Sunday Reading.

Power of Truth.

When the teachings of revelation are long dealt out with little visible effect, the unhappy result is by some attributed to the defect or faulty manner of the teacher. He is not clear in his statements, or he is not earnest in his utterance; in his ministrations, truth lacks point and directness, its force is lost in circumlocution and glosses; he does not draw the sword of the Spirit from its scabbard and thrust it naked and gleaming at the sinner's heart. If he speaks the terrors of the Lord and the wrath which shall come on the wicked who die in their sins, he softens down the Bible language descriptive of these terrors, as if afraid to excite alarm, or to give offence, &c.

Now it is very proper for the preacher himself to inquire into his own feelings, and practice in relation to these points. Every true minister of Christ does make such inquiries for the desires to 'preach the preaching which God bids him,' and the manner which God requires; and he will gratefully heed any suggestion, made in a proper spirit, to overcome or remedy any actual defect.

But is the complainer sure that the fault is the ministers and not his own? It has sometimes been true, that the word which ninety nine have heard with indifference, or a carping or cavilling temper, has proved the word of life to the hundredth hearer. It was the same word from the same speaker spoken in the same manner; and while it "did not profit the ninety-nine, it was the message of salvation to one. You will say, perhaps that the Spirit of God interposed and made it effectual in the case. True; but if the Spirit could employ such an instrument and use such an instrumentality to convert a sinner, who invested you with the prerogative to judge that preacher, and the truth he delivered in that form? Are you not premature in your criticisms and fault-finding? And will not your cavils if further indulged in, steel your heart against the saving influence of truth, though uttered by the tongue of an angel?

The necessity of the Spirit's agency no one can doubt who believes the Scripture, or knows "the plague of his own heart." But this does not exonerate man from the obligation of giving his attention to the truth and voluntarily exercising his faculties and affections in regard to it. They are to receive it as God's truth and not man's opinion or invention. The apostle commended the Thessalonians, because they received the word, which he had preached to them, "not as the word of man but as it was in truth the word of God." So should it ever be received, whatever the medium through which it comes to us, and if this were remembered and duly regarded it would silence a thousand cavils which are now aimed at preachers. The hearer must also believe the word in order to its saving effect.—"The word of God, which effectually worketh in you that believe," says Paul to the Thessalonians. Faith in God's word is essential to its transforming and vitalizing effect. We should risk nothing on the promises of a fellowman if we did not believe them. We shall not obey God, unless we believe his Word.

The rationalism which asserts man's inability and recognizes his entire independence on God, yet very properly teaches us our duty in this matter. Its language is: "That the word may be effectual to salvation we must attend thereunto with diligence preparation and prayer; receive it with faith and love; lay it up in our hearts and practice it in our lives." How appropriate and full of meaning are these words! We all know what diligence in worldly callings means. The diligent student, the diligent laborer, the diligent professional man, are applications of the term too common and significant to require elucidation. So the diligent reader or hearer of God's Word; is one who lets no opportunity for doing either pass unimproved. And he will make preparation for hearing by reflecting on his words he is to hear whose voice will speak to him through the word. He is to be auditor of the Deity. What he is to hear is unchangeable and everlasting truth, by which he is to be judged at the last day; and he will pray, that he may receive with meekness the engrafted word which is able to save the soul; and love it with that pure ardor of affection which characterized the Psalmist and regulate his feelings and conduct by its rules. Heard with such preparation and prayer, the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation.—Ch. Mercury.

THE BUSINESS OF CHRIST'S MINISTERS.

It is not the business of a minister of Christ to seek reputation as a man of science and literature, but to preach "Christ crucified." He is at liberty to draw from science and literature whatever helps, real, not imaginary, he can, for the prosecution of his great work. But he must ever make them handmaids to the pure and unadulterated doctrines of the Cross, not panderers to his own pride and vanity; else he will fall into the snare of the devil.

It is not the business of a minister of Christ to shape his preaching so as to gain the name of long learned—talented—refined—brilliant—eloquent, (although the more he has of true talents, attainments the better,) but to commend the simple truth of God to every man's conscience, be he high or low, rich or poor, learned or ignorant. If he preaches so as to exhibit himself instead of his Master, he will certainly fall into the snare of the devil, may be is already taken in it.

It is not the business of a minister of Christ to look out for himself the largest and most respectable parish, where he can quietly enter into "another man's line of things made ready to his hand;" but to enter the door of usefulness which the providence of God set open before him, though there may be many trials and difficulties connected with it. Better is he who, by the help of God's grace, raises up a small parish and himself with it, than he who sinks down together with a large parish. Nevertheless a minister of Christ may lawfully go to any station to which God's providence plainly calls him; but he should remember that many more have been destroyed by the temptations of high places, than by the trials and difficulties of low places.

It is not the business of a minister of Christ to go where he can receive the most pay, but where he can do the most good.—He is appointed to feed the flock of God, "taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind." There is a woe denounced against shepherds that feed the flock, the flock whom he feeds are bound to give him such a competent maintainance as shall relieve him from the necessity of wasting his time and strength in secular employments. If when they are able, they are unworthy of his services; and he has a right to leave them, and go where he can give his undivided energy to the ministry of the word to which God has called him.

It is not the business of a minister of Christ to shine in ecclesiastical meetings—to be great in marshalling and manœuvering the men of his party. True, it is his duty to attend the meetings of his ecclesiastical connection, and to give his counsel and opinion there in the fear of God, neither courting popular applause, nor fearing popular denunciation. But he should ever remember that it is much more excellent and honorable, to be great in the sight of the Lord, great in feeding the flock of God, than in an ecclesiastical body.

SINGING IN FAMILY WORSHIP.

That most charming part of domestic worship, singing the praises of God, says the "Presbyterian," it is much to be regretted, has fallen, to a great extent, into disuse. Either from the hurry or weariness of business in this driving age, or from the want of cultivation at the most favorable period a taste for music, or from a decline of interest in the service itself, one now seldom hears at the morning and evening household worship,

"Perhaps Dundee's wild warbling measures rise,
Or plaintive Martyrs worthy of the name," nor indeed any other sacred song.

The Scottish Free Church Record speaking of a similar state of things in that country, says:

"Scotland could once boast of the day when the voice of praise ascended from almost every hearth. How seldom the sound is now heard by the passer-by! which some one has remarked, was like the scarlet thread hung out on the walls of Jericho to bear witness that God was acknowledged in that house. Philip Henry says—'Those do well that pray morning and evening in their families; those do better who pray and read the Scriptures, but those do best of all who pray and read and sing psalms.' Nothing tends more to enliven family worship and render it interesting than singing; and the influence of the music may long endure when youthful associations are recalled in after years. By the introduction of this practice among his children and domestics, the head of a house has peculiar opportunities of aiding in the revival of sacred music; it is productive of many advantages both to the members of the family and to the Church at large, and an interest in psalmody is excited which would extend to public occasions."

ONE TALENT.—Some of our readers perhaps, would be offended, were we to tell them they have but one talent, yet when we talk to them about their duty, they are ready enough to plead lack of qualification as an apology for not permitting it.—We fear most of us have more talents than are profitably invested in our Master's service. But what if you have but one talent, must you fold it in a napkin and hide it in the earth? Was it give to you for that purpose? You know it was not. You know that every body, no matter how humble and obscure, may do some good.

Ho! for South Troy and Eagle Mills
A MINE OF WEALTH—
A little more help and its riches shall be decouped to the astonishment of the world and to the enrichment of the south.
THE proprietors of Eagle Mills and South Troy, (the most important real estate in the South, and comprising water powers of inestimable value,) nothing daunted by a degree of public neglect, are pushing forward. Their motto is, "ONWARD! ONWARD!"—and so far, their efforts have been handsomely rewarded. $4,000, (from coal), in eleven months, is not to be sneezed at. And if this sum can be realized by a limited investment of capital, what could not be done by a liberal and full handed company! And will not money men give their attention to this locality and its great inducements for the investment of capital? Its intrinsic and prospective value has been estimated at $2,700,000!!! Very comfortable sum, this, to be caught at by the subscriber thanks, to be earned mainly by attention of millionaires. At one time it was within the reach of men of small means—those who boast of their 20-30, and 50 thousand dollars. They must be satisfied, now, with simply seeing the land of promise. They are invited to come and take a look; and perhaps they may be gratified with a brief talk about trading for interests. But liberal men, with handsome means, are those who will receive greatest attention. Come forward gentlemen, here is the place for your money, and the place that will repay you double for every dollar expended. $4,000 a year for 25 years, are $100,000—clear—over and above expenses. Money will make money. It strangely multiplies itself, and that very rapidly, when properly used. Will you come? Come—if you will. If not, why, we'd go on as we have done: We'll do the best we can: We'll continue to improve this valuable property, slowly and surely.—We'll introduce one thing after another until the ground is occupied. We will not only live by it, but make money. Poor men who want work shall find constant employment and good wages. No difficulty about it. Eagle Mills and South Troy are bound to go ahead, just as sure as the sun shines and that the rain falls to water the earth.—The Southern country shall feel its benign influence, and rejoice in its prosperity, and when we have done with it, all men shall call us blessed.
ANDREW BAGGARLY.
January 19, 1854. 35

P. S. The location and other advantages of South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly understood and appreciated, would hardly fail of arresting the serious attention of the friends of the Western Rail Road extension. It is our intention to collect information on this subject, with a view of urging upon the public and the Legislature, the claims of that section; and have but little doubt that if facts of sufficient importance shall be adduced, South Troy and Eagle Mills, will be speedily connected with Salisbury by railroad as it ought to be, and thence with the mechanic of the world. To this end, a survey of the route between the two places shall be made in due time. South Troy will, ere long, become a manufacturing city; and hence the necessity of constructing transporting and travelling facilities. The extended pre of such a road would fall powerfully upon the merchantile and mechanical interests of Salisbury; Doctors, Lawyers and Divines, are also concerned, and should all be benefitted. A. DR. STRONG'S
PECTORAL STOMACH PILLS.
A remedy for Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Consumption, Nervous Diseases, Dyspepsia, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Disease of the Heart, Hysterics of all kinds, Obstructed and painful Menstruation, Inflammation and Pain in the Chest, Back and Side, and all diseases arising from a deranged state of the Stomach, and to relieve the distress and last feelings from fasting too hearty food, in weak and dyspeptic habits.
WARRANTED TO BE PURELY VEGETABLE.
These Pills act as an expectorant, tonic, and aperient, and are designed to supersede the use of the various cough mixtures, in the form of Expectorants, Syrups, Balsams and sarsaparillas of the present day, being what the public have long needed, and put at such a low price that all will be able to obtain them. One box of these pills, which costs but 25 cents, will cause four times the power of curing the diseases for which they are recommended, than the high priced, one dollar bottles of any of the expectorants, syrups, balsams, or sarsaparillas now before the public—and a fair trial of them will convince any one of the truth of this statement.
They possess properties peculiarly adapted to restore the lungs and vital organs to a healthy state. They loosen and discharge all the morbid secretions, assist greatly the expectoration, and render the lungs free from that effete matter which characterizes all those diseases; and the proprietor has authorized us to state, from personal observation, and witnessing the astonishing effects of these pills in a multitude of cases, that there is not another remedy in the whole Materia Medica capable of imparting such healing properties to the lungs and vital organs as these pills.
Each box contains 25 pills.—Price 25 cents.

DR. STRONG'S
COMPOUND SANATIVE PILLS.
WARRANTED TO BE PURELY VEGETABLE.
HEALTH is too important to be trifled with; yet we find persons every day who give the most careful attention to their ordinary business pursuits, yet neglect that which is far more important to them, their health. If these invaluable Pills were kept on hand by every family, and resorted to on the first symptoms of disease, they would save many a valuable life, sacrificed by delay. They are a most superior Medicine in the cure of all Bilious Complaints, Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Scrofula, Loss of Appetite, and all lingering diseases.
They purify the blood, equalize the circulation, restore the Liver, Kidneys, and other Secretory Organs to a healthy tone and action; and from their tonic effects, prevent that general prostration and debility of the stomach and intestines that is so often the consequence of a free use of other purgative medicines. Hence as a Female Medicine, they have no equal, and when taken according to the directions, they never fail to cure the very worst cases of Piles, after all other remedies fail. They act in concert with nature, and assist her in her efforts to overcome diseases; they must, therefore, exert an influence all-powerful in preserving and restoring the general health. They have been used in every form of disease, and in various climates, and their excellence proved, in cases where medical skill and many boasted remedies had failed to afford relief. Diseases that seemed the most opposite in their nature, have yielded with equal facility to their use, and cures have been effected in cases that seemed beyond hope. Nor is it strange that such should be the case, for all diseases, however differently named, disorganize the secretions, and impair the vitality of the blood.
A medicine, therefore, that is purely vegetable, and aids nature to restore these important functions to a healthy state, must prove of service in all forms of disease.
DR. STRONG'S COMPOUND SANATIVE PILLS, possess these rare virtues, and are therefore not a mere purgative medicine, but a general renovator of disease, a purifier of the blood, and a strengthener of the system.
Those who have once tried these Pills never afterwards feel willing to be without them, which is sufficient proof of their good qualities.
☞A box contains 25 pills. Price 25 cents.

DR. JOHN BULL'S SARSAPARILLA.
IT is put up in full quart bottles, and contains the strength of one ounce to each pint Honduras Sarsaparilla as any similar preparation in America. Price, one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.
It has been a well established fact, for years past, that Sarsaparilla, when pure and properly prepared, was the only true panacea for all diseases originating from an impure state of the blood, the use of mercury, intoxicating drinks, and luxury in youth, barrenness, &c. We boldly assert, that JOHN BULL'S LIQUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA is the only preparation before the public, that is prepared on strictly scientific principles, and of uniform strength. The Sarsaparilla is purchased without regard to price and ever pound, before being used, is subject to the strictest chemical tests, and its genuineness ascertained to be of the highest order.
Bull's Sarsaparilla also contains the virtues of several other valuable medical roots, together forming the best compound, and producing the Greatest Curative Agent in the known World.
This medicine, when used according to directions, will cure, without fail—
Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancers, Tumors, Eruptions of the Skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetters, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, and the worst forms of Ulcers, Swelling of the Glands, Syphilis, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Fevers of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, the use of long Fasts, pain in the Side and Shoulders, General Debility, Dropsy, Lumbago, Jaundice, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Weakness of the Chest, Pulmonary or Liver Complaint, and all other Diseases resulting from a disordered state of the Blood, Liver Complaint, Female Irregularities and Complaints, Sick and Nervous Headache, Low Spirits, Night Sweats, Exposure or Imprudence in Life, Chronic Constitutional Diseases, and is a Spring and Summer Drink for the Million, and a Gentle and Pleasant Purgative, far superior to Blue Lick or Congress Water, Salts, or Jalap Powders.
