul rights to sure hime; In a man's ennobled name,

There are form embroidered occurs; There are little meh high s. p. lings, The are coders on the hills. But God who counts by souls not stations,

For to him all v in matinctions Are as publics in the sea.

Toiling hunds alone are builders Of a tion's wealth and fame; Trifed lyaness is pressoned, Fed and faltened at the same. By the awest of other's farcheads, Living only to remies, Visite the poor man's outraged freedom Validy liftet's up its voice.

But truth and invoce are eternal Born with loveliness and light,

As the publics of the sea.

And sunset's shall never prosper,
Where there is a sunry right;
And God, whose world-heard voice is singing Boundless love to you and me, Will amk oppression with its titles,

Miscellancons.

From Arthur's Home Mogazine. A FIVE DOLLAR BILL: Charity begter at Home.

BY MISS R. P. DOUGHTY.

labors have been handsmorely rewarded. $1,000, maked Mrs. Williams, as her husband was glean east, in eleven months, is not to a secretal about leaving the house to go to his duily at. And if this some can be realized by a limited employment. "The children are much in ing for interests. But liberal ment, with names one yesterday from damping her feet, and El-means, are those who will receive greatest attentions are also far too thin for the len's shoes are also far too thin for the the luxuries of life."

disease are often sown by a slight cold."

Mr. Williams departed, and his wife procovered to attend to her domestic duties, "I do not wish to constitute myself a which, owing to her huse and a limited judge of your affairs," answered Mrs. Ack-longed to that class of single maidens, who, funds to this being unburthened with cares of their own, haman souls. charitably devote themselves to looking into the affairs of their neighbors. She was alprotection.

"No excuse is necessary, Miss Jones, work. on ceremony."

have recently met with a most touching triumphantly placed before her. children, very feeble health, and quite una proceeded through the busy streets. beg for her, but have exerted myself to make our way. Do stop in with me. It will dea few little articles, which may be sold for tain you but a few moments."

" Really, Miss Jones," replied Mrs. Wil. tered.

OR PURE HOLLAND GIN. This medical by the proprietor at somedam in Holland, and is warranted not on.

"Well, just look at the contents of my with such genuine kindness and good feel-little basket," continued the persevering ing, that no one could suspect her of want of visitor. "It will give me great pleasure to benevolence. visitor. "It will give me great pleasure to benevalence.

"I should like to take one or two little A pleasant looking young lady entered, nately I have no change-nothing but a five ed with Mrs. Evans.

ing her purse from her pocket. "Perhaps charitable mission this morning, and intend with that trifling sum she had hoped to pro- tend to your usual employment." I can relieve your difficulty.

quarter, it will make all right."

shoes, and one for flannel for the baby, not only have the satisfaction of aiding a evening, and the next morning it passed Then she had intended purchasing materi- most worthy family, but you will have a from her mind until he had gone to his daials for warm hoods for Mary and Ellen, work full of useful reading, and valuable, ly business. cape bouncts would be delayed; their it being conducted, and indeed mostly will said in a day or two. I will ask Henry for by sight was not yet most and it was re- Mrs. Ackreman took the paper which the money when he returns, and send it is "Bless you for your kindness," replied but perhaps this might be delayed; their it being conducted, and indeed mostly writ-

"I wish everybody had your feeling, my will add my name at once." dear Mrs. Williams, remarked the chari- "And the other ladies will follow your little exposure. spare a dollar for benevolent purposes!" sensation.

a kind-hearted, good woman." She declined assisting me in the most deci- lowed the desire to appear as liberal as before night was so exceedingly feverish She declined assisting me in the most deci- local to aid in setting a that her father judged it best to call a phy- that you are alone in the world. We will my opening my basket. But I must bid good example to Mrs. Evans, to say nothing sician. you good morning, as I have many calls to of the wish to assist the blind man, go to the shoemaker s," said Mrs. Williams, hand of her friend and added her name respiration.

But when with bonnet and shawl on she "And now Mrs. Emay again be interrupted." had given her parting directions to the at- fair patroness of the blind man.

see that she was intending to go out.

But the present guest was of too distint to refuse appeals to my benevolence."

guished a character to be pasted by. No "But the sum is so trifling, and the "Nothing worse than damp feet, at this bless the Lord for His goodness."

"Nothing worse than damp feet, at this "These once added to your affiliation." But the present guest was of too distin- to refuse appeals to my benevolence." member of the circle in which Mrs. Williams cause is such a good one, Mrs. Evans season, particularly," remarked the physimoved, was more thought of then Mrs. Charity is a great virtue you know."

"Certainly, I agree with you funy," was nor. "By all means, attend to it directly," rethe reply. But just now it is quite out of "Cortainly, as far as my means would be a superior of the reply. "But just now it is quite out of "Cortainly, as far as my means would be a superior of the reply." plied the husband. "Health is not to be my power to contribute anything. The permit. I have certain rules in regard to disregarded. The seeds of many a fatal small sum which I have by me is already these matters by which I regulate my con-

"I do not wish to constitute myself a income, devolved in a great measure upon fusal, I must entreat you, as a true friend, berself.

of my busband's income, and make it my sickness has prevented. Let Mary sit by band of the Legion of Honor, was choosing especial study to provide for the comfort Ellen, and amuse her for a few minutes, from the dealer's stock of goods some shell of my family in an economical and product. for make morely but make morely from the busy round of the find constant employment and good wages. No difficulty about it. Eagle Mills and South Troy of this instrument;" said he. It is not to make, and if there is any one artisely about it. Eagle Mills and South Troy of this instrument; said he. It is not which I consider a positive duty, as other-Miss Jones, the lady who entered, he pensed with to appropriate a part of your miged to that class of single maidens, who, funds to this great cause—the salvation of mulate, and to mist the lady who debts will accu-

P. S. The location and other advantages at so a prominent member of several henevo. and here she paused, and once more count. South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the and approximately member of several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the and approximately member of several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the and approximately member of several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and stressing the several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly and several benevo.

South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly new project for benefitting certain poor pro-bill. There was no surplus remaining, but productive of good. I first seek out the der our care." new project for benefitting certain poor proteges whom she took under her own peculiar perhaps the last item might be delayed. It poor in my own immediate neighborhood, to or those who by some providential circum, husband. "Another time you will be betwas not absolutely necessary to pay the "You must really excuse my calling at Young girl immediately. Possibly she would stances are brought particularly to my nothis early hour, my dear Mrs. Williams, not call for the money of the house ad, it was really impossible to refuse such a she exclaimed, as the lady of the house ad, woman as Mrs. Ackerman, who was so were all the address. charitably devoting herself to a glorious

> So after a little hesitation another dollar You are too old an acquaintance to stand on extramony?
>
> So after a little hesitation another dollar to fund, and must be cautious less I trest. Ellen's illness has put everything else out he agreed, pocketed the money and without the first and the name of pass upon money devoted to other purposes. Ellen's illness has put everything else out drew, lamenting the sail necessity which "Thank you for saying so. And now I Lucy Winiams swelled the list which was

This done; the two ladies, arm in arm, ble to support such a family without assist- "My next call must be on Mrs. Evans," her benefit. Will you allow me to show With a slight feeling of curiosity as to ment of a just debt, and to the content to you and urge you to become a pur- how Mrs. Evans would meet this second her children, had been expended. claim upon her charity, Mrs. Williams en-bliged to meet several heavy expenses of they were not long kept in waiting. With shoes and a few yards of flannel. late, and is somewhat troubled for ready a friendly greeting, Mrs. Evans advanced to meet them, her countenance beaming " Well, just look at the contents of my with such genuine kindness and good feel-show you my handiwork, even if you do not nurchase. A few general observations passed, and Mrs. Ackerman proceeded to tate the obfor the admiration of Mrs. Williams, who, but perceiving the unfavorable impresssion ation in that part of her bosom where she actuated, Mrs. Evans was about to add a said-things, just for the sake of be-towing my attered an exclamation of pleasure at find-need it, I will endeaver to send it to you in can relieve your difficulty.

"Yes, here is a three and a one. Now, "Many beside yourself appear to be en-lid and destitute mother. if you will take that pretty cushion you are gaged in the good cause of charity this Quite dispirited, Mrs. Williams returned for our comfort. The last bit of fuel which these useful work-bags for the other received arrived in the sure of them out of sight, exclaiming—

"Indeed! But my business must be of them out of sight, exclaiming—

Easily done, to be sure, but Mrs. Wil- a different nature, for I am the only agent—"How I wish Alice had the money which liams was rather startled at the idea of on- at present. I have a little paper here, ed- I paid for these. I suppose I must ask make you comfortable, now that you are ly four dollars for the necessary purshases ited by a poor blind man, as a means of Henry for a dollar for her, though I hate unable to provide for yourselves," was the which she had mentioned to her husband, gaining a support for himself and his fami- to tell him of my foolishness." Hastily she ran it over in her mind, ly. The subscription is only one dollar for The refuetance to tell her husband pre-"One dollar for the sempstress, two for the year, payable in advance, and you will vented the request from being made that who will do more. Siekness in our own ally uncharitable to refuse Miss Jones, who was offered for examination, and also the Alice, this evening worked so disinterested by herself. So the list of persons who had already subscribed. The morning was cloudy, and soon after five dollar bill was drawn from its hiding. "You have been successful," she re- the children went to school the rain came place, and the three and one placed in its marked, as she gianced over the names, down in torrents. On their return, little stead, while the pin-cushion, bag and pen. "I have no objection to bestowing a dellar Ellen's thin shoes were perfectly saturated table lady, as she rose to depart. "I have example and do the same, I hope," was the "See, how dry my feet are, mamma, made but one call this morning, but that reply; and again poor Mrs. Williams fin- with my thick new shoes!" exclaimed Mary. was an unsuccessful one. You know Mrs. gered the purse in which her little store triumphantly. When will you buy Ellen a Evans. Should not you suppose she could was now deposited, with a peculiar uneasy pair husband's income is considerably larger was certain, and Mary's shoes were too bad; she thought of the appropriation of the than ours, and they have no more family to but Ellen's might do a little longer. True, needful sum, support. I have but a slight acquaintance they were thin for the season, but a week. Experience is a stern teacher. Its leswith her, but have been told that she was or two could make but little difference, and sons are valuable but often bitter. Mr. Williams expected to receive a consid-She may be so, but I saw no signs of it. erable sum before many days. Then fol- symptoms of a sudden and violent cold, and

All these various reasons triumphed, added, as he felt the pulse of his little paas she closed the door after her visitor. "I with a feeling of satisfaction slightly min-had given her parting directions to the second state of the lady appealed to shook her head, who was standing by the bea, nothing another ring was heard.

"And now, Mrs. Evans," continued the most have taken cold."

"It is quite out of my power," she said rowfully at her sister. "Her shoes are very a No more mornine calls I hope," thought firmly. "I am grieved to appear uncharition, indeed, not like my nice thick ones, the lady, as she herself opened the door, table to so many of my friends, but it is my which keep out the water." resolved that the introder should at least endeavor to act conscientiously in these Mr. Williams looked enquiringly at his duct, but I fear their repetition may be or those who by some providential circumstances are brought particularly to my no-tice. After they are eared for I am ready so far as my means will permit to assist so far as my means will permit to assist those at a greater distance, even to the heathen in foreign lands. At the present time,

I have had unusual demands upon my little fund, and must be cautious lest I trea-Excuse this long explanation, ladies, but it of my mind. I hope the poor girl has not compelled him to part with his favorite in-

With some altered feelings, the guests sum: took leave. The remarks of Mrs. Evans had at least furnished them with food for Give me the number, and I will go at once an instrument maker, who offered him three auce from the humane. I do not wish to remarked Mrs. Ackerman. "It is right on reflection, and with regret Mrs. Williams and settle it." reflection, and with regret Mrs. Williams and settle in.

A short walk brought Mr. Williams to a little late, that he had been the dupe of the door of the comfortless dwelling, one two adroit knaves, whom he described to ment of a just debt, and to the comfort of

If Mrs. Evans is right in her ideas of true charity, I have certainly not acted in ing woman, who directed him to their apartliams, "I fear I must decline assisting you A nearly-dressed, bright-eyed little girl accordance with it," she mentally exclaimed, ment. saying, as she did so:
this morning. Mr. Williams has been on showed them into a pleasant room, where as she proceeded to purchase one pair of "The poor woman is very as she proceeded to purchase one pair of "The poor woman is very low, sir. fear she has not many days to live."

> stress awaiting her. "Could you conveniently let me have the when at work at his house.

dollar which you awe me, Mrs. Williams?" she asked, in a timid but earnest manner.

being also of an exceeding'y charitable dis- which she had made upon her guests, and liked to urge her request, but necessity but her eyes were closed, and she did not and laid it aside for the lady. When she wipers were duly transferred to her work- upon so worthy an object, and if Mrs. Ev. with wet, and with some suxiety her mother ans will kindly furnish me pen and ink, I hastened to warm and dry her teet, and the child was naturally delicate, and could bear

"Very soon, my dear," was the reply, Most certainly was the reply. "Her The baby most have his flannel. That accompanied by another pang of regret as

Not many hours elapsed ere Ellen showed

"I will dress myself immediately, and and Mrs. Williams took the pen from the tient, and listened to her short and labored "They returned from the school in the

"Her feet got very wet," added Mary, matters, and to do this I am often obliged wife, but her face was turned from his ob-cian, as he wrote a prescription, and prom-Ackerman. For piety, be sevolence, and a "It is, indeed, but it consists not in more ised to call at an early hour in the morning. host of Christian virtues, she was esteemed alms-giving. I consider the right performs. The mother passed an anxious night at unequalled, and with a cordial welcome ance of all our duties as so many acts of the hed-side of the restless child. She felt Mrs. Williams led the way to the parior. charity. In the first place, we should fearful that a regular course of fever must which I shall not easily forget. Henceforth "But I fear I interrupt" was Were pay particular regard to the welfare of fellow, and the opinion of the physician at should go hand in hand with justice and asked Mrs. Williams, as her husband was she accepted the recking-chair which her our care by the Divine Providence. Our Several days clapsed before the little invafriend drew forward for her convenience, children are certainly among the first ob- lid showed any signs of recovery, and then ildren are much in ... Only to the shoemakers. I can go by . jests of our charity, and their moral and her feeble frame had received such a shock own hear connections, inquired Mrs Ackerman, with some severity of tone and manner, one severity of tone and manthick shoes for both the children! I unto take it again as soon as, thanks to my sufficient for all needful purchases."

Mrs. Williams blushed but frankly replied: him ten frances and kept the violin, which he "And so it was, flenry, had I approprishing up in the shop. wearisome to you. In the first place, I ated it as we intended. I meant to have The next day but one a gentleman, well have an accurate knowledge of the amount told you all about it long ago, but this dressed, wearing at his button hale the riof my busband's income, and make it my sickness has prevented. Let Mary six by band of the Legion of Honor, was choosing fully convinced that Mrs. Evens is right, violin," continued the unknown, "is worth spply, often enforce their claims in a man-ner exceedingly annoying. But the little dept to Alice—has it yet been discharged in two hundred frames. After some hasitation

"It may not be trifling to her, Lucy came suspicious. He carried the violin to room of which was occupied by Alice and the police. her mother.

His koock was answered by a tidy-look-

Her self-reproach was increased, on The inner door was opened by Alice, "Walk in, sir, she said, in a faltering

"Let me see," replied Miss Jones, draw- said; "for you must know that I am on a from her eyes as she left the house, for you have no longer leisure to at-cure some necessary comforts for her inva-en- lid and destitute mother. She solbed out, "the dollar will do much just admiring, at fifty cents, two pen-wipers morning," replied Mrs. Evans smiling.— to her parlor, and looking with disgust at I have in the world is on the fire, and I for your little girls, at twenty-five, and one "This is the the third call which I have the pin-cushion and work bag, which acci- knew not where to procure the means to of these useful work-bags for the other received" dentally met her eye, she hastily thrust purchase more. But we have never yet been reduced to asking charity." "Nevertheless, you must allow others to reply. "My own means are limited, but I will do what I can, and there are others family must excuse Mrs. Williams for her neglect in not sending you the money as she promised. Make yourself quite easy as to fuel. It shall be sent you immediately, and if you like I will request my own the sobbing girl. "It is hard to be friend-less and alone," and with a grateful heart, she saw Mr. Williams depart on his benevoent errand.

Ere the usual hour for retiring to rest, she was in possession of more comforts than she had known for a long time, and all fears, lest her dying mother should suffer from causes which human aid might releive,

But the kind physician, who, at the request of Mr. Williams, soon visited her, gave no encouragement that life could be colonged beyond a few brief days. When the convalescence of little Ellen permitted Mrs. Williams to visit the humble dwelling, she found Alice alone in her grief. The poor sufferer had gone to rest. "And now, Alice, you must come home with me, for the present at least," said her sympathising friend, as the lonely girl gladly protect you; and the assistance "Can you account for the attack?" he which you can render me in my domestic duties will be an ample recompense. I have the full consent of Mr. Williams to this plan, so you need not hesitate." "My Heavenly Father has, indeed, raised rain," answered Mr. Williams, " and must up a friend in my hour of need," was the grateful reply. "There have been moments when I have been almost led to distrust His providence, when I have seen my poor mothr in need of comforts which I could not procure, and have expended our last dollar in the bare necessaries of life; but I can now look back upon the way through which I have been led, and, with a full heart,

> "I have once added to your afflictions by withholding your just dues," said Mrs. Wijliams; "but for this you must forgive me, Alice. For the in-t few weeks I have been learning a lesson in true charity, thick shoes for both the children. I un-dershood you that the money I gave you was coat, I shall have earned some money at balls and parties." The young man had such an honest bearing, that the dealer lent

"It will, I hope, be a useful lesson to mine," replied the shop-keeper, and be reme," she said in conclusion. "I am now lated how he came to possess it. "This whom Providence has placed peculiarly un-a needy artist who, it may be, obliged, and "That is undoubtedly true," replied the who can play just as well on another violin." ter able to withstand the persuasions of the the unknown added, in taking his leave,

Two days after the young man re-ap-"I am grieved to say that it has not he agreed, pocketed the money and withseemed necessary for my own justification." suffered from the want or such a trifling strument. At the end of the week the dealer, not seeing the decorated gentleman, be-

CAMPHOR DID IT.

A gentleman of much natural and acquired talent, but very bashful, a few years ago, was attentive to a young lady whom we know. Her friends did not favor his attentions. He was always strongly perreaching home, she found the young seam- herself, who immediately recognized Mr. funed with camphor, so much so that they Williams, whom she had several times seen called him her "camphor bottle." He probably used it for the headache. At any rate it was disagreeable to her, and espevoice; " my mother is very ill, and I cannot cially to be so much tormented about her but of the best possible quality. He extraorance of the spartment best possible quality. He extraorance of the spartment best possible quality, and attested by the whole medicial faculty, and attested by them as a superlative Tonic, Directic, Anti-Dyspeptic, and invigorating cordial. For sub-at FISHER & HEINITSH'S

The basket was accordingly opened, and infants' aprons, exhibited pin-cushions and infants' aprons, exhibited for the admiration of Mrs. Williams, who, but perceiving the unfavorable impression.

The sick woman lay on a bed in one corner.

The sick woman lay on a bed in one corner.

The sick woman lay on a bed in one corner. The girl hesitated. She evidently dis- The sick woman lay on a bed in one corner, led between the leaves powdered camphor, position, began to feel a slight uneasy sen- respecting the motives by which they were overcame her reluctance, and she again seem to notice that any one had entered. returned the book was handed to her. She "Has your mother been long ill?" asked opened it, and the smell of comphor and the sation in that part of her boson where she had thrust the five dollar bill which arose were too much for had thrust thru "It is impossible, Alice, but if you really ten days she has failed rapidly."

A few days after he was told he need not meed it, I will endeaver to send it to you in "And are you not in need of some assistant call upon her again. We are not aware she said hesitatingly. "But unfortu- ing Mrs. Ackerman and Mrs. Williams seat- a day or two. What is your number?" tance, my good girl? I called to pay the that she knows to this day the joke that With a deep sigh, Alice gave her address, dollar which has been too long due; but in was played upon her. Young men be care-"It will save me such a long walk," she and took her leave. The tears fell fast your present situation, other relief is necess ful and select agreeable perfement.