

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA

One Week Later from Europe.

COTTON ADVANCED.

BAFFAX, May 21.

The steamer America has arrived, with Liverpool dates to Saturday, May 12. The America will be due at Boston on Friday night and her mails will doubtless reach New York on Saturday afternoon.

The news is very meagre. There has been no event of importance here. Sabastopol. Affairs are much in the same position, although some trivial successes with the allies have been reported.

The tone of public sentiment appears to have become more confident, in the conviction that the war must be a protracted one, without hope of assistance from Austria.

Several extensive failures at Liverpool were spoken of privately just prior to the departure of the America. No names had been transmitted.

The Commercial news as regards Cotton is highly important. Transactions continued extensive, the week's business being over 100,000 bales, of which a large portion was taken by speculators, at an advance of about 1/4.

Breadstuffs—There is little or no change, except in Corn, which is a trifle higher. Provisions are generally steady at former rates.

London Money market easy—Consols closed at 88 1/2. M. Drouyn de L'Hays, the French Minister of war, had resigned, from an unwillingness to protract the war, and Count Walewski, the French ambassador at London, had been appointed his successor.

All the documents in regard to the Austrian Conference had been laid before the British Parliament.

Reckless Paella had been superseded as Grand Visier by Mahomet Paella. Pinaro, who attempted to assassinate the emperor Napoleon, had been condemned to death.

The emigrant ship John, from Plymouth, bound to Quebec, was wrecked, and a number of lives were lost.

APPEALS IN THE CRIMINAL. A corresponded note from the camp, April 27, explains the difficulties of the siege, but states confidently that the allies advance over the ground bit by bit, and that while the works advance there can be no doubt of ultimate success, provided the Russians in the field are unable to force the allies to raise the siege.

Gen. Caubert has announced that when reinforcements arrive he will enlarge the circle of his operations, implying that he will attack the Russian field position. On the 28th of April Caubert writes to the emperor that the British army has recovered its health and efficiency, and is on equal terms with the French.

The latest official advices from Sebastopol are to May 19. On that day, in the morning, the Russians made a sortie with a large body of troops on the allies' right flank, but were driven back immediately, and a second and similar attempt showed the same fate. Nothing could be better than the conduct of the troops who took part in the affair. The loss of the enemy was serious.

Gen. Margaria had arrived with four thousand Sardinian troops. The concentration and readiness are damaging the proposed scheme of a Turkish contingent commanded by English officers of the Indian army.

THE BALTIC SQUADRON. The English fleet is working up towards Gotland as we permit. It is said that France asks permission to establish a French camp on Swedish territory, and if refused Bomarsund will be occupied and fortified by the Allies.

Three ships left England on the 19th to blockade the White Sea. Symptoms increase that the Austrian and Prussian nations are attempting to effect a coalition against the German States. Editors of semi-official journals have been invited to favor the movement.

The documents of the Vienna Conference, the whole extending to ninety pages, are partially republished in the English newspapers, and have excited much interest. Palmerston has evaded answering the question whether the conferences are or are not finally broken off; but it is said, as the accredited representatives of all the powers, Russia included, continue to reside in Vienna, the elements of the conference permanently exist should Russia or Austria on behalf of Russia, at any time make proposals offering a prospect of a settlement.

A Russian note, in the form of a circular, addressed to the German States, says that the Czar, relying on the continuance of the policy hitherto pursued by them, will adhere to the resolution given at the conference to the first point of the guarantee.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS. The French mail had not arrived. The Vienna correspondent of the London Times remarks, that as long as no revolutionary elements are brought into action, Austria will leave Russia to get out of her difficulties as she best can; but if England and France should resolve to form a corps of refugees, and employ them on or near her frontiers, the Holy Alliance would be scarcely again be formed.

JARIS, May 12—Evening. The Monitor does not contain any news from the East. VIENNA, May 11—Evening. The rumor that Count Bismarck had given his resignation is not confirmed. BERLIN, May 11—Evening. Count Esterhazy, the Austrian Ambassador, has returned from Vienna. It is said that Austria is on the point of declaring her complete neutrality, as that of the work of Germany.

GREAT BRITAIN—PARLIAMENT PROCEEDINGS. In Parliament it was stated that Lord Randolph's proposed to draw up the Russian fortifications had been submitted to the Scientific committee, including Messrs. Parnell, Playfair and Graham. The return of articles from the New York Express which referred to, and in which it was stated that the French government is responsible for articles sent to the Paris Express. A long debate ensued on a motion of adjournment of a day, to permit of the publication of the British answer. The bill to suppress Green Green met visions was also lost. The second reading of the bill providing the marriage to a deceased wife's sister was carried by a small majority.

The bill removing the newspaper stamp tax was read a third time and passed. Mr. Layard has temporarily postponed his motion of inquiry into the management of the army and navy.

Mr. Rowlock's committee is still in session. Sidney Herbert and Admiral Dundas have been examined, and Lords Aberdeen and Darrocs cited to give evidence.

The movement in favor of an administrative and industrial management continues to be held. Lord Palmerston is especially becoming unpopular as his predecessor (Lord Aberdeen) was.

The London Times, in an editorial which has attracted some notice, says that the circumstances that America does not sympathize with the allies is shocking and revolting.

An adjourned meeting was held at London of the English contributors to consider how they may get back their contributions from the New York Exhibition.

An incidental item, set by a discharged foreman, that got totally out of the hands of the baronet just ready to launch in the Thames.

The Queen gave a State ball on the 16th. The United States Minister, Secretary of Legation, and Mr. Lane were present.

The Champion of the Sea arrived at Liverpool, from Melbourne, 15th February. FRANCE—ASSASSINATION OF PROCHA DE LAURENT—MINISTRIAL CHANGES—NEW LEAS—REVIEW OF PHOTO, ETC.

M. de Persigny is appointed Ambassador to England, in room of Count Walewski, who succeeds Drouyn de L'Hays as Minister of Foreign Affairs. Further changes are rumored, namely, that M. Billaut, Minister of the Interior, will succeed Admiral Hamelin, who retires from Minister of Marine; M. Boucher, Minister of Public Works, will succeed Billaut, and M. de Richemont, Director of Orleans Railway, succeeds Boucher.

A new loan of seven hundred million francs is at present under consideration by the Council of State.

SPAIN—DECLARATION RESPECTING THE SALE OF CUBA. In the Cortes on the 23 inst., Senor Arce, chief of the opposition, declared, in the name of the democratic party, that it had never entered into any negotiations with M. Sola for the sale of Cuba.

ITALY—THE REAR-FIRE BY NAPLES. It was reported that the King of Naples was fired at by an assassin, at a review, but that he was found out, upon inquiry, to have been nothing more than an accidental discharge from the gun of a soldier.

Mount Vesuvius is in an active state of eruption. Gen. Caubert has announced that when reinforcements arrive he will enlarge the circle of his operations, implying that he will attack the Russian field position.

On the 28th of April Caubert writes to the emperor that the British army has recovered its health and efficiency, and is on equal terms with the French.

The latest official advices from Sebastopol are to May 19. On that day, in the morning, the Russians made a sortie with a large body of troops on the allies' right flank, but were driven back immediately, and a second and similar attempt showed the same fate.

Nothing could be better than the conduct of the troops who took part in the affair. The loss of the enemy was serious.

Gen. Margaria had arrived with four thousand Sardinian troops. The concentration and readiness are damaging the proposed scheme of a Turkish contingent commanded by English officers of the Indian army.

THE BALTIC SQUADRON. The English fleet is working up towards Gotland as we permit. It is said that France asks permission to establish a French camp on Swedish territory, and if refused Bomarsund will be occupied and fortified by the Allies.

Three ships left England on the 19th to blockade the White Sea. Symptoms increase that the Austrian and Prussian nations are attempting to effect a coalition against the German States.

Editors of semi-official journals have been invited to favor the movement. The documents of the Vienna Conference, the whole extending to ninety pages, are partially republished in the English newspapers, and have excited much interest.

Palmerston has evaded answering the question whether the conferences are or are not finally broken off; but it is said, as the accredited representatives of all the powers, Russia included, continue to reside in Vienna, the elements of the conference permanently exist should Russia or Austria on behalf of Russia, at any time make proposals offering a prospect of a settlement.

A Russian note, in the form of a circular, addressed to the German States, says that the Czar, relying on the continuance of the policy hitherto pursued by them, will adhere to the resolution given at the conference to the first point of the guarantee.

Provisions had advanced. Mayor canier. Consuls 804. The siege of Sebastopol has been unattended with any thing important up to May 13th. An expedition of 15,000 men left Kamiesch Bay, and sailed in the direction of the sea of Azoff, but had returned without landing. Omar Pasha's troops had returned to Kapatia. The Allies expected large reinforcements in ten days. Gen. Caubert had resigned the command of the French army, and had been succeeded by Gen. Peissier.

The negotiations between Austria and the Allies were unchanged, but were more intimate between Austria and Prussia. Prussia had notified the German States that the Czar will only hold to the first two guarantees adopted at the Vienna Conference, on condition that Germany maintains a perfect neutrality.

France and England had presented an ultimatum to Sweden, which the latter would probably reject. The French Exhibition had been opened, but the economy was rather dull. Prussia, who attempted to shoot Napoleon, had been executed.

An adjourned meeting was held at London of the English contributors to consider how they may get back their contributions from the New York Exhibition.

An incidental item, set by a discharged foreman, that got totally out of the hands of the baronet just ready to launch in the Thames.

The Queen gave a State ball on the 16th. The United States Minister, Secretary of Legation, and Mr. Lane were present.

The Champion of the Sea arrived at Liverpool, from Melbourne, 15th February. FRANCE—ASSASSINATION OF PROCHA DE LAURENT—MINISTRIAL CHANGES—NEW LEAS—REVIEW OF PHOTO, ETC.

M. de Persigny is appointed Ambassador to England, in room of Count Walewski, who succeeds Drouyn de L'Hays as Minister of Foreign Affairs. Further changes are rumored, namely, that M. Billaut, Minister of the Interior, will succeed Admiral Hamelin, who retires from Minister of Marine; M. Boucher, Minister of Public Works, will succeed Billaut, and M. de Richemont, Director of Orleans Railway, succeeds Boucher.

A new loan of seven hundred million francs is at present under consideration by the Council of State.

SPAIN—DECLARATION RESPECTING THE SALE OF CUBA. In the Cortes on the 23 inst., Senor Arce, chief of the opposition, declared, in the name of the democratic party, that it had never entered into any negotiations with M. Sola for the sale of Cuba.

ITALY—THE REAR-FIRE BY NAPLES. It was reported that the King of Naples was fired at by an assassin, at a review, but that he was found out, upon inquiry, to have been nothing more than an accidental discharge from the gun of a soldier.

Mount Vesuvius is in an active state of eruption. Gen. Caubert has announced that when reinforcements arrive he will enlarge the circle of his operations, implying that he will attack the Russian field position.

On the 28th of April Caubert writes to the emperor that the British army has recovered its health and efficiency, and is on equal terms with the French.

The latest official advices from Sebastopol are to May 19. On that day, in the morning, the Russians made a sortie with a large body of troops on the allies' right flank, but were driven back immediately, and a second and similar attempt showed the same fate.

Nothing could be better than the conduct of the troops who took part in the affair. The loss of the enemy was serious.

Gen. Margaria had arrived with four thousand Sardinian troops. The concentration and readiness are damaging the proposed scheme of a Turkish contingent commanded by English officers of the Indian army.

THE BALTIC SQUADRON. The English fleet is working up towards Gotland as we permit. It is said that France asks permission to establish a French camp on Swedish territory, and if refused Bomarsund will be occupied and fortified by the Allies.

Three ships left England on the 19th to blockade the White Sea. Symptoms increase that the Austrian and Prussian nations are attempting to effect a coalition against the German States.

Editors of semi-official journals have been invited to favor the movement. The documents of the Vienna Conference, the whole extending to ninety pages, are partially republished in the English newspapers, and have excited much interest.

Palmerston has evaded answering the question whether the conferences are or are not finally broken off; but it is said, as the accredited representatives of all the powers, Russia included, continue to reside in Vienna, the elements of the conference permanently exist should Russia or Austria on behalf of Russia, at any time make proposals offering a prospect of a settlement.

A Russian note, in the form of a circular, addressed to the German States, says that the Czar, relying on the continuance of the policy hitherto pursued by them, will adhere to the resolution given at the conference to the first point of the guarantee.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA. One Week Later from Europe. COTTON ADVANCED. BAFFAX, May 21. The steamer America has arrived, with Liverpool dates to Saturday, May 12. The America will be due at Boston on Friday night and her mails will doubtless reach New York on Saturday afternoon. The news is very meagre. There has been no event of importance here. Sabastopol. Affairs are much in the same position, although some trivial successes with the allies have been reported. The tone of public sentiment appears to have become more confident, in the conviction that the war must be a protracted one, without hope of assistance from Austria. Several extensive failures at Liverpool were spoken of privately just prior to the departure of the America. No names had been transmitted. The Commercial news as regards Cotton is highly important. Transactions continued extensive, the week's business being over 100,000 bales, of which a large portion was taken by speculators, at an advance of about 1/4. Breadstuffs—There is little or no change, except in Corn, which is a trifle higher. Provisions are generally steady at former rates. London Money market easy—Consols closed at 88 1/2. M. Drouyn de L'Hays, the French Minister of war, had resigned, from an unwillingness to protract the war, and Count Walewski, the French ambassador at London, had been appointed his successor. All the documents in regard to the Austrian Conference had been laid before the British Parliament. Reckless Paella had been superseded as Grand Visier by Mahomet Paella. Pinaro, who attempted to assassinate the emperor Napoleon, had been condemned to death. The emigrant ship John, from Plymouth, bound to Quebec, was wrecked, and a number of lives were lost. APPEALS IN THE CRIMINAL. A corresponded note from the camp, April 27, explains the difficulties of the siege, but states confidently that the allies advance over the ground bit by bit, and that while the works advance there can be no doubt of ultimate success, provided the Russians in the field are unable to force the allies to raise the siege. Gen. Caubert has announced that when reinforcements arrive he will enlarge the circle of his operations, implying that he will attack the Russian field position. On the 28th of April Caubert writes to the emperor that the British army has recovered its health and efficiency, and is on equal terms with the French. The latest official advices from Sebastopol are to May 19. On that day, in the morning, the Russians made a sortie with a large body of troops on the allies' right flank, but were driven back immediately, and a second and similar attempt showed the same fate. Nothing could be better than the conduct of the troops who took part in the affair. The loss of the enemy was serious. Gen. Margaria had arrived with four thousand Sardinian troops. The concentration and readiness are damaging the proposed scheme of a Turkish contingent commanded by English officers of the Indian army. THE BALTIC SQUADRON. The English fleet is working up towards Gotland as we permit. It is said that France asks permission to establish a French camp on Swedish territory, and if refused Bomarsund will be occupied and fortified by the Allies. Three ships left England on the 19th to blockade the White Sea. Symptoms increase that the Austrian and Prussian nations are attempting to effect a coalition against the German States. Editors of semi-official journals have been invited to favor the movement. The documents of the Vienna Conference, the whole extending to ninety pages, are partially republished in the English newspapers, and have excited much interest. Palmerston has evaded answering the question whether the conferences are or are not finally broken off; but it is said, as the accredited representatives of all the powers, Russia included, continue to reside in Vienna, the elements of the conference permanently exist should Russia or Austria on behalf of Russia, at any time make proposals offering a prospect of a settlement. A Russian note, in the form of a circular, addressed to the German States, says that the Czar, relying on the continuance of the policy hitherto pursued by them, will adhere to the resolution given at the conference to the first point of the guarantee.

in work. The Charter provides that the Road shall be divided into sections, and that so soon as a section of twenty-five miles is completed the State will acquire it.

The greater portion of the work being graded the Road, I should consider it decidedly essential to the interest of the Company, to keep this part of the work open to the public, and to let the State take the management of the road, and to let the State take the management of the road, and to let the State take the management of the road.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

[FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA WHIG.] General Pierce. A HYDRAULIC FORCE. The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

The following tracks I say not to your credit, but to that of your partial friends at large. But by that the lien existing Administration, I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time, and I mean for a short time.

England, which amounted to one-eighth of her population, while upon our own soil, more than one-eighth were not only paupers, but slaves; that now the foot of the father is chained to the neck of the daughter, and both galled on to labor, and every time the father raised and put on his foot, the neck of the daughter has to bow in conformity to his motion, "held up the character of Sumner and Henry Ward Beecher, as only worthy of imitation by the rising 'Young America,' and prophesied that the onward march of abolitionism would bring within our Government, Mexico and the neighboring islands of the ocean, that it would tread slavery underfoot wherever it was encountered, and would 'tear out of America's history, that page which has been stained by the greed and blood of the black man.' This will give you an idea of his general strain upon this subject, and I have no doubt, in the stereotyped character of the address of all his numerous addresses, that page which has been stained by the greed and blood of the black man.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

Everywhere, I hear one universal expression of confidence and respect for him, and men in all Massachusetts. The Editor State of the Court—the individual of Webster, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker, and I must say, the name of Theodore Parker.

THE WAY THEY DO IT.—The abolitionists of the North, says the Wilmington Commercial, has published an expose of the Third or Union Degree of the "Know Nothing," to prove that the American party is allied with the slaveholders of the South.

The Administration papers in Virginia, in publishing their expose of the order, took particular pains to leave his desire out—and such we believe is the case with the Democratic papers of North Carolina. Will these persons pretend that they desire